TEMPLARS ADOPT WINTER PROGRAM

Plan to Welcome Brother Knights When They Return From Overseas

THE LIQUOR ISSUE

The Royal Templars have resumed their weekly meetings after some few weeks of inactivity on account of the epidemic.

At the regular meeting on Thursday night much interest was taken in the proposed program for the winter. The representatives to the carpet ball league presented their report. The Royal Templars have entered the contest with Select Commander Fred Hall as captain of the team.

A press reporter was appointed for the balance of the year. It was decided to hold an "at home" in the immediate future. A reception to the brothers from overseas is being considered by the local council when the boys come home. Some have been wounded and ill, but none from Brantford Royal Templars have paid the supreme sacrifice.

The matter of a probable referendum next year was mentioned, and while the members felt that public opinion does not warrant the same, they believed the interest of the vine might best be served by a final "No" to the liquor interests. History of the traffic and heartaches of four years' war will not soon vanish from memory, declared a member, "and now that the war is over, surely no one with consideration for others will even assent to much less vote for the return of the Kaiser's bosom friend, the enemy of virtue."

FOUR KILLED AT BRAMPTON

The Grand Trunk Express Crashed Into Car on a Level Crossing

TWO OTHERS INJURED

Toronto, Nov. 25.—Four people were killed and two seriously injured at Brantford at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon, when a Grand Trunk express crashed into a motor car at a level crossing.

The dead are:
Miss Edith May Sawdon, aged twenty, Britannia, Peel county.
Miss Ethel Gwilt, aged nineteen, Churchillville, Peel county.
Miss Pearl Bellas, aged nineteen, Queen street, Brantford.
James Henry Sawdon, aged fourteen, Britannia, Peel county.

The injured are:
William Sawdon, aged nineteen, Britannia, Peel county, broken leg.
Charles Sawdon, aged seventeen, Britannia, Peel county, broken leg and head injuries.

The accident was one of the most serious level crossing tragedies of recent years. It occurred on the much-frequented Queen St. crossing in the town of Brantford, which had previously been responsible for four deaths. The road leading up to the crossing is well known to motorists. The crossing is protected by a bell, but has no gates nor is a watchman provided. Much traffic passes through Brantford on the Grand Trunk system.

Warning Not Understood

Because of the fact that all of the party were killed or seriously injured details are lacking. However, a warning of the approach of the train was given by residents of Brantford. Mr. Arthur Brown and Mr. Thomas Gardener, who waved their hands in an effort to warn William Sawdon, who was driving the automobile, that the Toronto to Palmetton train was approaching. Both men think that their warning was mistaken for a sign that it was safe to pass over the crossing. There was no indication that any of the members of the party noticed the warning given by the two men according to their parents, who reside in Britannia, a postoffice south of Brantford, left home during the late hours of the afternoon for the date estate to bring their sister, who is engaged in horticulture by the Dale firm in their greenhouses, to her home for the week end. When on their way they met Miss Gwilt and Miss Bellas and offered to take them to their homes, although it was some distance out of their way.

BANDITS TAKEN WITHOUT FIGHT

Murderers of McKay and Corp. Horsley Almost Collapsed with Hunger

Prince Albert, Sask., Nov. 24.—Victor Carmel and Jean Baptiste St. Germain, the bandits who murdered James McKay and Corp. Horsley, were captured at 10.30 o'clock this morning in a straw stack at the farm of Charles W. Young, on the bank of the North Saskatchewan River, six miles east of Prince Albert.

They were in a state almost bordering on collapse from hunger and exposure, and were taken without a struggle. The stack was surrounded by police and citizens and a demand was made upon them to come out and put up their hands, otherwise the stack would be fired into. The men crawled out from a hole through which they had burrowed into the pile and were immediately handcuffed.

They carried small revolvers, having thrown away their rifles earlier in the morning, when they were fired at by police in the bushes on the farm of R. T. Goodfellow. They were brought to the jail and are now safely behind the bars.

NOTICE

INTERESTING REVELATIONS FROM LOWTHER

Former Colonial Secretary Told How South Africa Was Saved

London, Nov. 24.—Right Hon. James Lowther presided yesterday at a meeting of the Empire Parliamentary Association at the Houses of Parliament, at which many peers and commoners were present. The Prime Minister wrote paying a tribute to the work of the association which had enabled the meeting of overseas Parliamentarians from different parts of the Empire. He urged the continuance of similar services which would be even more invaluable in the future than in the past.

The chairman deplored the loss of three South African members of Parliament who had been torpedoed and drowned on their way to attend the meeting. He commended the proposal that an overseas delegation of Parliamentarians be invited to visit England next year.

Right Hon. Walter Long moved that a congratulatory message be sent to the overseas members of Parliament on the overthrow of military dictatorship and the triumph of Parliamentary government, which had been brought about by the self-sacrificing heroism of the British and allied armies and navies acting under free Parliaments.

Mr. Long referred to the welcome awaiting the overseas Premiers now assembling in England. General Botha would be doubly welcome in his dual role of Prime Minister and military commander.

