Yesterday's Sessions Well Attended—Varied Program—Four Fine Addresses Delivered Last Evening.

Yesterday morning's sessions of the quiet hour in St. John's Church, Women's Auxiliary opened with a devotional by Rev. W. P. Dunham. The subject of the address was "The Renewal of Sight," and it was most helpful and of great spiritual value.

In the school house at 10.30 the minutes of the previous session were read and adopted.

Lemons Beautify!
Make Quarter Pint
of Lotion, Cheap

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to bleach the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way: Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quarter pint of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it should help to bleach, clear, smoothen and beautify the skin.

Any druggist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons.

of Mrs. J. F. Robertson, convener of literature, read the annual report for this department and announced that the Campbellton Girls' branch had won first prize for the best essay on missionary work; that Bathurst was second and that Christ's church, Fredericton, Blissville senior branch and Stanley senior branch followed in the order named.

Prizes (books) were presented by the president. Mrs. Robertson stated in her report that the receipts of the year totalled $34.75 and that this amount had been disbursed.

Mrs. Charles Coster, secretary-treasurer of literature, reported that subscriptions to the Leaflet totalled $1,076 this year, an increase over last year of $83, and that five volumes of the Leaflet had been bound and placed in the library of the Institute. On March 31st, there was a balance on hand to be voted on of $145.85.

Mrs. McKimley, Woodstock, read a paper on the Aims and Constitution of the W. A., prepared by Mrs. W. B. Belyea. The paper stated that $25,544 had been raised for missionary work by the W. A., of which $700 was collected in this diocese.

The paper, read by Mrs. Bate of Newcastle, advocated missionary zeal and ardor at home and abroad, through the organization of faithful women in the different branches of the W. A. work and through prayer.

Mrs. Goodlife of Sussex read a paper outlining the objects of the W. A. constitution and emphasizing the need for prayer for missions.

In the discussion of the papers, Mrs. Charles Coster suggested that the constitution of the W. A. be read at least once a year at all meetings. The report of the babies' branch secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Hammond Evans, stated there was a balance on hand of $133.07, to be voted on. Mrs. Evans reported that the work of the branch had been successful throughout the diocese, despite the long, cold winter, and that in Sussex alone 55 new members had been enrolled.

Mrs. G. F. Smith conducted the noon-hour prayers.

An interesting announcement at the meeting was that a new beneficiary had been added to the missionary roll in the listing of Mary Louise Settee, daughter of a native Saskatchewan Indian, who is a Catechist.

Afternoon Sessions.
The afternoon sessions were taken up until four o'clock with informal references on the work of the treasurers of the Dorcas and Literature Societies. These were led by Mrs. C. A. Robinson, Mrs. John Hay and Mrs. Charles Coster. Many problems were brought up for discussion and the exchange of ideas proved of great benefit.

At four o'clock the junior hour conducted by the junior secretary-treasurer, Miss A. L. Brock, was held and many of the senior members attended. Seven branches were represented among the juniors and all present were delighted with the good training in missionary knowledge the children showed and the pleasing entertainment given by them.

Prayers and hymns appropriate for the occasion were chosen. Prizes won in Mission Study and Dorcas work were presented by Miss Brock to the following junior members:

For Dorcas Work.
Eleanor Matthews, Trinity church; Loreta Maxwell, Trinity church; Alice Meating, Trinity church; W. Dennison, St. Jude's; Annie Bell, Trinity church; Frances Frith, Mission church; Blanche Davidson, Trinity church; Laura Hodgins, Bathurst; Freda Good, Bathurst; Beatrice Ward, Trinity church.

For Mission Study.
Jean Matthews, Trinity church; Marjorie Sampler, Woodstock; Jean Love, Fredericton; Maude McKinney, Woodstock.

The following girls from the Trinity Church Junior Branch gave a dialogue descriptive of a Chinese school: Caroline Schmidt, M. Macaulay, Jean Matthews, C. Calkin, H. Maxwell, B. Davidson, Elsie Bell. They were assisted by Miss Etta Whelpley of the Girls' Branch of Trinity and trained by Miss Mary L. Harrison. The children did splendidly and it was most creditable to all.

Evening Session.
The Appeals of the Foreign Field, of the Northwest and of our Own Diocese, were the subjects of splendid addresses delivered in the Stone church school house last evening. The occasion was the evening session of the Women's Auxiliary meeting which was open to the public, and the number of people present taxed the seating capacity of the school house.

His Lordship Bishop Richardson was the chairman. After the opening prayers the first address was given by the Rev. Canon Armstrong on the subject of the Foreign Field.

Responsibility was the keynote of Canon Armstrong's address—our responsibility to Christ as the Head of the Church, who came to earth as a missionary and whose last command was to "Go into all nations." Then there is a responsibility towards the great missionaries of the past—to carry on their work.

"Who takes the standard from the dead?"

Who comes to lift the Cross in stead?"

Canon Armstrong spoke of several of the heroes of old and the inspiration which their lives and deaths gave us today.

