CARRICK ON SUIR.

There was a report in Liverpool, on Wednesday, that there had been a riging in this neigh bourhood: that the Catholic clergyman of the place, the Rev. Mr. Byrne had been arrested and committed to Brilewell, and that the mob had re cued him and heaten a force of military sent against them. This turns out to be an exaggera-On Monday it appears however, a Mr. the stipendiary magistrate. Mr. Marks was a figurite with the mob. Immediately the alarm was given-the bells were set in motion in all directions, and the@members of the various clubs Bridewell, followed by the thousands that flocked a from the adjoining parts of the country, many of them were armed with all sorts of weapons, guns, seythes, pikes, crowbars, &c.

He ven knows what the fatal consequences of the arrests might have been, if bail was not taken is no starting afresh under the guidance of which they now clearly see that it is the intenand the ec eta v liberated. Even this would not have sufficed but for the exertions of the Rev. Mr. Borne, who not only implored the multitude to return to their homes, but conjured them by the cause they loved; to do so, promptly and in peace. He also de-patched men on whom he could depend to the various roads to prevent of Europe is a receding vision. more of the country people from coming into the town; much as they valued the advice of this young elergeman, it is only just to mention that they obeyed it with evident re'untance, many of them saving they would do so for this time.

Our fact is worth a thousand assertions, and will serve to show how ready the people seem to be for an emeute. There was a large funeral in the chapel-yard of Newton, but the moment the bells were heard, the men all rushed towards the town, leaving the co-pse to be interred by sorts of formidable weapons. itary and police to barracks, where, fully accontrol, they we'e prepared to repel, as far as

It is sail that the Earl of Clarendon has requested the presence of Sir C. Napier's squadron on the southern coast for some weeks, until the harvest is cut.

ich the Governmen s intend taking to bring in a bill to am lower the Lord-Lieutenant, or other governors of Ireland to apprehend and etain, ustil the 1st day of March. 1430, such persons as he or they suspect of freesonable desires against Her Majesty's crown and government." This is, no doubt, the last retaking or permanent y pleve ting an outbreak. It desirable, onevery consideration, if there be any earnest-ness in the agitation that the young I clanders be taught their own weakness; and an immediate catastrophe, the consequence of which would be to crush their cause, is unquestionably preferable to the chronic threatening, as every man, from the Peer to the Peisant, must, the pot to blight do-sexis and is on the increase to in alarmwhether as to quantity or quality of the produce.

very good authority, gives a good idea of the affairs should fall into the hands of the promot- several localities afford an important point of agricultural prospects of the country :-

"The month of Liv was as forourable for ve filing in mediction. It is one of the unavoidable con cause that occasions the straw of our crops to be weak is Pine, hears and oats are very lux minnt this year, and I evernire erop_some has already been cut down. still a different crop generally."

SECRETARY'S OFFICE - Tratment 12th August. 343: His Excellency the Governor Coner in Council habeen pleased to re-mail the Home District for Revenue Purnesses, by annexist the Township of Verk to the second and Point Divisions, as set forth in the Official Gazetle of the Twesty airth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and forfessive that is to say it all that next of the Township of Yark, I wing North all them affect, and west of Loure street, on belong to the Second Division, and all that meet of the said Fowarding leting North of Tanen Street and East of Yongo Street and East of Yongo

His Paul new the Governor Seneral has been pleased to make the following appointments viz:

Alexander Pavid Ferrier, of Slora, James Patten, of Barrio. James Maxwell Strange, of the City of Toronto. John C. W. Daly, of Stratford, Huron District, to be public No-turies in that part of the Province formely Upper Canada. Robert Rodgers, of Hemminoford, William Oliver Buchaman, of Stamford, to be preventive Officers in Her Majesty's Pich, Poss i obertson, George Rown, Justor, John Galt, Ness i obertson, George Rown, Justor, John Galt, Wetcon, Morrey Hamilton, Poly of Madery II. and Ness II. Gooding Rougires, to conditute a Boor! of Wealth and I for the Town of a pictich, in the Huran District.

