WOOL CASE IS SETTLED

Special Session of Police Court Held Yesterday Afternoon

Although sentence was to have been pronounced in the two cases against Frank Cole and Fred Stull yesterday afternoon at four o'clock, the court did not commence until after five o'clock, being delayed by a meeting of the police commission. A large crowd of interested spectators waited patiently until the court was held. Cole, who has spent the time since declared guilty, in jail, appeared in the docket, while Stull, who was allowed out on $2,000 bail, was also on hand. Mr. E. McEwen acted for the Crown, Mr. J. W. Bowby for Cole, and Mr. W. S. Brewster for Stull.

When his client was granted an opportunity to speak, Mr. Bowby pointed out that the fact that he had been found guilty, investigations had been made, that would have a bearing on the case. He further emphasized the fact that one man should not be imprisoned and the other allowed to go free. Cole had only been implicated in one other slight offense, the theft of chickens, and in view of his previous good record, some allowance should be made, as latterly he had attempted to reform and lead a good life.

A man of good character, well established in business at Guelph, with excellent family connections, until now possessing a clean record, and as he had made restitution of the value of the goods stolen, Mr. Brewster appealed to the magistrate for suspended sentence on behalf of his client, Fred Stull. Such was the practice now generally in vogue in cases of a first offense, and considering the wife and family of the prisoner, clemency was requested. Mr. Brewster concluded by expressing the opinion that the ends of justice would be better served by allowing Stull to go on suspended sentence than by committing him to jail.

The magistrate stated that suspended sentence could only be granted on permission of the Crown, which Mr. McEwen objected, from the fact that Stull had been planning the theft for six months, it was not similar to one offense. While some $3,500 or $3,600 worth of wool was missing, Stull had only been charged with the theft of $985.

The Magistrate believed Cole had been more of a dupe than a principal in the matter, and it had always been his principle to deal leniently with one acting on the impulse of the moment. At this juncture, Cole appealed for a chance to enlist. This, however, was refused. Continuing, His Worship showed that Stull had been a competent business man was fully cognizant of the crime he was committing. The theft was characterized by the Magistrate as "cold blooded, premeditated and systematic" and it was no point in his favor to restore the stolen property, which really did not belong to him. He regretted the circumstances that would force the families of the two men to suffer because of the indiscretions committed by the fathers, but could see no other way out of the difficulty.

Cole was sentenced to six months in jail on each of the charges, the sentences to run concurrently while Stull was fined $250 or six months on each of the offenses. The costs of the case amounted to $37.25 which were paid by Stull in addition to his fine.

When a dispute arose over an item in the costs, the Magistrate stated that the Shingis Manufacturing Co. was the proprietor.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, bad breath, has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the food, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative," they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.
