Hor-thrasher should fly or how deep a ses, panting and with lathered flanks, are not swift enough to run to the out-out the height or the depth of woman's duty. The question of capacity will settle finally the whole question, the pire, but I have to tell you that on this settle maily the whole question, the pire, but I have to bell you that on this whole subject. When a woman is pre-pared to preach, she will preach, and neither conference nor presbytery can hinder her. When a woman is prepar-the nation's anathema, but she who is ed to move in highest spheres, she will have great influence on the exchange. and no boards of trade can hinder her. I want woman to understand that heart and brain can overthrow any ities. barrier that politicians may set up and that acthing can keep her back or keep her down but the question of capacity.

WOMAN'S BEST RIGHTS. I know there are women of most ndesirable nature who wander up and but when you want to get your grandest idea of a queen you think of the plain woman who sat opposite your down the country, having no homes of down the country, having no homes of their own or forsaking their own homes, talking about their rights, and we know very well that they them-selves are fit neither to vote nor fit to keep house. Their misisons seem to be to humiliate the two sexes at the thought of what any one of us might become. We one would want to live under the laws that such women would enant on to have cast upon society. father at the table, or walked with him arm in arm down life's pathway, sometimes to the thanksgiving banquet, sometimes to the grave, but always to-gether—soothing your petty griefs, cor-recting your childish waywardness, joining in your infantile sports, listening to your evening prayers, toiling for you with needle or at the spinning wheel, and on cold nights wrapping nact, or to have cast upon society you up snug and warm. And then at last, on that day when she lay in the that such women raise. But I will show you that the best night that woman can own she already has in her possession; that her position in this country at this back rooms dying, and you saw her take those thin hands with which she toiled for you so long and put them toher position in this country at this tone of you so long and put them to-time is not one of commiseration, but gether in a dying prayer that com-mended you to God, whom she had deus and power of her realm have never yet been appreciated; that she queen! The chariots of God came never yet been appreciated; that she sits today on a throne so high that all the thrones of earth piled on top of each other would not make her a think of it now without a rush of otstool. Here is the platform on hich she stands. Away down below are the ballot box and the congrestenderness that stirs the deep founda-tions of your soul, and you feel as much a child again as when you cried mage and the legislative nal assen han.

APPRECIATION OF HER RIGHTS. Woman always has voted and al-

on her lap, and if you could bring her back again to speak just once more your name as tenderly as she used to speak it you would be willing to throw yourself on the ground and kiss the sod that covers her, crying, "Mother, ways will wote, Our great-grandfath ers thought they were by their votes putting Weshington into the president. I had ever seen I bewed, a stranger to strangers. But after awhile, when they clapped their hands and shouted, "Welcome! Welcome!" the mystery was solved, and I saw that time had passed and that eternity had come, and that God had gathered us up into a higher home, and I said: "Are all here?" 'and the voices of innumerable queen in a home will never lose her throne, and death itself will only be generations answered, "All here." And while tears of gladness were raining down our checks and the branches of the annexation of heavenly principalthe Lebanon cedars were clapping their THE MOST QUEENLY WOMAN hands and the towers of the great city were chiming their welcome, we began to laugh and sing and leap and shout: When you want to get your grandest idea of a queen, you do not think of Catherine of Russia, or of Anne of England, or Maria Theresa of Austria, "Home! The buoy is about 100 feet SE from the wreck. One must and heel of topmast are afloat attached to rigging.

Among the presents given Lord and Lady Minto on their visit to St. Peters, C. B., was a small guill box, the work of an Indian woman. Those whe saw the box say it was really the work of an art, in which Indian Tribes alone are proficient.