It is much to be desired that our friends would well to adopt a letter expressing their wishes to shipment of the new crop has never before that our friends would well to adopt a letter expressing their wishes to shipment of the new crop has never before that our friends would well to adopt a letter expressing their wishes to shipment of the new crop has never before that our friends would well to adopt a letter expressing their wishes to shipment of the new crop has never before that our friends would well to adopt a letter expressing their wishes to shipment of the new crop has never before that our friends would well to adopt a letter expressing their wishes to shipment of the new crop has never before that our friends would well to adopt a letter expressing their wishes to shipment of the new crop has never before that our friends would well to adopt a letter expressing their wishes to shipment of the new crop has never before that our friends would well to adopt a letter expressing their wishes to shipment of the new crop has never before that our friends would well to adopt a letter expressing their wishes to shipment of the new crop has never before that our friends would well to adopt a letter expressing their wishes to shipment of the new crop has never before that our friends would well to adopt a letter expressing their wishes to shipment of the new crop has never before that our friends would well to adopt a letter expressing their wishes to shipment of the new crop has never before that our friends would well to adopt a letter expressing their wishes to shipment of the new crop has never before the new crop has neve The bad state of the Counters is given as The Free-Soil Party is fairly in motion with ealled it into existence, at once established it, purpose, by the petty annoyance of the enemy. office, or to any member of committee.

THE EVANGELICAL PIONEER LOND ON, SATURDAY, AUGUST 19, 1848.

TO CORRESPONDENTS. The reply of "Scotus" to the article in the Register we have received. He will excuse us if we decline meddling on either side. The parties concerned are those who have troubled themselves with the rumours to which Mr. Boswort adverts-not the Baptists of Canada, for they have nothing to do with the Montreal College. For the most part they think with us that if Mr. Cramp promised neutrality and violated it, he would be guilty of a miserable equivocation But if he believes his views on communion to be scriptural, and fears to teach his pupils the whole law of Christ, he commits a great sin. We take no part in such a dispute. and our name is unjustly mixed up with it. Truth gains nothing, however it be decided.

SUMMARY.

and the nations set out in a new career of enit is because we cannot discover any development of those higher principles which must lie at the foundation of such results. There is no that Gen. Cavaignac's sword should be more enjoy without qualification or reserve the full nation's liberty and welfare. If history tells the truth regarding military dictation, the freedom

nent for the time being, and every eye is fixed tion between this Province and the mother directed. upon Ireland. The desperate adventurers of the Repeil agitation continue to inflame the unreflecting multitudes by the most savage and bloodthirsty appeals; government prepares to grap- in so far as the St. Lawrence is concerned, prove ple with the difficulties of the case, firmly and promptly. It is unaccountable that some professed friends of justice and public order, misled by the women!-What surprised every one was the their ready sympathy with the very name of quickness with which they were armed with all liberty, and against even a surmise of oppression, duty and affection into opposition. should be found using the language of censure in speaking of the measures which have already been adopted to protect the public peace. It is so lander the a force could do, any attack of the | a plausible ground of outcry, "the suspension of the habeas corpus act, the censorship of the press. political arrests." but is there to be no distinction between liberty and licentiousness, independence and sedition? Are all the claims of society to be sacrificed to the reckless bravado of a set of Coursion for Ingland -- In the House of blustering demagogues? Is this independence Commons last at at , Loud Job . Russell state! the further of speech and free discussion, that men who have everything to g in and nothing to lose, should be House, "I rise to give notice permitted to urge on an ignorant mass to certain union, somewhere about 6000 Baptists. These the purpose of the body are vain, They may and M. Roussy; but after all, would not somewhere destruction? For will not this be the issue; are included in churches altogether distinct and make efforts to injure ourself, but if they suc- of us who fancy we can spare but little to the while the deluded thousands are bleeding and independent in their government, and hitherto ceeded, the 6000 remain firm in purpose and in cause of Christ, think our lot a hard one if we dying in the streets of Dublin, the O'Briens, they have enjoyed no means or opportunity of principle. They may create obstruction and an were obliged to practice such self-denial. It Meaghers, Dillons, &c., will be consulting their co-operating in the promotion of common ends, novance, but what will that profit them? Nay, if opened up to us in a very forcible way the posisource, and there are few of the welf-disposed, either or this side, or the other side of the Irish channel, who will own safety by a flight, for which arrangements or in the defence of common principles. The fact they should, by the diligent use of all their means tion and claims of the mission, and it suggested have been made for months. Better that the of the increase of Bantist churches in the circum- of stirring up prejudice, national, local and per- a hint or two, as to what might be done for the whole ging should spend their lives in Ber- stances, is a singular testimony to the inherent sonal, succeed in thwarting the purposed union, perishing papists of Canada East. We state the muda than that one of their misguided victims vigour and efficiency of the principle upon which what would they gain? It would remain still fact and let it plead with our readers as it did should die. All motives of mercy and justice—they est, it is the result of no human policy, an utter impossibility that the Baptists of Canada with our consciences. expediency and right-demand that government it has been fostered by no external power, it has should unite with them. If the question was, Everything we saw told us of the efficient in such an exigency should at once interfere for been conducted by no combination of effort. By Shall we unite upon their grounds or our own? but loving administration of the affairs of the miswhereby the empire has been kept in a constant state of a m and apprehension for the last three months.