Overseas Answer Prompt.
Lord Harcourt, formerly Colonial Secretary, seconding the resolution, stated in the course of some interesting revelations that immediately after the British ultimatum had expired at midnight of August 4, 1914, he had cabled the fact to the whole Empire, and before morning had received a reply from the small and most outlying centres. That meant that the grim machinery of war had commenced revolving overseas in perfect order because over two years previously an individual war book had been prepared by the Colonial Committee covering the defence of every protectorate and island, which plan had been locked in each Governor's safe. Lord Harcourt proceeded to recall the invitation to the Governments of Australasia and South Africa to take the neighboring German colonies, provided the latter were to be at the Imperial Government's disposal at the termination of the war. He paid a tribute to the admirable manner in which the colonies were taken and the able way in which hostilities were made. Subsequently, he said, we had never lost a colony, even temporarily, although the Falkland Islands had only been saved by the fleet by a margin of 24 hours.

South African Danger.
He referred to the danger which had been averted in South Africa to an extent that even the South African rebels had failed to realize, when they captured the Union's arms and ammunition in 1914. When General Botha cabled for their replacement without delay, he naturally, but without much hope, appealed to Lord Kitchener. The latter replied: "No, my friend, not one rifle nor one cartridge shall be diverted from the European front."

Lord Harcourt searched the world for nearly a week and ultimately found the weapons required in a friendly country. An empty ship was despatched and was loaded with arms and ammunition in 30 hours. They reached Cape Town in 16 days. That was the most critical period the Union of South Africa had ever experienced.

The resolution was adopted, and Mr. Lowther stated that he had accepted the invitation to preside on the executive committee and entertain General Botha on his arrival.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Need Help to Pass the Crisis Safely—Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Can be Relied Upon.

Urbana, Ill.—"During Change of Life, in addition to its annoying symptoms, I had an attack of grippe which lasted all winter and left me in a weakened condition. I felt at times that I would never be well again. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it did for a friend who was suffering through the Change of Life, so I told my doctor I would try it. I soon began to gain in strength and the annoying symptoms disappeared and your Vegetable Compound has made me a well, strong woman as I do all my own housework. I cannot recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly to women passing through the Change of Life." Mrs. L. M. Hanson, 1316 S. Orchard St., Urbana, Ill.

Women who suffer from nervousness, "heat flashes," backache, headaches and "the blues," should try this famous and best remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES HELD

Sydenham and Balfour St. Churches Commemorated Founding Yesterday

Special services were conducted at Sydenham street church yesterday to commemorate the twenty-eighth anniversary of the church. In the morning, the Rev. S. E. Marshall of Wesley Church occupied the pulpit speaking from the text found in John, 17, 36, and delivering a forceful sermon on the subject of "The New Era and the Need of the Church after the War."

In the evening the Rev. C. F. Logan of Colborne street Church preached on the subject "How to Measure a Man," taking as his text David's last words to his son Solomon, "Solomon, my son, show thyself a man." Both sermons were unusually eloquent and were appreciated by large congregations which were present morning and afternoon. The choir under the leadership of Mr. A. R. Nott, gave excellent music at both services. It was aimed to raise the sum of $553 by the collections during the day, and the total attained fell only $20 short of that figure.

At Balfour St. Church. Special Anniversary services were held in Balfour St. Presbyterian Church, at which in the morning the Pastor Rev. D. L. Campbell delivered an impressive address on "Our Help from the Hills." In the evening Mr. P. Ponton addressed the congregation. Special music was rendered by the choir at both services.

THE HOTELS OF THE CENTURY

The Grand Trunk System has created a chain of magnificent hotels to serve the traveling public and cater to the social life of the large Canadian cities. In service, design, construction and furnishings they have set a new standard for the Dominion of Canada. They are, in every sense, great hotels, operated by specialists of wide experience. When you plan your transcontinental or other trip, you will be well advised to arrange a stay at these hotels.

The Chateau Laurier, one of the most beautiful hotel buildings in America. Connected with the Grand Trunk Central station by an electric elevated subway. The Chateau has three hundred and fifty bedrooms, all "outside" rooms, commanding splendid views of the Provinces of Quebec and Ontario. In the city of Winnipeg, on the side of the old Fort Garry of frontier days, there is The Fort Garry. It has a total of three hundred rooms, and confidently challenges comparison with any of the famous hotels of this continent. In the capital city of Alberta,

Edmonton, on a site overlooking the Saskatchewan River, is The MacDonald, another notable link in this chain of hotels built for public service. A reservation at The Chateau Laurier, The Fort Garry, or the MacDonald is a guarantee of your enjoying throughout every hour of your stay the fine art of good service, combined with surroundings of quiet elegance, while the rates at these hotels are most moderate. For further particulars apply to any G.T.R. agency or C. E. Horning, Toronto.

POSITIONS OFFERED.
Secretary George MacDonald of the Soldiers' Aid Commission has received word from the secretary of the Civil Service Commission in regard to a number of positions that are opened for trained men, returned soldiers preferred. A clerk in the Department of Agriculture is wanted, and a hydrographic and water administration for the irrigation department at Calgary. A number of other positions, including that of Superintendent of Penitentiaries under the Department of Justice, at a salary of $5,000 per annum, are open.
