

Royal Highness, whose kindly and gracious sympathies, manifested upon so many occasions, have endeared her to all hearts, we humbly beg that you will personally convey to Her Majesty the declaration of our loyal attachment and of our determination to maintain firm and abiding our connection with the Great Empire over which she rules.

GEORGE A. KIRKPATRICK,
Speaker.

HOUSE OF COMMONS,
23rd May, 1883.

The Honorable Sir Alexander Campbell moved, seconded by the Honorable Mr. Scott,

To agree with the House of Commons by filling up the blank with the words "Senate and."

The question of concurrence being put thereon, the same was unanimously resolved in the affirmative.

Ordered, That His Honor the Speaker do sign the said Address on behalf of this House.

Ordered, That one of the Masters in Chancery do go down to the House of Commons and acquaint them that the Senate has agreed to the said Joint Address to His Excellency the Governor General by filling up the blank with the words "Senate and."

Then on motion of the Honorable Sir Alexander Campbell, seconded by the Honorable Mr. Scott, it was Ordered, That the said Joint Address be presented to His Excellency the Governor General on the part of this House by such Members thereof as are Members of the Privy Council.

The House, according to Order, was adjourned during pleasure, and again put into a Committee of the Whole on the Bill intituled: "An Act respecting the sale of "Intoxicating Liquors, and the issue of licenses therefor."

In the Committee.

The second and remaining clauses of the Bill severally read and agreed to.
Title again read and agreed to.

After some time the House was resumed, and

The Honorable Mr. Ferrier, from the said Committee, reported that they had gone through the said Bill and had directed him to report the same to the House without any amendment.

The Honorable Sir Alexander Campbell moved, seconded by the Honorable Mr. Plumb,

That the said Bill be now read a third time.

The Honorable Mr. Scott moved in amendment, seconded by the Honorable Mr.

Power,
That the said Bill be not now read a third time, but that its consideration be deferred until the question of the Jurisdiction over the issue of the licenses whether by the Federal Parliament or the Provincial Legislatures shall have been first decided.

The question of concurrence being put thereon; the House divided: and the names being called for they were taken down as follow:—