The reform of abuses, a purely voluntary and spontaneous advocacy, we could understand their opposition, though it sion family. In particular, the truly filial respect The Freman's Journal of yesterday morning makes the prosecution of a righteous course in the ad- originating in an individual devotion to the truth would be an arrogant demand that 6000 indi- and confidence with which all the family, young ministration of the affairs of Ireland, the relief of and addressed to individual hearts and consci- viduals should abandon their principles to justify and old, regard Mme. T., was delightfully appargrievances, the extension of liberty—these are ences, without arrangement and without manage the preference of 3 or 400. But that is not the ent. The influence of religion appeared in all separate questions. No true friend of Ireland ment, these principles have made their way in the question at issue. Unite upon their grounds we their intercourse. At the close of the meal, a can for a moment suppose that these ends are face of power and prejudice, against worldly in- cannot and dare not. The only question is, young lidy handed round bibles and testaments. to be promoted by the present agitation, and least fluence and interest, in spite of misrepresentation Union upon our own principles, or No Union— and a short time was spent in reading the scripof all by the success of the proposed insurrec- and reproach, till they are held by the very res- allience in the truth, or continued separation. tures and in prayer, before we rose from table, and £2 18s. Od. congregational collections; also by the i fluince of tion. Look at the character of the Irish masses pectable number we have stated. During the Opposition in this case is simply mischievous. Nor was it a mere formal service, but an exercise -look at the character of the Irish leaders - period of their growth, no fair and vigo ous effort We would urge those who are giving way to in which every one present seem at to join with > ers of the present agitation. An established church may be a grievous bur-

Horace Greely in Tammany Hall.

most skilful and experienced campaigners. But tion of the Michigan Christian Herald. his platform will not suit them. And he is too much mixed up with old party conflicts to unite should have selected Judge McLean.

PROVINCIAL.—Amongst papers submitted to Another week has passed without any start- deprived of all protection for his produce in the tions, we have done nothing more than given utafresh, that after all society will settle down into p ot ct.on of navigation." He points out the upon the eve of the Union which we have been something like established order: that like 1 obvious with that the promised monopoly to the accustomed to regard as far in the distance. thus concludes-shed that the constitution of their forefathers, of virtue. And on what grounds is it concluded non of the Imperial Government that they shall efficient than Lamartine's genius in securing a privileges, affords them at least as large a meaas any form of Government which the wisdom of ingenuity of man has devised. I am confilent that if the wise and generous policy lately adopt-But public interest is diverted from the Conti- ed towards Canada, is persevered in, the connecin a far greater degree than his been the case heretofore. I should deeply g ieve, the efore, if in attempt which must, I am disposed to believe futile, to secure a monopoly for a useful and exemplary class of our fellow subjects, provisions were suffered to remain on the British statute book which would seem to bring the material nterests of the colonists and the promptings of

The oppressive prosecution of the Montreal Transcript, awakens increasing sympathy throughout the country, and promises to be the means of arousing those connected with the press to combined effort to improve its position. The provincial press deserves a better position, and public sentiment is ready to back the effort.

A GLANCE AT OUR POSITION.

with successful revolt, should be set loose f om The following extracts from the monthly with successful revolt, should be set loose from any enterprise. It is true also that there are fulness.