The responsibility of the present was referred to—the present sorrows and trials of the heathen. They have our afflictions without our consolations. The missionary has been affected deeply by the war, their stipends being cut in half. Canon Armstrong spoke of the missionaries who have gone from among us, those who have turned their backs upon all that was dear to them. "Surely we could not deny help to them," he said. We owed a responsibility to the church to which we belonged and in it we are given an opportunity to go, to give and to pray.

Rev. G. S. Scovill spoke on The Appeal of the Northwest. He divided his talk into two parts, our immediate responsibilities and our prospective ones. He told how the white men had taken the best of the land from the Indians and showed that we owed them the best we could give in return—that best being the Gospel. There is both the direct evangelical and the school work, and in this the Western and Northern Dioceses look to us for support. In two years the Church Missionary Society will withdraw their support and this will add to the existing needs the sum of $40,000.

Mr. Scovill described the Esquimaux and the splendid work done among them, emphasizing the necessity for their support. He spoke in detail of the Chinese and Japanese in the west, and the moral, social and religious problems which their members are facing.

The prospective responsibilities are the flood of immigration which will come immediately after the war, when not only our own soldiers and those of the Allies will hear the call of Western Canada, but alien will come also and knock upon the western gate. The Church must demand the life and service of its members to meet this great responsibility. The M. S. C. asks for $90,400, the W. A. asks for $56,000 to meet this responsibility. "I will hear the call," Mr. Scovill in closing, "encourage and aggressive faith to face responsibilities like these, but as Christian men and women God will give both."

After the singing of a hymn Archdeacon Crowfoot spoke on the Appeal of the Diocese, saying that he could also point out responsibilities. He told of the good men who had spent their lives in New Brunswick, and said he owed it to them to carry on. He felt that if the importance of diocesan work is realized the rest is easy. The future of the diocese is bright.

great, and we in Eastern Canada must back up the Anglican Church. An English clergyman had said to him upon hearing that he was leaving for Canada, "I should think a diocese a hundred years old should grow its own clergyman." The speaker urged the mothers and members of the W. A. to use their influence to induce boys to take up the calling of the sacred ministry.

Bishop Richardson spoke of the three fine addresses that had been given and paid a tribute to the missionary work of Rev. G. F. Scovill. The Bishop praised the wives of the clergy, saying that they deserved to be honored as saints. He hoped that the stipend of the country clergyman was to be increased. Speaking of the vacant parishes His Lordship said that there was no vacant parish with a W. A., and in regard to the vacant parishes they were vacant because men had heard the call of duty and God would fill their places to enable us to carry on His Will.

STAR

North of Fifty-Three.
Fox films are certainly full of fire and fervor and this one in which Dustin Farnum figures is no exception. The story is of the great Northwest and Dustin Farnum is Roaring Bill Wagstaff. A beautiful girl, (Winifred Kingston) pursued by the evil rumors which a designing suitor has circulated gives up her home to seek peace among the snows of the west. She meets Roaring Bill and marries him. There are obstacles in the course of true love but the sun shines upon the lovers. Many will remember this story which appears as a novel some time ago and delighted many readers. As a picture play with its scenery of the west and its romance it will delight many audiences.

EXCHANGE MAY MOVE.

I. Soskins of the Toronto head office of the Famous Players Film Company, who was in the city last evening for Toronto, Mr. Soskins has recently made a trip over the Maritime Provinces and states that it is considered likely that the office of the Famous Players in St. John will be closed, the company moving to Halifax.

TAX ON THEATRE
TICKETS AFTER THE FIRST OF JUNE

New Bill Taxes Every Theatre-goer—Children Exempt on Saturdays.

The New Brunswick theatre tax has materialized and after June 1st every one attending a theatre will be taxed upon the following scale of admission: On all tickets belonging to the cheaper group of prices—tickets for the ordinary run of shows ranging from 5c. to 25c. inclusive—a tax of one cent.

From 25c. to 50c. the tax on every admission, two cents.
From 50c. to 75c. the tax will be five cents.

From 75c. to $1 the tax will be ten cents.
From $1.01 to $1.50 the tax will be fifteen cents.

When admission prices are more than $2 the tax will be levied on a flat ten per cent basis.
It is proposed to have the theatres buy these tax tickets of various denominations from the government and for the labor of selling them and seeing that the law is carried out in that regard the government will allow each theatre a small commission or rebate. The bill is in amendment to the Theatres and Cinematographs Act.

Children are exempt on Saturday afternoons; all other times they pay six cents.

All entertainments wholly for patriotic purposes are exempt from the operation of the act.

METRO MANAGER LEAVING.
E. Bizar, manager of the Metro St. John exchange, has resigned his position to return to the United States. He carries back with him the good will of the exhibitors who have had dealings with him. It is understood that Mr. Bizar is going back to the exhibiting end of the film business, having had theatres in New Jersey and Connecticut previous to his connection with the Metro in Canada. Mr. Bizar has purchased the Colonial Theatre in Paterson, New Jersey, and is negotiating for another theatre in that city.
