OUR CANADIAN MENAn Appeal for Soldiers Which Should Be Responded to—
Letters Telling of Appreciation.

Demonts Chapter, I. O. O. F. E. St. John, have undertaken a maple sugar campaign throughout the province and have asked the co-operation of Daughters of the Empire wherever chapters or individual members are to be found in New Brunswick. Last year this chapter of which Mrs. George K. MacLeod is regent, were able to send about 1,000 pounds to the Canadian War Contingent Association, by which it was shipped overseas, and for which enthusiastic letters have been received from the Canadian men to whom the sugar was a breath of fresh air. The present economic conditions throughout the world make maple sugar a necessity and not a luxury, and for this reason the Demonts Chapter are asking the co-operation of the growers and manufacturers in making it possible to secure as large a quantity as possible for shipment to the men in the trenches and hospitals. In writing to the different chapters of the Daughters of the Empire in the provinces, the convenor of the maple sugar campaign, Mrs. MacLeod, has pointed out that as a great portion of the New Brunswick sugar is soft and unsuitable for packing, donations of money are more acceptable as then the proper kind of sugar can be procured, but in any event all sugar and syrup is collected and taken care of by the Canadian War Contingent Association, whose shipments of sugar last year were valued at $17,700.00, all of which was distributed free to Canadian men overseas.

Letters and posters have also been sent to all postmasters asking their co-operation in this campaign and urging them to place the need for sugar that exists in the hospitals, and at the front prominently before their public. The sugar when ready for shipment is put up in half-pound cardboard boxes and in 100 pound cases. Any society or individual sending twenty-five dollars or over will have the name and address of that society enclosed in each box for an acknowledgment of the sugar.

That there is truth in all assertions as to the value of the maple sugar, the scarcity of sugar at the present moment alone is sufficient, but for the doubting Thomases who wonder if the boys ever receive the things forwarded to them, a letter or two received by the Canadian War Contingent Association will be of interest.

Spr. 101802 A. Millard D. Co. Somewhere in France 4-1-18. The Can. War Contingent Assoc., Toronto. Gentlemen.—You can bet your life we enjoyed the issue of your maple sugar bricks, which were received on New Year's Day. I, for one, found it a great thing that morning, for it was so cold and the candy most comforting. 5th C. R. T.

Yours very gratefully,

Received your maple sugar and was very glad to receive it. It reminded me of the sugar obtained in Ontario sugar bushes during sugar season.

Yours truly,

Dear Friends:—
A fine bar of maple sugar candy was handed out to me the other evening and it was so palatable and tasted so good after being away from civilization so long that I thought it was only proper to drop a line and thank you most heartily for your kindness.

I have a candy tooth as it were and being this I know when I have a good piece of sweets between my teeth.

Thanking you many times for your kind remembrance of the boys in France, I remain,
Yours sincerely,

The Crown of Womanhood

"Uncared for hair cannot be beautiful. There is no part of the human makeup so revealing as the hair. It cries out, 'Look at me, care for me, or I will disgrace you.' Treat me with consideration and I will be a glory to you."

With the above words, Lillian Russell, an unquestioned authority on feminine attractiveness, places an uncertain value on nice hair as a beauty asset. Unkept, uncared for hair not only cannot be attractive but is actually a disgrace.

But why have ill-kept, untidy hair? By devoting a few moments regularly to brushing and intelligent application of NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE, the hair may be made to yield wonderful returns in increased personal charm.

Dandruff is the direct cause of more hair trouble than anything else. The hair becomes thin, hard, uneven and falls out in quantities. It looks dead and lifeless; there is no lustre. The scalp itches.

HERPICIDE will remove the dandruff which is causing all the trouble, clean the scalp, give the hair life, snap and luxuriance. The hair stops coming out, the itching ceases almost at once and withal there is a most gratifying sense of cleanliness.

To the woman who wishes to make the most of nature's gift by NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE is a toilet necessity. It is exquisitely perfumed and is a delightful hair dressing.

In 50c and $1.00 sizes. At drug stores and toilet goods counters everywhere. Guaranteed by The Herpicide Co.

Applications at the better Barber Shops and Hair-Dressing Parlors. Send 10 cents for sample bottle and booklet to The Herpicide Co., Dept. 5, Detroit, Mich.

PATRIOTIC CONCERT FOR SOLDIERS' COMFORTS

Excellent Programme Given
Before Large Audience Yesterday Afternoon—Soldiers' Comforts Association to Benefit by Proceeds.

Beginning with the National Anthem and closing with the same loyal strains, the concert given in aid of the Soldiers' Comforts Association in the Imperial theatre yesterday afternoon was both patriotic and sacred as befitted the day upon which it was held. A splendid audience filled the lower floor of the theatre with many in the balcony, and it was an audience which thoroughly enjoyed the very fine programme rendered.

The beautiful selections given by the Depot Battalion band under the leadership of Bandmaster Perkins, were deeply appreciated by all.