The following extracts from the monthly with successful revolt, should be set loose from any enterprise. It is true also that there are now actually existing associations which, in their are now actually existing associations which, in their are now actually existing associations which, in their den -- famine and postilence may be awful to obtain their co-operation with a society the accomplishment of a union, the necessity of scourges-but they are nothing at all compared which had its origin independent of them, they propose to set out, Mr. O Connor will whis- conducted by a stranger whose name had never way is to step over them.

purpose of the denomination is at once cheering strengthen our position by additional facts. If men of all parties in a new movement. To have and instructive. It is cheering because it mani- the reform we advocate is disputed, we can plead nade a strong demonstration, the Free-Soil party fests a strong attachment to principle—a tho- for it with greater fervour. If the principles we rough preparation for a cordial union upon the maintain are assailed, then for the defence of the basis of principle, and an energy to do as well as | truth we are set. But as for personalities, how-Pulliament on the Navigation Laws is a copy of a heart to will. Let us follow the movement a ever retailed, our only duty is to pity and fordespatch from his Excellency the Governor little further. We are, of course, individually give. There are higher interests at stake than General, in which the rights and interests of this responsible for the particular course pursued by anything personal to the best of us. In refer-Province are pointedly and manfully urged. the Pioneer, and for the sentiments therein ex- ence to such attacks, we give the advice we got turned to his native country, as the last hope of Referring to a rumor of the possibility of a mea- pressed. It is more than likely that in many in- from one we love: sure for the amendment of the navigation laws, stances that course and these sentiments may not being lost, he says, the Canadian farmer "can- have met the views of all our brethren. Sill it not reconcile it to his sense of right that after is evident that on all great denominational quesling intelligence from Europe. Encouraged by British market he should be subjected to a hostile terance to the mind of the denomination. Fol. ples—and firmly set upon your high purpose so long a peace, hope is beginning to spring up discr minating duty, in the guise of a law for the lowing that mind, we find ourselves unexpectedly and press on-leave yourselves in the hands of a Telogoos, has never abated. But what was his governments may be organized upon the ruin of Batish ship-owner will prove illusory, since, under We have not planned and purposed -- we have good." Above all, true friends of Baptist principlies them to abandon the station. The thoughts was taken into custody, under a warrant from thrones: that industry left free and unembar- the existing laws, the bulk of Canadian produce simply followed the leadings of Providence, and ples, we pray you to remember that at this junc. of ten year's toil sacrificed might be hard to rassed will resume its beneficial application, must find its way to New York; whilst under a the convictions of the churches. The peculiarity ture your souls should be kept especially attuned free navigation not only the produce of Canada, of the position which the Baptists composing to prayer. Keep afar from wrangling, and near lambs of the flock left in the wilderness, a prey lightened and prosperous progress. If we hesi- but that of the Western States would find its these Associations are now occupying is this, that a throne of grace, and you will be surprised to to ravening wolves, and the millions left in darkat oace assembled and marched towards the tate to chime in with such pleasing anticipations, way down the St. Lawrence, and thence be ship- for the first time, they come to form a Union find how small these troubles seem when looked ness without a single lamp. He pled for that ped to a great extent in British bottoms. He amongst themselves. It is not a Society already down upon from the mount. organized, nor a plan already concocted, in be-The people of Canada are animated with the half of which our support is asked; but the falling back upon truth and righteousness: there best disposition towards England; they are sat- heart of every man goes out towards his brother, and we are saving to one another from the extremities of the province, Let us be one .- tractions and endearments of a Christian home That desire springs from love of a common with the mission family. Thirty-four of us, young cause. It is the spirit of Christ. It is strange and old, sat down around two tables in the dinsure of substantial liberty and social happiness | that the expression of such a purpose should ing room, at one of which Madame Feller pre-It is strange, and it is foolish, for such efforts to be tolerated that people should repay hospitonly benefit the cause against which they are ality with a criticism of their fare, especially when country may yet be rendered profitable to both . The purpose contemplated is to form a Union | there is something about the relation of our readauthority. Now, what would our opponents annot refrain from a remark-and it is this: as theirs. Must we remain divided and es- board. There was an abundance of plain food hold different principles pursue the course which beautiful butter, and rich milk, but not a trace of our reasons for refusing our support. Let bacon. There are no luxuries at Grande Ligne them maintain their college, and teach their own save what the garden may farnish. Yes, there sentiments, only they must not expect that we are. There is the influence of an accomplished shall call it our college-nor that we shall send | Christian lady, shedding abroad Christian coa our young men to a school where the law of tentment and cheerfulness all the year round, and Christ, as we hold it, is either perverted or sup- making the commonest fire seem a continual and let any same man declare if he is not sati fied has been made to bring them together as a de- anything approaching to antipathy, for their own interest. Of that thirty-four there were probathat the very worst days of Tory misrule would nomination, upon the grounds of the high scriptus sakes to reflect a pon their position. We have bly not more than six who had not been led from as to admit of the stake being cut daws or pulled alto- be a paradise in Ireland, compared with the state ral principles which they hold. It is true that no quarrel with them in it. Such opposition it the darkness of papacy to look upon this great

