Hoppe's grand average, 3.500 points he has played the two weeks he has been here was a fraction over forty-seven. Sutton took second place in the tournament, while Lesoson was last, having lost every game in which he participated.

MONTREALS ARE BEATEN AT BOSTON

Boston, Mar. 7.—The Montreal Athletic Association hockey seven was defeated by the Pilgrim A. A. team four to one tonight in a game which began after the Boston Athletic Association Club had refused to continue a contest with Montreal. The Boston and Montreal teams were tied, two to two, at the end of the first half of the third game, when Manager Winchester of Boston took his team off the ice after demanding unsuccessfully a change of referees.

THIS DATE IN RING ANNALS

1910.—Jim Barry knocked out Gunboat Smith in 9th round at Oakland. At that time Barry was one of the most promising of the white heavyweights, while Smith, who has lately come to the front as the king of the white hopes, was in the pugilistic infant class. It was Gunboat's first decisive defeat, however, as up to that time the worst he had ever got was a draw with Salim Jack Burns, and he had whipped Charley Miller, Soldier Kerna, Young Peter Jackson and Denver Jack Geyer, among others. In 1911 Gunboat got back at Barry by outpointing him in a 6-round bout at San Francisco—at least, the Gunboat claimed the victory, although it was disputed by Barry. After that the Gunboat began forging to the front, while Jim progressed backward. Barry was born in Minnesota, of Irish-French ancestry, and was a chef in a lumber camp. Those who saw him as a prize fighter were invited out behind the camp, where Jim usually convinced them that his grub was all right. His ability as a prizefighter spread among the lumbermen, who induced him to take to the ring.

CANADIENS DEFEAT TORONTO

Montreal, March 8.—By defeating Toronto at the Arena here on Saturday night by 2 to 0, in the first of the home games to break the tie, the Canadiens have taken a strong hold on the championship of the N. H. A. The ice was practically covered with water, putting combination play out of the question. What the game lost in finish, however, was made up in excitement over several uncheduled fistic encounters. The players started in to mix things up generally after the opening session, and it needed the officials to prevent a rough house end up.

Davidson did not help Toronto's chances by drawing the majors, the last of which put him out of the match. In the first case he went after Payan and crossed checked him. Payan retaliated by dropping his stick and going at the visiting players. McCleffen went after Donald Smith, and the pair, dropping their sticks, started in with their fists. They grappled and rolled over in the water before Westwick could intervene.

Little advantage was to be claimed by the winners, the Toronto show, good form on the heavy going. Lalonde was worked at odd periods but was not able to show his usual scoring ability.

In the third period the ice conditions became so bad that players would lose their pucks in the pools of water they had to go through, and all idea of system was forgotten.

The lineup: Canadiens Goal, Toronto Goal, Veina, Defence, Holmes, Dubau, Defence, Marshall, Laviolette, Forward, Cameron, Smith, Forward, Davidson, Lalonde, Forward, Foyson, Scott, Forward, Walker.

Although a record attendance was predicted, the crowd was disappointing. Not only was the attendance far below the record established in the Stanley cup match between Wanderers and Kenora several years ago, but it did not reach the number at the match between Ottawa and Canadiens three weeks back. The record attendance for the Arena is just over seven thousand, while the attendance for the match between Ottawa and Canadiens amounted to six thousand and six hundred. On Saturday night the paid admission dropped nearly five hundred below the latter mark.

Every seat in the building was sold, so that it was in the standing room that the falling off was noticed. Averaging the price at ninety cents a head, it would make the receipts amount to something like $5,490, of which the Canadiens get seventy per cent.

Although every effort was made to stamp out speculating with the tickets many were offered for sale on the streets and around the hotel, as high as $8 and $10 were asked for.

BOMBARDIER WELLS.

He "came back" in great shape.

JOHNSON NOT "BROKE" The report sent here that Jack Johnson is broke over in Paris is untrue. In a letter to Dan Morgan, Dan McKetrick says that Johnson owns three automobiles, has bought $40,000 worth of diamonds for his wife and besides receives $1,000 for every wrestling match that he engages in with French and English wrestlers.

AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP. Charlottetown, March 8.—The Canadian amateur Athletic championship meet open to the world, will be held here next July or August on the Albeysville grounds. A wire from the secretary of the association, Toronto, was received here Saturday stating that Charlottetown's invitation had been accepted. The event will probably take place during the celebration of the Confederation Jubilee.

MARITIME LEAGUE TIE. Halifax, March 8.—The dates of the play-off in the Maritime Hockey League between New Glasgow and Sydney have been fixed. The first game takes place at New Glasgow March 11, and the second at Sydney on March 14.

