by first observer. The select ded out and the hile in the uns poorly headed ted to a gain of es with all the osed of different ple trees. The ted thirty feet er, and between inted the plum planted in the for their own ass and clover

p. In the drills they are all in ring. We were ur seeds planted the season. gardens is very ing, and I am d girls are being etter results than we will have, far better con-

SCHOOL GAR-STON.

grade 7.1 d when I heard hool was going hich each pupil ce of ground to l harvest. partment they each row con tht by ten feet om, or grades ave two rows. ten plots six ten feet. New e go down the oms there is Also around four feet in there are two plots ten by ese plots were rent kinds of inted one was een and Borhe other was en only. sprayed with ordeaux mixand that it paid have to learn while working e hest When can enjoy the warm air. en feet. The were planted otatoes, peas, npkins.

peas, turnipa but expect a year.

Plot. ston, N. B. son, Dr.30

YSIS. with facial tern Hill. St. erve Food I and have rethat I have

WHEN KNIGHTHOOD WAS IN FLOWER

Or, The Love Story of Charles Brandon and Mary Tudor, the King's Sister, and Happening In the Reign of His August Majesty King Henry the Eighth Rowritten and Rendered Into Modern English From Sir Edwin

By EDWIN CASKODEN [CHARLES MAJOR] opyright, 1898 and 1901, by the Bowen-Merrill Company ments would make a man of her in which the keenest eye could not detect

They were discussing the matter when a knock came at the door, with the cry, "All hands on deck for inspec tion." Inspection! Jesu! Mary would not safely endure it a minute. Brandon left her at once and went to the from deck inspection," he said.

"My lord is ill and begs to be excused Bradhurst, a surly old half pirate of the saltiest pattern, answered: "Ill?

Then he had better go ashore as soon as possible. I will refund his money.

ship. If his lordship is too ill to stand inspection, see that he goes ashore at This last was addressed to one-of the ship's officers, who answered with the usual "Aye, aye, sir," and started for

That was worse than ever, and Brandon quickly said he would have his lordship up at once. He then returned to Mary, and after buckling on her sword and belt they went on deck and climbed up the poop ladder to take their places with those entitled to Brandon has often told me since that it was as much as he could do to keep back the tears when he saw Mary's wonderful effort to appear manly. It was both comical and pathetic. She was a princess to whom all the world bowed down, yet that did not help her here. After all she was only a girl, timid and fearful, following at Brandon's heels, frightened lest she should get out of arm's reach of him among those rough men and longing with all her heart to take his hand for moral as well as physical support. It must have been both laughable and pathetic in the extreme. That miserable sword persisted in tripping her, and the jack boots, so much too large, evinced an alarming tendency to slip off with every step. How insane we all were not beginning. It must have been a unique stopped their tasks to stare in wonder-ment. Old Bradhurst stepped up to ter," and then, surveying her from head to foot, with a broad grin on his ture of health, if I ever saw it. How Mary quickly responded, "Fourteen

"Fourteen," returned Bradhurst,

"Well, I don't think you will shed much blood. You look more like a deuced handsome girl than any man

I ever saw." At this the men all laughed and were very impertinent in the free and easy manner of such gentry, most of whom were professional adventurers with every finer sense

These fellows, half of them tipsy.

now gathered about Mary to inspect her personally, each on his own account. Their looks and conduct were very disconcerting, but they did noth-slap on the back, accompanying it ing insulting until one fellow gave her by an indecent remark. Brandon tried to pay no attention to them, but this was too much, so he lifted his arm and knocked the fellow off the poop into the waist. The man was back in a and clicking away at a great rate. The contest was brief, however, as the fellow was no sort of match for Brandon who, with his old trick, quickly twisted his adversary's sword out of his grasp and with a flash of his own blade flung it into the sea. The other men were now talking together at a little distance in whispers, and in a moment one drunken brute shouted:

"It is no man. It is a woman. Let us Before Brandon could interfere the fellow had unbuckled Mary's doublet at the throat and with a jerk had torn it off, carrying away the sleeve and exposing Mary's shoulder, almost

