

tionary and pastoral element in the College course may, in part, be dispensed with, if in any student's case the Faculty find good and sufficient reasons for dispensing with it, such reasons always to be matter of record. But in no case shall this element be wholly dispensed with, and no student shall be held to have completed the course who has not performed so much missionary and pastoral work as to enable the Faculty to judge that he possesses practical qualifications for the ministry."

This scheme has already been put into operation, and is thought to be a happy solution of the beneficiary question.

Special cases that may not be met by any of the above provisions will be otherwise arranged for.

FINANCIAL NEEDS OF THE COLLEGE.

The honored founder of the College has assumed the payment of the salaries of all the Professors, under certain conditions. The funds necessary for aiding students, and for heating and lighting the buildings, etc., must still be contributed by the Churches and by benevolently disposed individuals.

Applications for admission, or for general information, may be made to the President, No. 401 Sherbourne Street, Toronto; for rooms, to the Resident Professor, Dr. MacVicar, at McMaster Hall.