DAN McDONALD AND LUDECKE DRAW IN WRESTLING BOUT FOR HALIFAX NEXT WEEK

A large crowd of spectators were at the York Theatre Saturday night to witness the wrestling bout, the principal match being between Dan McDonald, the present holder of the international belt, and Ludecke of St. Johnsbury, Vt.

A preliminary bout was between Joe Retoroff, a Bulgarian, and Michael Julius, a Greek, and after wrestling for thirty-seven minutes and neither man being able to secure a fall, the match was declared a draw.

There was considerable interest in the main bout. Ludecke is a German who is instructor in a Boston Mass. college, and looked to be heavier than his opponent. After wrestling for fifty-five minutes, McDonald managed to secure a toe hold on Ludecke, but the latter managed to put his free foot against McDonald's chin and push him clear, in so doing McDonald's head came in contact with the floor and he was rendered unable to continue the match for a few minutes. McDonald claimed a four and stated that he should be given a fall, but the referee, James McCaffrey, did not allow it, claiming that it was an accident that caused the injury.

There was considerable delay before the match resumed, and after they had continued for about twenty-five minutes Ludecke secured a scissor and double wrist hold and obtained the first fall. It was then too late to resume the match and the referee declared the match a draw. Ludecke proved a worthy opponent for McDonald and one of the best wrestlers that has yet performed in this city.

James McCaffrey was the timer and the St. John Brass Band which was present rendered a number of selections during the evening.

It had been announced that the match was to have been for the championship belt, but McDonald said that he would not put up the belt unless Ludecke made a deposit of a couple of hundred dollars against it. The latter refused to do so and he stated that when he challenged for the belt he had requested that there be five hundred dollars in the house, but that he should in three weeks, but that the amount taken in admissions. The matter, however, was arranged for the winner of the bout to take the big end of the percentage.

SPORTOGRAPHY "GRAVY"

Charlie Mitchell was the Greatest Boxer who Never Held a Title.

Chantilly, France, isn't much of a city, as cities go, but it has one claim to immortality—it was the scene of the memorable battle for the heavy-weight championship of the world between John L. Sullivan and Charley Mitchell twenty-six years ago to-morrow, March 10, 1888. The visitor to Chantilly is pointed out the site of the great pugilistic engagement which went thirty-nine rounds, a draw, and which came so near to resulting in a defeat of the big Irish-American dreadnought by the small but speedy British cruiser.

Misling by so narrow a margin the goal of the world's heavyweight title, Mitchell has gone down in ring history as the greatest fighter of the near-championship class. In his prime he was now about "boxing champion" of England, but for all his ability with his fists he never held a bona fide and generally recognized title of any kind. He was handicapped by lack of weight, being never a middleweight than a heavyweight, although too heavy for the former division.

Several times in recent years Mitchell was reported to be dying of dropsy and kidney disease, but he has always escaped the final sleep punch. He made a fortune in his father-in-law, Pony Moore, and is said to still possess a large bundle of the needful.

Mitchell first fought John L. Sullivan in 1883, only a short time after the Boston Strong Boy annexed the title from Paddy Ryan. The Englishman was then a legitimate middleweight, and seemed a pygmy in comparison with Sullivan when the pair entered the ring at Madison Square Garden. John L. proposed to knock Mitchell out in three rounds, but Charley's cleverness at dodging, his uncanny speed and his ring generalship enabled him to stick the limit. In the second round he surprised and delighted the spectators by sending Sullivan to the floor. Most of Sullivan's opponents had been defeated men before entering the ring, scared to death by fear of John L.'s fistlike fists. John had only to bellow and snort and glare to send them tottling over for the count.

In Mitchell he met a man who knew no fear, and all of Sullivan's fearsome and forcible tactics had no effect on the little Englishman. When they met in France Mitchell was really the victor. The battle lasted three hours and eleven minutes, when both men were too exhausted to continue. By mutual consent the bout was to be called a draw unless a knockout was scored and Sullivan retained his title. The great Englishman quit the ring twenty years ago, following his defeat by Jim Corbett at Jacksonville.

Battling Levinsky, the lightweight boxer who is working his way to the top in his class, will meet Gunboat Smith, rated by many as the best man among the white heavyweights, sometime this spring, so declares Danny Morgan his manager.

According to present arrangements, the men will meet in a ten round contest probably at Madison Square Garden, New York city, as soon as Smith closes his theatrical engagements. Smith at present is scheduled to box Levinsky in two rounds in California on July 4 and is also contemplating an invasion of Europe, there to meet Jack Johnson for the heavyweight championship of the world. Morgan said recently:

"Levinsky is practically matched to meet Smith for the white heavyweight championship. In fact, all that remains to be done is the signing of the articles. I have the assurance of Jim Buckley that he will allow Smith to box as soon as he fulfills his theatrical engagements, which will keep him busy until some time in May or early in June."

