and C. S. Hickman's friends will gladly welcomehim again, and I have heard of several expected visitors to strive before Christmas.

I believe there is to be a concert given in Robb's hall, between Christmas and New Year. It is being gotten up by Mrs. Robb a d Mrs. Palmer, who are always indefatigable in their efforts, and deserve much reedit for attempting anything of the sort in the present decrease of "nome talent." The proceeds are to be devoted to church purposes.
Mrs. Hanington invited a few friends to tea on Friday evening, to meet the bishop and his bride, and, I believe, that those who were fortunate enough to believe, that those who were fortunate enough Several of the Dorchester people were to Sack ville last Wednesday, to attend the funeral of the last Mr. Heury Allison, who, of course, had 'many friends here. The Rev. J. Roy Campbell conducted the services, and returned by evening train, with Miss Godfrey is spending a week or two with Mrs. W. C. Wilner, in Sackville.

Mr. A. W. Chapman went to Amberst on Friday, to attend the funeral of his little niece.
Mr. and Mrs. David Chapman has their sorrow.
Mesers, David Grant and R. W. Heesson, were in town on Saturday. The latter receives the congratulations of his friends with evident pleasure, and is quite convinced of the truth of the ancient saw,
"good things are done up in small parecles." Mr. H. C. Hauington spent Sunday with his family. His recent military course has apparently agreed with him.
Mrs. Hauington and Miss Blanche went to St.