> STONES AND STICKS IN THE WAY. union. And it is farther true that an effort has It may not be out of place to pause again, been made over the whole extent of the field, and urge, our brethren who are pressing on to very great forbearance and long-suffering. In n more promising averages, where any justice has been scourges—but they are nothing at all compared which and the origin independent of them, done to they are nothing at all compared which has its entire management beyond seeking the accomplishment of this object, in a the eye and the heart of a doomed nation. It | their leasn. The associations serve an import region where there have been dissensions and sepathe eye and the heart of a doomed nation. It there each. The associations serve an importation of this could be the case it will prevent the grain from will be a dark day for Ireland when the mob ant purpose in their several localities, but it is meets in conflict with the government-but the true that, for the most part, they have not even some strange thing had happened to us, if we engloomiest day she ever saw-the setling down maintained an efficient associational intercourse counter opposition and cruel misrepresentation. of a dark night upon all her hopes, would be with each other, whilst the Society which sought Looking at it from a distance, one unacquainted that which witnessed the success of her attempt. and insisted upon their co-operation, necessarily with human nature might expect that those who ested efforts to promote the spiritual interest of But why speak of success. Were it a nation bargained for a compromise of important prin- could not on principle unite with us, would be this section of Canada, and its understood wilaroused by a sense of oppression, under the ciples, and demanded that they should content to stand aloof and attend to their own linguists to increase its aids, have attracted the the above must be added 2726 Bibles and Testainfluence of a pure love of right, moving seek union with it at the sacrifice of conscience, duty—nay, some more sanguine than the rest attention of the churches in other portions of the ments, with the metrical version of the Psalms forward with a calm deep resolve to break a Failing to obtain support upon these grounds, it might fancy that even those who could take no Province. It is utterly inconsistent with the estyrant's bonds, and secure a country's liberty, has mide itself the agent of discension and dis- part in our union, still seeing how desirable it tablished policy of the society, to intrude itself we might calculate the prospects of success. trust, keeping up a constant irritation by its is, would follow us with their good wishes and upon any church or region, and if, in any case, it But in the present case we can discover nothing annual deputations, and exciting prejudice and prayers. But as we approach nearer to the is so represented, it may confidently be set down should the harvest be dry, there will be a most abundant but the tumultuous movement of the most unspecient in the minds of brethren, who had no goal, we shall learn that such is not the course as a misrepresentation. The society only extends holy passions of humanity. And if, as seems to opportunity of knowing the truth regarding of things in this world. Upon the whole we its service and sends its agent to associations and have been expected, the rising took place on the each other by personal acquaintance. It is ought to be prepared to make large allowance churches where it is wanted. At its late meet-8th instant, many hapless victims have fallen, not easy to tell how much the cause of truth for some of our opponents. Their deep-laid and ing, the Haldimand Association agreed to apply to pupils, and contains full information as to the has suffered by this state of things. Many of fur-stretching schemes appear to be buffled, and this society for aid, and an application was ac. course of study, government, expenses, &c. of and the great criminals are speeding their way our readers know how much the hearts of we all have a witness in our experience that it is cordingly submitted to the Executive Board. It the school. The high commendation of the across the Allantic, to receive the windy lauda- those who loved that cause have suffered in not an easy matter to look upon such a wreck will be gratifying to the friends in that region Visiting and Examining Committee will be retions of their compatriots O'Connor and Mooney, witnessing it. Many hearts were yearning for without displaying chagrin. Again, it would be to know that the application has been favourably and make another field-day for the philanthropic peace, all were tired of unprofitable dissension altogether without example in the history of the received. Rev. B. M. Hill, the devoted Secre-Every day rendered it more apparent that upon | world, if any such movement as that we are | tary, writing from New-York on the 8th inst. These friends of Ireland continue their tremend- the neutral grounds of that society a union never engaged inhad advanced without bitter opposition. says :-- "Our Board met yesterday and agreed ous demonstrations in the United States, and con- could be effected. And there was a gathering | What day-dreamer ever expected to escape clasiderable sums of money have been contributed. resolution to throw off its intrusion, draw the line mour, reviling and misrepresentation, if he set ciation, so far as to enter that field on the same Irish patriots all understand how to raise the rent. of demarcation and take a distinct denominational out to expose and reform abuses: to draw the terms as we have done farther West. The de-We are rather surprised to observe that some of stand. Of these desires, convictions and resolu- line of demarcation between principle and neu- tails to be settled after an exploration of the our contemporaries are recommending that public tions, the Evangelical Pioneer was the offspring, trality, and to set up the standard of high and field by our agent Mr. Savage." meetings should be held throughout our towns It is not the achievement of any man-it was not unbending truth? If we are not prepared for and villages, to contradict the slanders of Mr. produced by any individual effort. A voice from such obstructions, we had better not set out in | Convention at St. George's.—We trust the O'Connor. It should be at the call of some the very heart of the Baptists of Canada, called such a high and holy pursuit. One thing more notice of this meeting will not be overlooked. It grea'er man that Canada rises to assert her loy- it into being-and though it was published with we would remark, if we are to stop to pick up all is necessary that action should be taken on it Duncan left Port Stanley for Montreal on the arther Acland, Thomas Mercer Jones, William Bennett alty. The fear of invasion by the philanthro phists | very hasty and imperfect arrangements—amidst the stones and sticks that are thrown in our without delay. Those churches who are friendly 17th, with a full cargo of wheat and as well alty. The fear of invasion by the philanthro phists | very hasty and imperfect arrangements—amidst the stones and sticks that are thrown in our without delay. of the 'Felon Club,' is not very urgent. W'en the disidvantages of a remote western town, course, we shall never reach the goal; the only to the proposal, who, from any circumstances, Her cargo consisted mostly of fine new wait.

