GRAND MASTERS ANNUAL ADDRESS.

BRETHREN OF THE GRAND LODGE OF PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.

In the Providence of God you are again permitted to assemble in our Third Annual Communication, and I much regret that my unavoidable absence from the Province will prevent my meeting you on that occasion. My regret at not being able to meet you proceeds more from personal than other motives, as I feel satisfied the interests of our beloved order will not in any way be materially affected by my absence, but speaking for myself, I always look forward to the meetings of Grand Lodge with pleasure; hence I feel much sorrow at not being able to exchange fraternal greetings with you on the occasion referred to.

Since our last Annual Meeting the Quarterly Communications of Grand Lodge have been held in May, at Tryon; in August at Souris; and in November at Alberton.

You will learn from the report of the R. W. Grand Secretary the business transacted on these occasions. The kind and hearty reception given us by the Brethren of "True Brothers," "Orient," and "Zetland" Lodges far exceeds my most sanguine expectations. The attendance at each of these meetings was large, and I trust the same good feeling and brotherly love which were then shown, may always attend the meetings of our Grand Lodge.

I have appointed the following representatives of this Grand Lodge to other Grand Lodges:—