He waved his trophy on high, but his triumph was short lived, for almost instantly it fell to the deck, and with it the offending hand severed at the wrist by Brandon's sword. Three or four friends of the wounded man rushed upon Brandon, whereupon Mary screamed and began to weep, which of A great laugh went up, and instantly general fight began. Several of the gentlemen, seeing Brandon attacked by such odds, took up his defense, and within twenty seconds all were on one side or the other, every mother's son of You see how quickly and completely one woman without the slightest act on her part, except a modest effort to be let alone, had set the whole company by the ears, cutting and slashing away at each other like very devils. The sex must generate mischief in some unknown manner and throw it off, as the is an exception to that rule-if it is a sun throws off its heat. However, Jane

The officers soon put a stop to this lively little fight and took Brandon and Mary, who was weeping as any right minded woman would, down into claimed: "It is plain enough that you have brought a girl on board under ready to put her ashore. You see what

With a great oath Bradhurst ex-the cabin for consultation.

throwing her to the deck.

course told the whole story.

them fighting away like mad.

see more of her!"

ent, and swords were soon drawn dulled and debased by years of vice.

old are you?'

'I hope your lordship is feeling bet-have foreseen this from the very Mary's cabin.

stand aft.

cannot make a hospital out of the

From the beginning, I think, it had never occurred to Mary to doubt the result. There had never been with her even a suggestion of possible failure, unless it was that evening in our room, when, prompted by her startled modesty, she had said she could not bear for us to see her in the trunk hose. Now that fruition seemed about to crown her hopes she was happy to her heart's core, and when once to herself wept for sheer joy. It is little wonder she was happy. She was leaving behind no one whom she loved excepting Jane and perhaps me. No father nor mother; only a sister whom she barely knew and a brother whose treatment of her had turned her heart against him. She was also fleeing with the one man in all the world for her and from a marriage that was literally worse than death.

Our travelers were of course greatly in need of rest, so Mary went to her room and Brandon took a berth in the cabin set apart for the gentlemen.

They had both paid for their passage, although they had enlisted and were part of the ship's company. They were not expected to do sailor's work, but would be called upon in case of fighting to do their part at that. Mary was probably as good a fighter in her own way as one could find in a long journey, but how she was to do her part with sword and buckler Brandon did not know. That, however, was a bridge to be crossed when they should

They had gone aboard about 7 o'clock, and Brandon hoped the ship would be well down Bristol channel before he should leave his berth. But the wind that had filled Mary's jack boots with rain and had howled so dismally all night long would not stir, now that it was wanted. Noon came. vet no wind, and the sun shone as placidly as if Captain Charles Brandon were not fuming with impatience on the poop of the Royal Hind. Three o'clock and no wind. The captain said it would come with night, but sundown was almost at hand and no wind vet Brandon knew this meant failure if it held a little longer, for he was certain the king, with Wolsey's help, would long since have guessed the truth.

Brandon had not seen the princess since morning, and the delicacy he felt about going to her cabin made the situation somewhat difficult. After putting it off from hour to hour in hope that she would appear of her own accord, he at last knocked at her door and, of course, found the lady in trou-

The thought of the princess going on deck caused a sinking at his heart every time it came, as he felt that it was almost impossible to conceal her identity. He had not seen her in her new male attire, for when she threw off her riding habit on meeting him the night before he had intentionally busied himself about the horses and saw her only after the great cloak covered her as a gown. He felt that however well her garments might conceal her form, no nan on earth ever had such beauty in his face as her transcendent eyes. rose tinted cheeks and coral lips, with their cluster of dimples, and his heart sank at the prospect. She might hold out for awhile with a straight face, but when the smiles should come-it were just as well to hang a placard about her neck, "This is a woman." The telltale dimples would be worse than Jane for outspoken, untimely truthfulness and rouble provoking candor. Upon entering Brandon found Mary wrestling with the problem of her com plicated male attire, the most beautiful picture of puzzled distress imaginable. The port was open and showed her rosy as the morn when she looked up at him. The jack boots were in a corner, and her little feet seemed to put up a protest all their own against going into them that ought to have softened every peg. She looked up at-Brandon with a half hearted smile and then threw her arms about his neck and sobbed like the child she was. "Do you regret coming, Lady Mary?" asked Brandon, who, now that she was alone with him, felt that he must take no advantage of the fact to be famil-

"No. no! Not for one moment. I am glad-only too glad. But why do you call me 'Lady?' You used to call me

"I don't know; perhaps because you "Ah! that is good of you; but you need not be quite so respectful."