"Levinsky has won his right to box Smith. He has gone right down the line, whipping all the middleweights, until the boxing enthusiasts have demanded that he meet Smith for the championship. While I would prefer to have the match in New York city, I am perfectly willing to allow Levinsky to box on the Pacific coast, the winner to be recognized as champion."

LIPTON PRESENTS CUP.

Winnipeg, Mar. 7.—A cup presented to the Winnipeg Rowing Club by Sir Thomas Lipton has arrived in the city. While on a visit to Winnipeg in November, 1912, Sir Thomas, in conversation with R. D. Wangh, was informed of the success of the crews of the local club at Henley and several American regattas. He stated his intention of giving a cup for competition among clubs affiliated with the Northwest National Rowing Association, and since that time considerable correspondence has passed between the donor of the cup and the local club, which has finally culminated in the arrival of the cup in Winnipeg.

REMARKABLE MATCHES.

Palm Beach, Fla., March 7.—Remarkable matches and low scoring featured the first round of match play in the Florida amateur golf championship today. The largest gallery of spectators was gathered at the club at Henley and several American regattas. There was a large crowd of spectators at the rink tonight when the Amherst team managed to defeat St. John by a score of 8 to 2, which made the home team tie with Sussex for the championship.

The ice was rather soft for fast hockey and this condition made it harder for the St. John men. The game, however, was interesting from start to finish. In the first period Amherst made on score and St. John failed to score.

In the second period St. John made their first goal while the Amherst players netted six additional goals. In the last period each team made a score and the game ended 8 to 2.

The Amherst team were greatly strengthened for the match by having on their line up some players who have been playing professionally in teams in the Nova Scotia league. It is now up to Amherst and Sussex to fight the battle out for the championship.

Y.M.C.A. TEAM FOR HALIFAX NEXT WEEK

The Y. M. C. A. basketball players had a successful practice Saturday night when the players will line up against U. N. B. Wednesday night for nearly an hour. The members of the senior team seemed to be in good physical condition and went at their work with a vim. The same players who represented the local association last year were all on hand. Thorne and Willet as forwards seemed to be working well together. Latham was at centre and controlled the ball well. Boone and Burton seemed as good as ever at guard. The Y. M. C. A. players expect to go to Halifax on Saturday morning from Dalhousie and the Nova Scotia Technical College.

The U. N. B. team visited Halifax a short time ago and was defeated by Technical College but won from Dalhousie.

It is expected that the local boys will make a good showing in Halifax for their style of play is somewhat along the lines of the Halifax teams. The highest aggregate number of goals to participate in the two final nights' play.

The total number of goals will decide the winner.

The local Y. M. C. A. team had a successful season last year. Two wins and two losses. They were played with a win for each team. It was too late in the season for a play-off for the provincial championship but it is expected that a championship series will be arranged between the two teams before the close of the present season.

BANQUET TO WORLD TOURING BALL TEAMS

New York, March 7.—Men prominent in every line of sport and from all parts of the country gathered tonight to attend the banquet given in honor of the world's touring baseball players, who arrived here Friday morning.

Former Judge Edward H. McCall acted as toastmaster and Lt. Governor Robert Wagner extended a cordial welcome to the returning players. President of the American League, Ban Johnson of the American League delivered an address on "Circulating the Globe by Organized Baseball."

A great outburst of applause came from the speakers' platform and delivered his oration, entitled, "The Giants." He was followed by President John K. Tener of the National League, who took as his subject "Baseball as a Profession."

Other speakers included August Herrmann, president of the Cincinnati Club, and chairman of the National Commission, who talked on "Baseball as a National Institution."

President Tener in his address said in part:

"All glory and honor to the world tourists. You have here performed a service to the game and your country that will bear lasting results, for wherever the game is implanted there will indubitably be associated with it the word 'America'—the American game."

"Nothing could have been more fortunate for our game and its exposition than that every player who participated in the tour should have been a gentleman in manner, word and deed, off and on the field. You proved to caste, class and royalty that a pastime peculiarly American, a sport that had been commercialized, that had its professional exponents, was above reproach in every respect and that an American could be a professional ball player and a gentleman. The great American nation and republic is proud of you and will delight to honor you as the years roll on."

In the first half, playing under western rules, they outscored Ottawa, three to two. In the second, with the N. H. A. rules in vogue, they had much the better of it. They led seven to two at the end of the second period, and in the third they toyed with the Senators. Taylor at times held the puck for several minutes toward the end of the game, skating all over the ice with the Ottawas in pursuit. He finally collided with Darragh and was knocked out.

The Duke of Connaught and Princess Patricia were among those present.

OTTAWA, Ont., March 8.—Frank Patrick's Vancouver team had much the better of the Ottawas at the Arena last night in the first game of the series which the westerners have come east to play. Vancouver won seven to three.