Mrs. L. M. Curran was heard to advantage in a sacred song, "The Cross" and in a duet with Miss Blenda Thompson, "The Deathless Army," as sung by Miss Thompson was remarkably fine and an encore was insisted upon. Miss Florence Gilmour very kindly gave a selection which was heartily applauded. Miss Lloyd's violin solos were much enjoyed, as was also Mr. DeWitt Curran's vocal solo.

A reading given by Mr. S. C. Hurley was dramatically given and greatly appreciated. D. Arnold Fox and Mr. Cortwright Ewing acted as accompanists.

The war pictures which opened the programme were loaned for the occasion by the Specialty Film Import. Mr. Robert Slime acted as chairman and the programme which was arranged by W. H. Golding and F. G. Spencer, was as follows:

National Anthem—With King's picture—Orchestra accompaniment.
Exclusive War Pictures.
Selection—Band of Depot Batt.
Song—"The Cross," Mrs. L. M. Curran.

Song—"Thora," Mr. DeWitt Curran.
Song—"The Deathless Army," Miss Blenda Thompson.
Reading—"God Send You Back to Me," Jean Dupris, Mr. S. C. Hurley.

Duet—"Mrs. L. M. Curran and Miss Blenda Thompson," "The Fisherman."
Violin solo—Miss Rhema Lloyd.
Selection—"The Depot Band."
Song—Bessie de Soczyn, Miss Florence Gilmour.

God Save the King, led by the band.

THE MESSAGE OF
EASTER

Do you hear it, the message of Easter, That's voiced from the soul of the birds? How it sings us the story of Easter, In tones that are sweeter than words!

And the Lilies! Oh, list to their message, That's whispered in fragrance and bloom.

Of the life that is perfect in purpose, A heart where the Master has room!

For the message of Easter is courage, That lives through earth's darkness and cold.

And faith that is firm in its holding, And love that can never grow old.

And love of the Christ that is risen, Still lives in the hearts of His own.

While the story of Easter is echoed, In blossom and odor and tone.

Till out from the failures and losses, New strength shall arise from the fray.

And the rest of the life shall be true, Because of each new Easter day.

—Vera G. Vincent, St. John, N. B.

EASTER

Not by His wondrous death alone Christ lives;

But by the life He gave unto His own New life He gives.

The love which triumphed on the cross Lives on.

The death which seemed to end His life of loss Was Victory won.

His wondrous life and death have brought Heaven near.

And the soul certainty that naught Of good ends here.

John Ozenham.

OUR SOLDIERS

All the words in the world cannot tell you

What brims in our hearts for you; For the lives you gave out lives to save

We offer our hearts to you; We can never repay, we can only pray

God fulfill our hearts for you!

ST. ANDREW'S CHOIR

RENDER ORATORIO

Large Congregation Delighted with the Music Last Evening—"Seven Words from the Cross," by Dubois, Was Most Pleading.

The St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church choir splendidly sustained their reputation for fine music well rendered when last evening they sang the "Seven Words From The Cross" by Dubois before a very large congregation. Mr. T. C. Cochrane at the organ was never heard to better advantage and the choir under the capable leadership of Miss Louise Anderson proved most worthy of praise. The singing of both soloists, and choir was very favorably commented upon.

The soloists included Miss Jean Anderson, Miss Louise Anderson, Ernest Bowman and Thomas Guy. The duet by Mr. Bowman and Mr. Guy "Paradise" and Miss Jean Anderson's solo "All Ye who Travel along the Highway" were especially fine.

A silver collection was taken up which is to go towards a choir fund. Mr. Alexander Wilson the chairman of the Music Committee in speaking to the Standard expressed himself as delighted with the excellent rendering of the oratorio.

PERSONALS

Rev E. C. Hennigar who has been visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Hennigar, Orange street, left yesterday for Halifax.

Mr. Wm. F. Boyle of the Western Union, accompanied by his sister, Miss Mary L. are leaving this evening on the Fredericton express to spend Easter at their home in Ennisville.

ORATORIO GIVEN BY COMBINED CHOIRS

Sacred Music Well Rendered by Choirs from St. James', (Anglican), and German Street Baptist Churches.

The oratorio "From Olivet to Calvary" was splendidly rendered last evening by the combined choir of St. James' church and the German street Baptist church. A large congregation filled the German street Baptist church, and many favorable comments were heard upon the fine singing of the choir in the choruses and the beautiful singing of the soloists. The dramatic rendition of the last chorus was most noticeable.

Those who took the roles were Miss Dorothy Creighton, Miss Dorothy Key, Miss Ethel Paries, Dr. P. L. Bonnell, Mr. R. S. Holder, Mr. H. E. Collins, Mr. LeRoy and Mr. T. Kingsmill. Dudley S. Robillard was the organist and musical director, and to him much of the credit is due. A very beautiful quartette was given by Mrs. Harrison, Miss D. Creighton, Messrs. LeRoy and R. E. Holder. Dr. P. L. Bonnell was the narrator and also sang a solo "Calvary" which was much enjoyed.

Others assisting were Mrs. Harrison, Mr. Burnham, of Stone church, and Mr. Kingsmill. A silver collection was taken which will be divided between the choir funds of the two churches.

J. A. LeBlanc left the city yesterday at noon to spend Easter with his family at College Bridge.