Mr. Van Buren as candidate for President, and and within three or four months raised its circula- For ourself we are fully apprised of the thous-Mr. Adams for Vice-President. The election of tion to 1200; a larger circulation than is pos- and petty calumnies, and misrepresentations Van Buren may weaken Gen. Cass in some sessed by any denominational paper we know of which are circulated in letters, hawked by travel. it was intended to have given a report of his quarters. He has many devoted adherents in in the world, in proportion to the number of lers, whispered in private circles, busily publish. addresses, with a view to exhibit the state and the democratic party, and those amongst the members within its field, with the single excep- ed everywhere. But should we use the Pioneer to hunt them down? We can live them down. If This practical expression of the desire and the exposures we have made be denied, we can prepared for our columns; meanwhile, we only

> "Be just and fear not. Let all the ends thou aim'st at be thy country's, thy God's, and truth's.'

Get your hearts filled with your high princi-

GRANDE LIGNE.

The tea bell! Its call was responded to by a company of glad young hearts, that find all the atexcite bitter opposition, and efforts to thwart it. sided, with grace and dignity. It is not usually it seasoned with such genuine kindness. But upon principles which we hold to be of divine ers to the table of our host, in this case, that we have? Must we deay our principles? No, we that we question very much if any family into claim that our consciences have rights as well which the Pioneer comes, sits down to so frugal a tranged ?-surely the love of Christ and his but even those things which are almost regarded som in the agony of separation, and thought how cause could not prompt such a demand. The as necessaries in every farmer's house were awantight we claim we freely concede; let those who ing. There was delicious home-made bread, onscience dictates; let them maintain their own | sugar any where. Even those of us who had society, we wage no war with it. Only if they tea, had no choice about the "fixin's." The force themselves upon us we shall tell them only other eatables we saw were fresh eggs, and Empty babbling.

feast. The absence of luxuries from their table. which have adopted resolutions in favour of a We believe that the efforts of a few to thwart is, doubtless, the least of trials to Madame Feller of things which would exist, if these masses, o e or two if is have been made in different is easy to fo give, ;but they are injuring their light. The parents of most of them were, per- Parent Society, to the Free Bible Press Commaddened with their bloody work, and flushed parts of the field, to engage in the Home Mission- present peace, and may destroy their future use- haps, at that moment, mumbling pater-nosters pany, Scotland, and to New York, amount to and ave-Marias in homes where there never was a bible. And this was in the house which the priest had declared at the altar was filled with 31d. being an increase of £94 2s. 6d. over the devils; and whose threshold the supersti- disbursements of the last year. tious peasantry, a few years ago, shuddered to

AMERICAN BAPTIST HOME MISSION SOCIETY.

