

hours for ready access to Lake Superior and the North-west at all times during the season of navigation. Will advocate the continuance of the present Insolvent Law, and a careful remodelling of the tariff, so as to give such protection to our native industries as will enable them to compete successfully with the cheaper labour of foreign markets. Believes that the building to the Pacific Railway, or so much of it as will give us ready access to British Columbia at the earliest possible moment, is of vast importance to the trade of the Dominion."—East King St., Hamilton.
