

GLASGOW VOTES DEAD AGAINST PROTECTION.

Every One Elected in Glasgow is a Free Trader, Whether Tory or Liberal.

The Government Has Now a Majority Over All Combinations of Parties.

A London cable says: Glasgow's big change constitutes a feature of the election returns to free trade. In two of the seven seats Conservative candidates were defeated, one win being to the credit of Labor. The two remaining seats are held by Conservatives, described as Free Traders. The list of Glasgow's defeated candidates includes Bonar Law, a Canadian. He was a prominent man of the party. He re-elected the seat for the Conservatives in 1900, and was appointed in 1902 secretary to the Board of Trade. This time he failed in a three-cornered fight. The result was: Barnes (Labor), 3,284; Law (Conservative), 2,974; Provand (Liberal), 2,056.

The Labor candidate also figured in the Camlachie division, and polled 2,562. He is blamed for the defeat of the Liberal candidate, who polled 2,871, compared with 3,119 by the Conservative Free Trader. An interesting fact is that, while two Conservatives elected advocated free trade, two defeated Liberals did likewise. One of these is Sir Stirling Maxwell. The defeat of Law was accompanied by that of Mr. C. S. Dickson, Lord Advocate in the late Government. These following the fall of Mr. Brodie, A. E. Fettes, E. Prettymann, Henry Chaplin, and others of the previous day, shows the fate of a majority of the late Ministry.

Most Remarkable in History. Returns from the country are coming in slowly, but are sufficient to indicate that the election is quite the most remarkable in the nation's history. Forty seats were decided to-day, but returns have only arrived from seventeen. In these the Liberals scored seven, and Labor two gains, making total gains: Liberals, 110; Labor, 20; Conservatives, 20.

The Government now has a majority over all parties, and it is expected that it will be maintained.

Lancashire, heretofore a Conservative stronghold, voted with an exception all its seats were held by Conservatives. The returns from there show that Lancashire is following the lead of Manchester, two going over to the Liberals and one to Labor. In the West Houghton division Lancashire scored one of the most notable victories of the right, turning a former Conservative majority of 3,040 into a Labor majority of 3,128.

Tariff reform scored a victory in Cambridge. Sir Charles Darnley, Conservative Free Trader for the University, polled only 1,633, compared with 2,976 by Rawlinson and 3,050 by Batchelor, both tariff reformers, and both were elected, Cambridge returning two members.

Mr. Foster Boulton, Liberal, who defeated Allwyn Fettes, Conservative, and late President of the Board of Agriculture, in North Huntingdonshire, is an old Scotonian.

Summary of the Returns. An analysis of the complete returns so far received to-day shows the following results: Liberals—Westmoreland (Kendal), Oxfordshire (Banbury), Berkshire (Abingdon), Sussex (Eastbourne), Northamptonshire East, Suffolk (Woodbridge), Sunderland, Staffordshire West, Huntingdonshire (Ramsay), Lancashire (Scafold), Wiltshire (Devizes), Warwickshire (Stratford-on-Avon), Norfolk (North-west), Hull East, Hull West, Lancashire (Middletown), Stafford (Middletown), Brentford). Of these the gains are: Westmoreland (Kendal), Oxfordshire (Banbury), Berkshire (Abingdon), Sussex (Eastbourne), Suffolk (Woodbridge), Sunderland, Staffordshire West, Huntingdonshire (Ramsay), Lancashire (Scafold), Wiltshire (Devizes), Warwickshire (Stratford-on-Avon), Lancashire (Middletown), Hull East, Hull West.

Liberal—Lancashire West, Houghton, Sunderland, all three gains. Unionists—Cambridge University (two members), Rutland, Devonshire (Iverson), Hertfordshire (St. Alban's), Kent (Sevenoaks), Shropshire (Newport), Hull Central. Of these Hertfordshire Central is a gain.

In the Scottish boroughs the results show: Liberals—Elgin and Nairn, Dumfries, Clackmannan and Kinross, Glasgow (Bridgetown), Glasgow Central (Glasgow College), Glasgow (St. Rollox), Kirkcaldy, Montrose. Of these the gains are Elgin and Nairn, Glasgow (Bridgetown), Central, College, and St. Rollox. Labor—Glasgow (Blackfriars), a gain. Unionists—Glasgow (Camlachie), Glasgow (Tradesmen).