The matter was settled by mute but satisfactory arbitration, and Brandon continued: "You must make yourself ready to go on deck. It will be hard, but it must be done."

He helped her with the heavy jack boots and handed her the rain stained slouch hat which she put on and stood a complete man ready for the deckthat is, as complete as could be evolved from her utter femininity.

When Brandon looked her over, all hope went out of him. It seemed that every change of dress only added to her bewitching beauty by showing it in a new phase.

"It will never do. There is no disguising you. What is it that despite everything shows so unmistakably feminine? What shall we do? I have it. You shall remain here under the pretense of illness until we are well at sea, and then I will tell the captain all. It is too bad, and yet I would not have you one whit less a woman for all the world. A man loves a woman who is so thoroughly womanly that nothing false colors, and you may as well make Mary was pleased at his flattery, but she has already done-a hand lost to disappointed at the failure in herself. one man and wounds for twenty others she had thought that surely these gar-she would have the ship at the bottom of Davy Jones' locker before we could sail half down the channel."

"It was not my fault" sobbed Mary, her eyes nashing fire. "I did nothing; all I wanted was to be left alone, but those brutes of men-you shall pay for this: remember what I say. Did you expect Captain Brandon to stand back and not defend me when that wretch was tearing my garments off?" "Captain Brandon, did you say?"

asked Bradhurst, with his hat off instantly. "Yes," answered that individual. "I shipped under an assumed name for various reasons, and desire not to be known. You will do well to keep my secret." "Do I understand that you are Master Charles Brandon, the king's friend?" asked Bradhurst

"I am," was the answer. "Then, sir, I must ask your pardon for the way you have been treated. We of course could not know it, but a man must expect trouble when he attaches himself to a woman." It is a wonder the flashes from Mary's eyes did not strike the old seadog dead. He. however, did not see them and went on: "We are more than anxious that so valiant a knight as Sir Charles Brandon should go with us, and hope your reception will not drive you back. But as to the lady, you see already the result of her presence, and, much as we want you, we cannot take her. Aside from the general trouble which a woman takes with her everywhere"-Mary would not even look at the creature

-"on shipboard there is another and greater objection. It is said, you know, among sailors that a woman on board draws bad lucky to certain sorts of ships, and every sailor would desert before we could weigh anchor if it were known this lady was to go with us. Should they find it out in midocean a mutiny would be sure to follow, and God only knows what would happen. For her sake if for no other reason take her ashore at once." Brandon saw only too plainly the truth that he had really seen all the time, but to which he had shut his eyes, and, throwing Mary's cloak over her shoulders, prepared to go ashore. As they went over the side and pulled off a great shout went up from the ship far more derisive than cheering, and the men at the oars looked at each other askance and smiled. What a predicament for a princess! Brandon cursed himself for having been such a knave and fool as to allow this to happen. He had known the danger all the time, and his act could not be chargeable to ignorance or a failure to see the probable consequences. Temptation and selfish desire had given him temerity in place of judgment.

figure she presented climbing up the steps at Brandon's heels, jack boots When the princess stepped ashore, it and all. So unique was it that the seemed to her as if the heart in her sailors working in the ship's waist breast was a different and separate organ from the one she had carried ment and the gentlemen on the poop made no effort to hide their amuseaboard.

As the boat put off again for the ship its crew gave a cheer coupled with some vile advice, for which Brandon would gladly have run them through, each and every one. He had to swallow features, "I declare, you look the picbe subjected to such insults and he powerless to avenge them. The news had spread from the wharf like wildfire, and on their way back to the Bow and String there came from small boys and hidden voices such exclamations as: "Look at the woman in man's clothing!" "Isn't he a beautiful man?" 'Look at him blush!" and others too coarse to be repeated. Imagine the hamiliating situation, from which there

> At last they reached the inn, whither their chests soon followed them, sent by Bradhurst, together with their passage money, which he very honestly re-

