

- (e) that Canada should continue to accept responsibility for the defence of Newfoundland and Labrador, and that the part of the United States in the defence of these territories should be limited to the operation of their leased bases in Newfoundland.
- (f) that because of the new vulnerability of the North American continent, quite apart from any obligations under a world security organization, Canada must accept increased defence responsibilities and maintain larger armed forces than before the war.

Minutes and Documents of the Cabinet War Committee,
Volume XVI, July - December 1944, (R.G. 2, 7c, Volume 16)

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA