

Birds that are killed by other methods, scalded, drawn or wet cooled, cannot be so graded unless the outside of the package is very plainly and conspicuously marked indicating the method of killing, dressing, cooling or the fact that they are drawn.

DEFINITIONS OF GRADES

A dressed roaster grading as a Special

A dressed roaster grading as No. 3, being fairly well fleshed but with a crooked breast-bone and with food in the crop.

Specials—

Birds in this class are particularly good specimens both as to conformation, quality and flesh. No pin feathers, bruises, breaks or tears in the skin or flesh or evidence of food in the crop, are allowable. They are choicest specimens.