In Ireland the Conservatives won North Belfast and West Down.

but when the quick remedies of the present Government had failed there would be opportunity for fiscal reform and no obstruction could prevent its taking root." He said: "For every one seat lost by tariff reform, ten have been lost by this story of Chinese labor. You have been told that the result of the elections is against fiscal reform. Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman said I would drop this new hobby of mine. He need not lay that flattering unction to his soul. If I stood alone I would stand firm as long as I was able to stand. All the more will I do it since I know I have the loyal support of Birmingham and the City of London. Fiscal reform was introduced as a remedy for something wrong. The Premier has been given a blank check, and you must wait and see what he will do. If he fails, do not forget that I have a remedy still. Fiscal reform is only postponed. If, as I believe, the Government will fail in finding a remedy, I do not believe the working-men of this country will always be bound down by an ancient superstition which the rest of the world has rejected."

Two Leaders at Inverness. Mr. Balfour and Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman arrived on the same train at Inverness, Scotland, to-day to fulfill political engagements. The enormous crowd gathered on the platform prevented a meeting between the distinguished leaders, each of whom was greeted with a hurricane of cheers. Mr. Balfour, addressing a meeting on behalf of Sir Robert Finlay, the Unionist candidate for Inverness Burghs, predicted for the new Government a happy existence of five years. Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, speaking at a Liberal meeting, characterized Mr. Balfour's statement that there was some sort of compact between the Liberal Government and John Redmond, the Nationalist leader, as nothing more than a scandal. He said there was no foundation for such an allegation, and declared that there was no mystery whatever about the relations of the Liberals and the Nationalists.

IN A WORDY WAR.

WILD SCENES ENACTED IN CHATHAM CITY HALL.

Charge and Counter-Charge Made by Aldermen—Mayor Quietly Threatened to Call in Police—Disqualification Will Be Asked For.

Chatham, Ont., despatch: A series of wild scenes extending all the way from the City Council chamber down the corridors and threatening to end in a fisty encounter, with the Mayor telephoning the police, characterized the close of the special Council meeting last evening. Scores of citizens stood around the corridors championing one side or the other, while the aldermen engaged in a bitter, wordy warfare, in which personal invectives, charges and counter-charges were hurled angrily to and fro.

For nearly two weeks the new Council has been practically deadlocked on the question of the appointment of civic assessors. Last night, however, a decision was reached, and Messrs. French and Gionne, the nominees of Ald. Austin, secured a majority of 6 to 4. All, Stone, who led the opposition to these candidates, openly charged Ald. Massey with violation of his word in going over to the support of Ald. Austin. The latter defended his recruit, and his opponent evidently impressed his opponents with the idea that he was gloating over them. Then followed a wild tumult. Ald. Thompson and Stone charged Ald. Austin with having abused his position as alderman. Ald. Austin retorted warmly, that if he had technically committed a breach he had done so in good faith, and was prepared to stand by his guns. Then followed mutual recriminations.

BRAVED PISTOL TO SAVE LIFE.

Fourteen-year-old Guelph Girl Foiled Bold Attempt at Robbery.

Guelph, Ont., despatch: The pluckiness of a 14-year-old girl last night foiled a daring attempt at robbery. About 9 o'clock a young man entered the grocery store of Mrs. C. F. Lee, Queen street, and, after asking for change, drew a revolver, and pointing it at the girl, demanded the contents of the till. Upon being refused the man grabbed a heavy knife and endeavored to intimidate her with it. Still the girl bravely defended the till until Mrs. Lee came upon the scene and telephoned for the police. Even then the man persisted, and brandished his revolver at the woman, threatened to shoot her. The ringing of the telephone bell probably frightened the would-be robber, for he ran out of the store and disappeared in the darkness. Mrs. Lee says he had a woman accomplice waiting for him outside the store. The police are working on the case.

There cannot be different degrees of purity any more than there can be different degrees of honesty. If a man be honest, that is all he can be. There is no superlative. One flour cannot be purer than another. It can only be more nearly pure. In these times when all flour manufacturers are claiming purity you should remember these two things: Actual purity in flour can only be secured by the use of electricity.

Royal Household Flour is the only flour, made and sold in Canada, that is purified by electricity. You can get Ogilvie's Royal Household Flour from your grocer.

Ogilvie Flour Mills Co., Limited, MONTREAL. "Ogilvie's Book for a Cook," contains 130 pages of excellent recipes, some never before published. Your grocer can tell you how to get it FREE.

FRANCE'S NEW PRESIDENT DESCRIBED.

What He Looks Like, What He Wears, What He Eats and Other Matters.

M. FALLIERES.

New York, Jan. 2.—Speaking of the newly elected President of the French Republic the Tribune's Paris correspondent to-day says: M. Fallieres has a large, round face. His hair is white, profuse and inclined to curl. He has for 30 years worn a cravat of the same pattern, namely, dark blue with white spots. He invariably carries an umbrella—even during fine weather. He is an early riser, getting up usually before 7 o'clock and generally goes to bed at 10. He is fond of domestic life and passes the evenings at his fireside with his wife and daughter, reading or listening to music. Mrs. Fallieres is a pleasant, kind-hearted lady of sound common sense. She has exceedingly dark hair and eyes. They have two children, young Mlle. Anne and a son Andre, who is a talented lawyer, 30 years old, and who will fill the same post at the Elysee palace that M. Paul Loubet fills—Secretary to his father. Mme. Fallieres does not disdain to accompany her excellent cook to the market now and then for M. Fallieres is a generous and discriminating eater, having a preference for heavy, nutritious dishes of southern France. The favorite wine containing a full share of sunshine, called Loupillon and is grown by M. Fallieres himself at his country place near Agen, where he was re-elected Senator a few days ago by an overwhelming majority. He is an appreciative musician, differing in this respect from M. Loubet who does not care at all for music and his favorite composer is Mozart. M. Fallieres seldom goes to the theatre, but is well versed in dramatic literature and it was he who first proposed that the cross of the Legion of Honor should be conferred on Mounet-Sully of the Comedie Francaise. M. Fallieres is a man of genial humor and is fond of a good anecdote. M. Fallieres is a strong advocate of a progressive income tax and proclaims the necessity of coalition with all the groups of the Parliamentary left; consequently among his adherents are Jaurès, Sembat and Hervé, the peace at any price Socialist leaders.

HUNTING A NEGRO.

HE HAD ASSAULTED AND MURDERED A NEW JERSEY LADY.

Moorestown, N. J., Jan. 22.—Scores of farmers and other citizens of this and neighboring towns are to-day scouring the country in search of the negro who yesterday assaulted and murdered Miss Florence W. Allison, in a barn on the Strawbridge estate. Wm. Smith, a negro, who was arrested last night on suspicion, is not believed to be the perpetrator of the crime. Smith is very dark, and Bessie Walker, the little girl who lived with Miss Allison, says the negro who came to the house yesterday was a mulatto. She was unable to identify Smith, but the authorities are holding him, pending a further investigation. Rewards of $500 each have been offered for the capture of the murderer by the authorities and Mrs. Edward Strawbridge, upon whose property Miss Allison lived.

DEAD BESIDE THE TRAIL.

Mounted Police Investigating the Fletting Case. Lloyminster, Jan. 22.—A case which is attracting the attention of the Mounted police down the line will probably be investigated by Coroner Rush, of Vegreville, to-day, at the request of Inspector Strickland. According to the story which has reached the authorities, John Fletting and a brother left Lloyminster one afternoon about a month ago with a team of horses to drive to their claims, a few miles south. When they left they were intoxicated and plentifully supplied with whiskey. A few hours afterwards the brother, still intoxicated, arrived at the home of some Galicians, and asked them to go out and look for his brother John, who, he said, had got lost on the road somewhere. The Galicians went out and found John Fletting lying alongside the trail about two miles from the house, dead. They brought the body to the house and next day it was buried without the formality of a Coroner's inquest. Owing to reports since circulated, the police are investigating.

BISHOP IN HOT WATER.

Wrote a Letter Expatiating on Japanese Social Immorality. Tokio, Jan. 22.—There is intense feeling against William Ady, the Anglican Bishop of South Tokyo. He wrote a letter last autumn to the London Times, expatiating on Japanese social immorality. His letter attracted wide attention, and has evoked some strong replies from Baron Hiro and former Ministers of the Interior, now a resident of England, and others in that country, and Baron Kaneko, former Minister of Justice, here.

The newspapers state that already they have created a strong sentiment in England that the Japanese are unworthy of being allies. Those who have replied to the letter stigmatize it as the act of a spy. Already the Bishop has received threatening letters, and fears of violence have induced his English and Japanese friends to form a special society for his protection. Fortunately, the Bishop is now away upon a mission to the Benin Islands.

ROOSEVELT'S HELP.

ANXIOUS TO SECURE PEACE FOR THE SUBJECTS OF TURKEY.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Prominent European statesmen, educators, publicists and citizens whose fame is world wide have joined in a petition to President Roosevelt to endeavor to bring about "the concert of the powers of Europe with the view of securing for the subjects of the Ottoman empire that condition of public peace and order of which the absence has already drawn down upon that empire so many disasters, menacing it with the catastrophe of its total annihilation." The appeal was presented to President Roosevelt yesterday by Jas. B. Reynolds, of New York. It was prepared by M. Berthelot, formerly Senator and Secretary of Foreign Affairs of France. The President has promised Mr. Reynolds to give it the most careful consideration.

CLUBBED AND ROBBED.

