Armand Lavergne, Esq.,
Quebec, P.Q.

Dear Mr. Lavergne:

I feel that I did not quite fully carry out my undertaking to you over the 'phone. I said Mr. Belley was to go down that night, but he did not leave until the next night and even then I was not able to give him a definite idea as to when I might go down to Quebec. I have, however, written him more fully to-day and suggested that he see you and that the both of you review the situation together and decide whether I ought to make the trip within the next two weeks. It may be that I will be wanted in Rimouski, and it may be that I will not. If I am it would be better for me to make the call at Quebec on the same journey. The difficulties in Montreal, and picnic engagements in Ontario, make it hard for me to go but if after conference you feel I ought to, then nothing but the insuperable will prevent me.

Yours very truly,
