

Harry went to the nomination meeting on Wednesday I said Mr. & Mrs. spoke well and the meeting was well attended.
 They seem to think Duncan & Cairns will get in again, but nothing is quite so uncertain as an election. They wanted me to be president of the women's Liberal association, just for the election, but I flatly refused. I will help, but not be responsible. Dr. Simpson has made no more to support & Cairns, so his chances if he ever runs again, are pretty slim. I can't understand a lot of those provincial politicians; certainly they are not troubled with too much money.
 Rosalind and a little friend are running the Home Shop and doing very well. It is surprising what people can do when they have to! I never thought of Reed as a business woman!! I don't