> Mary soon donned her woman's attire, of which she had a supply in her chest, and at least felt more comforts. ble without the jack boots. She had made her toilet alone for the first time in her life, having no maid to help her. and went as she dressed, for this disappointment was like plucking the very heart out of her. Her hope had been so high that the fall was all the hard> er. Nay, even more; hope had become fruition to her when they were once a-shipboard, and failure right at the door of success made it doubly hard to bear. It crushed her, and where before had been hope and confidence was nothing now but despair. Like all people with a great capacity for elation, when she sank she touched the bottom Alas, Mary, the unconquerable, was down at last. This failure meant so much to her. It meant that she would never be Brandon's wife, but would go to France to endure the dreaded old Frenchman. At that thought a recoil came. Her spirit asserted itself, and she stamped her foot and swore upon her soul it should never be-never, never, so long as she had strength to fight or voice to cry "No!" The thought of this marriage and of the loss of Brandon was painful enough, but there came another, entirely new to her and infinitely worse.

He waved his trophy on high.

Hastily arranging her dress she went in search of Brandon, whom she quickly found and took to her room.

and she was on deck less than five JOYS OF MATERNITY OPPOSITION WOMAN'S BEST HOPES REALIZED

Mrs. Potts Tells How Women Should Prepare for Motherhood

The darkest days of husband and wife are when they come to look forward to childless and lonely old age.

Many a wife has found herself incapable of motherhood owing to a dis-placement of the womb or lack of strength in the generative organs.

Hot Springs, Ark., writes:

Hot Springs, Ark., writes:

My Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"During the early part of my married life I was delicate in health; both my husband and I were very anxious for a child to bless our home, but I had two miscarriages, and could not carry a child to maturity. A neighbor who had been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advised me to try it. I did so and soon felt that I was growing stronger, my headaches and backaces left me, I had no more bearing-down pains, and felt like a new woman. Within a year I became the mother of a strong, healthy child, the joy of our home. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is certainly a splendid remedy, and I wish every woman who wants to become a mother would try it."

Actual sterility in woman is very rare. If any woman thinks she is ster

POWERS WILL SEIZE MORE TURKISH LAND.

Will Stand No More Fooling From the Sultan Who Must Soon Surrender to International Demands.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 28.-Via Sofia, Bulgaria, Nov. 28.—Detachments from the international fleet landed at Mytllene Sunday afternoon in accordance with the instruction of blamed no one but himself, though it was torture to him that this girl should the customs and postal buildings. The governor protested buth is representations were not available. During the Bacaam Festival beginning today and ending the evening of Nov. 30. the feet will take no further action, but if the sultan does not use the interval to accede to the demands of the powers the fleet will occupy the Island of Tenedos, off the coast of Asia Minor.

The porte continues its efforts to obtain a modification of the financial control scheme so as to make it more acceptable to Turkish views. The Grand Vizier Ferib Pasha, the report of whose dismissal was unfounded, has informed M. Zinovieff the Russian ambassa. dor, that the scheme in its present shape is too unpalatable. The grand vizier offered to agree to the establishment of four new civil agents with the same functions as the existing agents of Austria and Russia but the ambassador declared that no alternation in the demands of the powers was possi-Tewfik Pasha, the foreign minister, also tried to enlist the sympathies of were equally futile. The unanimity of the powers, including Germany, as to the necessity of compelling a full acceptance of the demands appears to be complete, and diplomatic circles are satisfied that the porte before long will realize that in face of this unanimity there is nothing to be done but bow to he will of Europe.

VESSEL WRECKED ON DIGBY SHORE

Struck During Snowstorm and Will Likely Be a Total Loss

PARRSBORO, N. S., Nov. 98 .- The honer Urbain B., Smith, master, which left this port yesterday for Bridgetown with coal for Longmire Bros., went ashore early this morning at Port George, on the Digby shore No particulars have been received, but it is probable that the vessel and cargo will be lost. It is supposed that the vessel went ashore during the snow storm that prevailed in the bay list night. The Urbain B. was built at Belliveau's Cove eighteen years ago and registered ninety-eight tons. She is chiefly owned by the captain and his brother. She has carried coal from this port for several years and is partly covered by insurance.

The steamer Avalon, the last of the deal laden fleet, cleared for Old Head, Kinsale, today for orders. The cargo was supplied by Capt. Nordby for Geo. McKean of St. John.

GRAND TRUNK OFFICIAL DEAD.

MONTREAL, Nov. 28-Grand Trunk officials have been notified of the death in London, England, of L. J. Sergeant, former General Manager of the railway, who succeeded the late Sir Joseph Hickson. When Hay's management took charge Sergeant be came advisory member of the Board

LEADERS IN SESSION

vincial opposition were in the city from other parts of the province were

Geo. B. Jones of Apohaqui, Captain

Masters of Moncton, Major Frank castle, and H. Woods of Welsford.

ng committee to direct and assist Mr.

Captain Masters, B. Frank Smith, M.

George Clarke, M. P. P.

agnization Work. A number of supporters of the pro-pains, accompanied by offensive dis-charges and generally by irregular and scanty menstruation indicate a dis-placement or nerve degeneration of the womb and surrounding organs.

The question that troubles women is how can a woman who has some fe male trouble bear healthy children?

Mrs. Anna Potts, of 510 Park Avenue,

Actual sterility in woman is very le, let ner try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free to expectant or would-be mothers.

TURBINE STEAMER FOR DIGBY ROUTE.

A. J. S. Copp, M. P. for Digby, who is at the Royal, last evening informed a Sun reporter that the question of an improved service across the Bay of Fundy is now engaging the serious consideration of the officials of the Dominion Atlantic railway. In fact it may be positively stated that the service will be improved, the only question that has to be decided is whether the service can be obtained by one steamer or two. If it is practicable, however, the company will have a new turbine steamer built for the service capable of making the trip in two hours, and especially equipped with freight accommodation on deck. If it is found that a steamer cannot be se-route. Mr. Copp says that more lights are required at the entrance to the harbor in order to make it safe to dock on dark and foggy nights. He stated, however, that the department of marine and fisheries now have under consideration a plan to make navigation in the Bay of Fundy less fraught with danger, and which will meet all requirements.

HALIFAX MERCHANTS MADE A BIG KICK

Against the Increased Charges For Services of Customs Officers.

HALIFAX, Nov. 28 .- The owners of the 29 bonded warehouses in Halifax the German ambassador but his efforts held a meeting at the board of trade rooms today to protest against the in--creased schedule of charges for the services of customs officers. George Mitchell, M. P. P. (liberal), who was in the chair, sai dit looked to him like an attempt by the government to force the merchants to pay the salaries of the officers who collect their revenues. A telegram was sent to Hon. W. S. Fielding asking him if the tariff commission would meet in Halifax this year, and if the matter could be brought before that body then. The members of parliament for Hali fax agreed to write to the minister of finance asking him to hold the new schedule in abevance as far as Halifax

> BETWEEN PORT ART HUR AND MONTREAL

is concerned, alleging peculiar circum-

MONTREAL, Nov. 28.-It was an nounced today that the Canadian Northern railway will in all proabbility regin the construction of their prostood that a little work is posed line between Port Arthur and on the walls of the church. Montreal next spring. The line will be le ited between those of the Canadian Pacific and the Grand Trunk Pacific railways, and will give Montreal com munication with Edmonton by three distinct railway lines. The Canadan Northern also intends building a line between Montreal and Toronto via Ottawa.

SHOCKING DETAILS IN SUIT CASE MYSTERY.

Committee Chosen to Carry On Or- Evidence Shows Dr. Percy McLeod Frequently Peritimed Criminal Operations -He Wore a Mask.

BOSTON, Nov. 28.-Shocking in its Tuesday to meet some of their friends details, the story of the dismember in town and discres matters of provinment and disposal of the body of Suscial organiz:tic... The meeting was anna Geary, the Cambridge chorus girl, held in the assembly rooms of the York Theatre. Col. Montgomery was rehearsed in the superior criminal court today, the sound day of the Campbell procided, and among those trial of Dr. Percy D. McLeod, who is charged with being an accessory to a criminal operation. The principal witlesses were Crawford and Howard. Black of Sackville, Hozen Grimmer, M. P. P., George Clarke, M. P. P., and ma Coulter and Sarah Griffith, nurse G. W. Genong, M. P., of St. Stephen. at the house on Winthrop street, Rox-Donald Morrison, M. P. P., of Newbury, where the Geary girl is said to have died, and Dr. John H. Pettee of There was a good attendance from St. Roxbury, who testified that he had been John city and county. Mr. Hazen excalled by Dr. McLeod to attend a patplained that those entrusted with the ient at the Winthrop street house. hoice of an organizer had engaged W. W. Hubbard, Afterward Mr. Hubbard