Our readers are already more or less acquainted with the nature and extent of the beneficent labours of this flourishing Society. Its disinter-cannot be represented by delegates, would do wheat. We may remark that such an all per a little truth which will cool their martial been heard by nine tenths of its readers till they are locally and our memory. She was loaded by Hope and are little truth which will cool their martial been heard by nine tenths of its readers till they are locally that not allow themselves to be diverted from their the Convention, which may be forwarded to this pened in our memory. She was loaded by Hope by T. Babington the convention, which may be forwarded to this pened in our memory.

REV. S. S. DAY .- The visit of this devoted missionary was alluded to three weeks ago, and prospect of the Telogoo Mission. A complete history of the enterprise will at an early day be make a remark or two suggested by the peculiar position of the missionary.

field in 1835, and for the greater part of the 10 years he occupied it, he was alone and unaided.

The exhausting toils and anxieties of such an office, brought him at Tength to the brink of the grave. He was carried on board a ship and represerving life. During a visit to America of some two years, his health has been in a great measure restored. In sickness and in returning health his interest in the little church, which, through his instrumentality, has been gathered out of heathen darkness, and the ten millions of neglected God who will vindicate the truth. "Who can disappointment when he was told that the limitharm you if ye be followers of that which is ed resources of the Missionary Board would obbear, but what was that to the thoughts of the church, and these millions, till he is permitted to go-but on what terms? Missionary life has no romance about it to one who has been ten years alone on such a field--all its crushing-revolting realities are before him now-his constitution is enfeebled, as again he bids farewell to country and kindred, and to the endearments of Christian fellowship,-going to meet danger, privations, and the sickly influences of a tropical climate. But that is not all, he must say farewell to the wife of his youth, and to their children-so long his only associates and comfort. When Christ bids, he does not linger. But O, it is a sad, sad sacrifice; had it been done for some object that came within the range of worldly sympathies. how our journals would have rung with applause? We do not regret the absence of such plaudits. the man is above their reach; but when we saw that meek father struin one beloved boy to his boone by one he would thus give them up, down to the baby-and then give up their mother too, and go forth a lonely man--we learned a most humiliating lesson Christians of Canada, we talk of our efforts and sacrifices in the cause of Christ!!

> UPPER CANADA TRACT SOCIETY .- We have received a copy of the 16th report of this useful institution, presented at the Annual Meeting held at Toronto, on the 22nd day of June last. We rejoice with its committee in its extending usefulness, and recommend it to the support of all sults of this mode of operation by the American Tract Society, point it out as one of the most efficient agencies for the diffusion of truth throughout a new country, that has ever been adopted. When we meet these humble messengers of sa'vation in every township, it will be known that Christians are in earnest about the evangelization of the back-woods. This society is conducted upon the principle of the London Religious Tract Society, and is an enterprise in which all Christions can cordially co-operate. We subjoin an extract from the financial statement :--Total receipts for the year ending 30th April, 1848, £705 4s. 3d. of which the sum of £181 6s. 1d. was for Bibles the Testaments, with the metrical version of the Psalms and Paraphrases, the sum of £5, being the moiety of a legacy left by the late Mr. Edward B. Palmer of Toronto to this society and the Upper Canada Bible Society, showing an increase of £16 5s. over the receipts of the preceding year.

The disbursements, including payments to the £777 18s. 21d., to this sum may be added £65 1s, 1d. value of gratuitous distribution-which will make the total disbursements £842 19s.

Books sold during the year. ..... 12968 Gratuitous distribution, ..............26305 67 Libraries, containing ..... 6700

Shewing an increase on the issues of the preceding year, of 12895.

The number of Publications circulated by the Society since its commencement is 748,338; to and Paraphrases, also 233 Psalm Books.

BURLINGTON LADIES' ACADEMY .- We would direct attention to the notice in our advertising columns of the commencement of the Winter Session of this Institution. The Academy Cirmembered by the readers of the Pioneer.

Accompanied by his partner he entered that terest dur It now I under the an their ar

THE

beld, with a

Mr. John tion, and co JAMES ! records the d

ATT TI sent at one i

PROPHE

The assent