WANT AD HOROSCOPE

JUNE 5
The governing planet of this birth date is Mercury. The Greeks call this planet "Hermes" and he was the messenger of the Gods, revealing to man eternal will and knowledge. This is a fortunate period in which to be born. Persons with this birth date will succeed in the professions as they are great readers, with keen logical minds and reasoning powers. They are however difficult to understand, being very changeable and fickle. The sign of this birth date is Gemini, which means "the twins," the double nature, and this is what makes these persons so changeable and undecided and even after they have come to a decision, wish they had acted some other way. This time favors the advertising, through the Want Ads. of houses to rent and to sell, of the sale of rooming houses. Advertise rooms and summer cottages to-day and you will receive favorable replies.

An unexpected difficulty has been encountered by the Godalming Committee entrusted with the task of erecting a suitable memorial to their noble fellow townsman, Jack Phillips, the wireless operator of the Titanic who continued to send out signals for help on the sinking ship for some time after he was told by Captain Smith to look after himself. From all parts of the world subscriptions, amounting to nearly £700, have come in, but the selection of a site seems to be an obstacle.

The premises are underground and about a quarter-past nine smoke was seen issuing from the windows, which are on a level with the footpath. The fire brigade, in charge of Chief Officer Bayliss, were soon on the scene, and they discovered that the cooking stove had become overheated and ignited. There was practically no flames, but there was a pungent odour caused by the burning fat. The damage was not serious.

Dressing in another inmate's clothes during the night, an elderly woman inmate of the Grimsby work-house lowered herself to the ground from a third floor window by means of an improvised rope of sheets and blankets. After a search in all directions she was overtaken at Lacey's five miles away.

Much excitement was caused in the centre of Manchester by the report that a fire had occurred at the Grotto Cafe in Todd-street, near Victoria Station.