During the examination of Hunt and explained what work had been done Miss Griffith it was brought out that and what remained to do. Mr. Hazen Dr. McLeod wore a mask to conceal asked that the meeting express its his features when he attended patients pinion as to the course that had been at the house on Winthrop street. Miss taken, and appoint a committee to Griffith further testified that Dr. Petdirect proceedings in the future. After tee also wore a mask. Both Dr. Mcthe course of Mr. Hazen and those who Leod and Dr. Pettee, Miss Griffith had acted with nim had been confirm- said, were masked while the Geary ed by unanimous vote, a nominating girl was conscious, but as soon as she committee, of which Dr. Thomas Wal- became unconscious they uncovered ker was chairman, reported the follow- their faces and made no attempt to conceal their identity.

Hubbard: J. D. Hazen, M. P. P., John It was brought out by the many wit-Morrissey, M. P. P., W. H. Thorne, nesses that Dr. McLeod was a frequent caller at the Mrs. Bishop office P. P., M. E. Agar. Robert Maxwell, on Tremont street, where the filegal M. P. P., Col. Montgomery Campbell, operation on Susan Geary is alleged to have been performed. According After the business was over the the testimony, he called regularly Satmeeting was addressed in short and urday at the Bishop office to collect spirited remarks by Mr. Hazen, Mr. the money due him for his services. Ganong, Mr. Jones, Colonel Campbell, The testimony brought out that D The testimony brought out that Dr. Major Black, Mr. Grimmer, John E. McLeod "did the outside work," that Wilson, Mr. Morrison, L. P. D. Tilley, is he had no part in the illegal operation, but did attend to patients up-It was considered that a convention on whom such operations had been of the provincial opposition should be performed.

held at the close of the next session, During his cross-examination of Hunt and Sussex was suggested as a suitable Attorney James H. Vahey, counsel for Dr. McLeod, asked the witness if while living in Philadelphia he had ever thrown newly born infants into a fur-nace, or placed the bodies of victims of his illegal operations in quicklime. Hunt replied negatively, but admitted that he had conducted an illegal medi- IRA B. KIERSTEAD.....ST. JOHN. cal office in Philadelphia and had also performed illegal operations in Boston. Pettee had taken the stand.

> THREE CHURCHES MAY BECOME ONE

Baptists Want to Close Up Brussels and Waterloo Street.

sels street United Baptist church, twenty-three ministers and laymen being present, representing the five United Baptist churches of the south end. The chairman, Rev. A. B. Cohoe, called the meeting to order, and prayer was offered by Deacons Allwood and Peters. At the last meeting a committee of two from the three churches, Leinste street, Waterloo street and Brussels street, was appointed to take the question of readjustment into fullest consideration and outline a programme for the next meeting of the general committee. This committee, consisting of Revs. A. B. Cohoe and A. J. Prosser, and Deacons Patterson, Peters Keirstead, Vail, Haley, Wilson and Dunlon, met on Monday evening At the meeting last night A. Wilson submitted on behalf of this committee certain resolutions. It was decided unanimously that the following resolutions be brought before heard. the church: 1. That it is desirable that the con-

2. That the united churches should A few days before his death in 1902 use the Leinster street plant, the same he made another will, by which his ento be thoroughly modernized. The original committee was reap- and the residuary bequest to the Bible pointed, with power to act and to bring the matter before the churches. The meeting, which lasted for near- by the surrogate judge, but his decision ly three hours, was most harmonious tic over the proposal of union. As stated in the Sun a week or so idly made by the testator vhile he was ago, Leinster street church can be en- of sound mind, memory and underlarged to almost double its present capacity by taking into it the rooms now used as a school, and by extending the gallery. This would cost some thousands of dollars, and it is underwind that the testator was under duress and mentally incapacitated at the time he make the second will. W. B. A. Ritchie, K. C., for appearance of the control of the co

