June 18, 1920.

Sir.-

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 11th instant, No. 10328, in regard to lots 41 and 42, Long Sault Indian Reserve, Rainy River district, and in reply to say that these lots are available for disposition, lot 41 containing an area of 89.57 acres, at $895.70, and lot 42, containing 170.51 acres, at a value of $1,193.57, or a total value for both lots of $2,089.27.

I may say that, upon payment of the above sum, the Department would be pleased to transfer these lots to the Soldier Settlement Board.

Your obedient servant,

W. A. Orr

In Charge Lands & Timber Branch.
