In our list of officers of St. Catharines Branch a mistake was made. The Fin ancial Secretary and delegate to the Grand Council is our friend, Mr. J E Lawrence, one of the most enthusiastic amongst the old members of the society in Canada.

Another New Une.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER-On Monday evening, 23rd met., I had the pleasure of instituting Branch 1:4 at Niagara-on the Iske. It starts with thirteen charter members, all inspired with the determin ation to make their new Branch one of the most prosperous in the Associa-tion. In the work of organizing and instructing the new officers in their duties, I was ably assisted by President Horey, of Branch 61, Merritton; Chancellors Lawrence and Flynn, and officers McCarron and Barnett, of Branch 10 St Catharines. After the installation of the new officers, a formal meeting took place, with the visiting officers in the principal chairs; and the entire procedure of an ordinary meeting carried out in all its details; embracing applications for membership, ballotting for candidates, reports of trustees, and from special and standing committees, etc. In fact, dur-ing the three hours of the proceedings the most thorough instructions were given the new officers on all essentis given the new officers on all essential points.

The worthy President, Rev. Father Shanahan, P. P., at the close of the proceedings, invited the officers of the new Branch and their visiting brothers to his residence, where an excellent and tempting spread had been prepared, to which ample justice was done by the invited guests, bringing to an appropriate conclusion the proceedings of an evening spent in a manner most pleasant and spent in a manner most pleasant and profitable to all concerned, Montical, Dec. 15, 1889.

8. R. Brown, Esq.: Dear Sir and Bro.—In accordance with instructions, I organized Branch No 113 at Waterioo P. Q. on Saturday, Dec. 7th. This Branch scarts with a membership of eighteen, and it is expected very shortly to number 75. Its members are the leading citizens of the county, and in its roll of membership Rev Fatner Bernard heads the list. Chis Branch wild in the lead of the organizing of many others I was assisted by President Caffey, of 74. President Daudtlin, of 81, and Bro. M. Kelly, of 50. Montresl, and a thorough explanation of the workings of the C. M. S. A was given. After the meeting closed, an acjurbment was made to Bro.—Foutaine's, where the visiting members were entertained by the members of the new Granch. The success of this Branch is due to Dr. Phelan, Deputy Postmaster P. Murphy and that able advocate of Catholic interests, Bro. Charles Thibault. The following is the list of officers. Rev. Father McCallen, who presided, said he rose simply to voice the senti-ments expressed in the address. He felt bound to say that the members of the society deserved to be congratulated for their appreciation of the services of their secretary, and at the same time their secretary, and at the same time that the secretary was in every way worthy of that appreciation.

In endorsing these expressions, Mr. J. J. Curran, M. P., mentioned the fact that he had heard a gentleman lecture on the subject of anti-poverty, but the St. Patrick's Total Abstinence and Benevolent Society possessed the best means possible of effecting anti-poverty Total abstinence, he held, was the greatest cure for poverty ever yet discovered by man. He alluded to Mr. Costigan's connection with the civil service, and his deserved promotion, which he had no hesitation in stating was due to bis pursuance of the same line of conduct that had marked his connection with the St. Patrick's Total Abstinence and t connection with the civil service, and his deserved promotion, which he had his deserved promotion, which he had his deserved promotion, which he had give to be pursuance of the same line of conduct that had marked his connection with the St Patrick's Total Abstinence and Benevolent Society. dith's letter it will be seen that he contradicts himself. If a prejudice exists against Catholics, it is but reasonable to draw the conclusion that that prejudice is made to work against them in many ways. This being the case, how can they be treated with justice and with generoalty? Let us consider the matter for s moment. Take all the public offices in the Province in the gift of the electorate. Lat us look over the names of the members of the Legislature, the mayors, and those holding other positions of responsibil ity and prominence, and we will find that there is and always has been a sort of boycott hanging over the heads of Catho lics. In a few places liberality has been shown, but the instances are hardly worth mentioning, so few are they. Let the name of a Catholic be mentioned in convention where selection of a candidate for Parliamentary honors is being made and the uppermost thought in the minds of the delegates is "He is a Catholic and cannot be elected." A few Catholics have at times presented themselves for the office of Mayor of Toronto and other They were, so to speak Ontario cities. They were, so to speak almost annihilated because they were almost annihilated because they were Catholics. We are speaking plainly, and we know whereof we speak. These events are of recent occurrence and will be borne in mind by all who read the capers.

Then let us glance in another direction. A vacancy occurs for some important civic post in the gift of a corporation One or more Catholics are included in the list of applications. They are old resi dents, honorable and capable men, who have always ranked; high among their acquaintances. They are, however, Catho lics, and all their claims and qualities avail not. They are passed aside, and the office goes to another. It may be to an Epis copalian recently arrived from England; it may be to a Presbytarian from Scot land; it may be to an Orangeman just out from Belfast ; it may be to a Canedian who stands bigh in the Masonic order or in some other oath-bound organization; but the Catholic is boycotted because he is a Catholic. We are making a plain statement of the case. Every sentence we write we believe to be the truth Where is the proof? Kingston, Toronto, Hamilton and London will bear witness Is this justice? Is this generosity?

Let us follow the matter a little closer still. It is a painful subject, and with sorrow do we find still more to write about. The Catholic people will not take second place with any others in the world in a sincere desire to have their children educated. They will make many sacrifices in order that their boys and girls may be the equals of any in the land in the matter of asound education. We are not now considering the subject of religious, but merely secular training. We know of cases where Catholics sent their children to the public school. The weather was severe, the distance to the separate school very great, and necesity compelled the adoption of this course Those children were sent home because they were Catholics. Was it a question of taxes? No. The parents owned no real estate. What then was the cause of such cruelty? Ask the London public school board. Ask Inspector Boyle. Was this justice? Possibly. But was it gen-agreeable things would not happen-that we would be all a very happy family were the separate schools abolished. We cinn it accept this reseate picture. The sep ration does not generate bigotry. Do you want proof? Take your eyes from the orp of Ontario and let them rest on the Province of Quebec, where all the soca isd "mediavalism" exists. What do w find there? Schools for Catholics and school for Protestants. The separation is far more complete than it is in Ontario The Catholics are a very large majority of