PISTOL AGAINST KNIFE : BOTH KILLED

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 28.-Two white men named Edwards and Elise Lutter, each with a grudge to settle, Herman H. Vorjohan Ms been elect- met Ca an east side saloon here last ed assessor of Lockland, Ohio, at vight and square accounts. Edwards, meeting with defeat in 25 successive with an open knife in hand, advanced contests. He is a pioneer resider, of on latiful, and before the latter could WOODSFOCK, Ont., Nov. 28 -Rev. that section, and is now 7; years old. start in down and inflicted six sections. Dr. Jakay, for 30 years pastor of Chal-The township is quite strongly to- wounds on Luttrell. After the second mers Presbyterian church, and known public, but Mr. Vorjohan, an old line doct from Luttrell's platel Edwards throughout Canada as a prohibitioniss, Democrat, this year was able to over tell dead. Luttrell Cui also die. Beth died early this morning after illness of men were married.

Fine Finish

The farmer manufactures beef, pork, milk, etc., and he must coperly handle his live stuck rachinary to get the greatest and best finished production.

Just as he is careful to put o'l on his harvester bearings, so should he be as careful to keep his live stuck machinery in good working andition.

An animal whose digestive machinery is heavily loaded needs more oil than one that isn't. Clydesdale

Stock Food s the oil to ease the load on your animal's digestive machinery, be-cause it increases the digestive fluids owing to the food being made

It also makes the feeder bristle with activity and vitality, making the blood circulate better, thereby distributing the flesh more evenly over the body instead of into the paunch for tallow at 4c. per pound. It makes the hide and coat soft and glossy, giving that "fine finish" that fetches from 25c. to 50c. per hundred more than from ordinary

Contains nothing injurious, and can stop feeding it without harmful

Your money cheerfully refunded by the dealer if you are not satis-fied after feeding it. Same for all Clydesdale Preparations. Clydesdale Carboline Antiseptic will keep your stable clean

TO MERCULES POULTRY FOOD CLYDESDALE STOCK FOOD CO. L. Toronto, Ont. FOR SALE BY

J. R. VANWART,... ST. JOHN. JAS. COLLINS,..... Today's session closed soon after Dr.

Pettee had taken the stand.

W. I. DEAN,.....MUSQUASH.
A. B. SMITH,.....HAMPTON.
G. & G. FLEWWELLING CO., LTD., HAMPTON VILLAGE.

N. S. ELECTION APPEALS BEFORE SUPREME COURT

OTTAWA, Nov. 28.—The argument in Beach v. the King before the su-ference court was concluded today, and judgment was reserved.

The maritime list was then taken up, the first cases heard being the two Halifax election appeals. In these the chief justice of Nova Scotia, on hearing preliminary objections, admitted the evidence of corrupt acts which might disqualify the petitioner The adjourned meeting of the com- held the evidence was not sufficient mittee appointed to consider the ques- and dismissed the objections. The only tion of readjustment of United Baptist point raised on the appeal was whether work was held last Tuesday in Brus- or not a promise to pay for a team on election day, the team not being fur nished, would disqualify the promiser tion 113 of the Elections Act, 1904, or must the team be furnished. the offense being "A promise to pay-for a horse. Another point was that the chief justice was not properly assigned to try the election petition by rota or arrangement by the judges. The court refused to entertain this as a grou appeal. On the other point judgment was reserved. Mellish, K. C., for appellant; W. B. A. Ritchie, K. C., and Lovitt for respondent. The appeal in British and Foreign Bible Society v. Tupper was then taken up. This case was argued in May last and judgment was reserve but a re-hearing was argued on special points mentioned. As, however, the court is now differently constituted, the whole case must now be re-

In 1901 Abraham N. Tupper, deceas gregations now worshipping in Water-loo, Brussels and Leinster streets to some of his relatives and the residue of his estate to the Bible Society. tire estate war bequeathed to relatives Society was revoked.

The latter will was refused probate and all representatives were enthusias- Nova Scotia in banc, which held stood that a little work is necessary pellant; Newcombe, K. C., and Mellish, K C., for respondent.

The arguments were not concluded The court will sit on Saturdays until the remaining appeals inscribed have been heard, but here will be no sit-ting on St. December, which is a statutory holiday, nor will the court sit after 15th December

PROMINENT PROMIBITIONIST DEAD.

marly a year.