CRUEL TREATMENT OF JOHN DOE, OF BUFFALO, BY NEW YORKERS.

New York, Jan. 22.—John Doe, of Buffalo, is in a serious condition in a hospital here from an assault by two men whom he asked last night to advise him where to find a good lodging house. He says that the men asked him to come with them, which he did, riding in the subway from Broadway and 42nd street to the 149th street station in the Bronx. There he followed the men from the train and as soon as he left the tunnel he says his pretended friends robbed him of $50 in cash and his jewelry. They clubbed him over the head, breaking his jaw and leaving him unconscious.

TEXAS STEER IN CHICAGO.

Cowboys and Others Give it an Exciting Chase.

Chicago, Jan. 22.—A Texas steer created much excitement on the south side of the city this afternoon. It was the leading figure in a grand chase which commenced at the stockyards and continued through some of the leading residential streets, along Grand Boulevard, through Washington Park, and as far as the suburb of Grand Crossing, where it was finally captured after it had fallen from exhaustion, ten miles from the starting point. The pursuing party was made up of patrol wagons filled with policemen, a troop of cowboys and a small army of citizen volunteers that varied in number at different points in the pursuit from 300 to 600 persons.

NEWS IN BRIEF

CANADIAN.

Winnipeg hotelkeepers object to any exemption being granted to the new C. P. R. hotel. Mrs. Riel, mother of Louis Riel, who led the rebellion of 1885, is critically ill at Winnipeg. She is 86 years of age. Plans for the new county jail and house of refuge to be erected at Cobourg were filed at the prisons department in the parliament building yesterday. A bill is to be introduced in the Manitoba Legislature to provide for inspection by a Government official of all building and loan companies doing business in the Province. By the omission of the word "life" from a by-law the city of Montreal is unable to tax life insurance companies and has been ordered by the court to repay to the Royal Insurance Company $400. A conference has been arranged by the Ontario Government between the various interests in the hog-packing industry to try and settle the differences that have arisen in respect to the supply and prices of hogs. Mr. W. F. Taylor has been awarded $1,000 damages in an action against the Ottawa Electric Company. The plaintiff, who is a milkman, sued for $2,000 for injuries received in a collision at Sussex street. Sixty-nine employees of the C. P. R. stores department went on strike at Winnipeg to compel the company to employ men in the auditing department, which was closed for the purpose of being moved to Montreal. Alex. Cummings, 66 years of age, was arrested by Detectives Newton and Mackie in Toronto, last night. He is said to have been negotiating as a "go between" for the sale of $8,000 in counterfeit money to a city man for $1,000. It is well understood here that several Toronto capitalists, most of whom are connected with the Robert Simpson Company, are interested in a project to build a Montreal next summer a gigantic department store, to be devoted almost entirely to women's goods.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

Baron Von Richthof, Secretary of Foreign Affairs for Germany, is dead at Berlin. The rate of discount of the Bank of England remained unchanged to-day at 4 per cent. A despatch emanating from Rome is to the effect that Princess Ena of Baden, the fiancée of King Alfonso, has written Pope Pius, announcing her conversion to Catholicism. Keir Hardie, the labor M. P., in an interview yesterday, said American labor was hopelessly ignorant, and was kept under by capitalists, European workmen, he said, were better educated. Dr. Swan M. Burnett, a noted oculist, and the former husband of Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, the authoress, died suddenly to-day of heart failure. Three men were blown to pieces by an explosion of giant powder last night in the Opp mines, near Jacksonville, Ore. The cause of the explosion has not been determined. An account of the murder of Dr. Emil Klueber, formerly a prominent German physician of St. Louis, by Indians near his home at Topolohampo, Mexico, is contained in a letter written by Dr. Klueber's son-in-law to St. Louis friends. A meeting of asphalt contractors from various cities of the United States and Canada, held in New York, resulted in the formation of an association called the Independent Asphalt Association. An Alexandria (Egypt) despatch says that the Suez Canal Company has begun widening the canal to enable the American naval floating drydock Dewey, now being towed to the Philippines, to pass. Traffic will be stopped during the passage. Chicago went into mourning yesterday for Marshall Field. From the Board of Trade, most of the banks, and practically all of the big wholesale and retail stores, flags were flown at half mast, while the Field stores remained silent behind closed doors and drawn shades.

CHICAGO LABOR MEN.

THE FIRST MOVE PEACEFUL — NO TROUBLE IN BUILDING TRADES.

Chicago, Jan. 22.—The first move of the building trades unions in 1906 was for peace. The steam fitters yesterday joined their employers in arranging a friendly basis of wages and conditions during three years. The building trades union, it is said, will be influenced by the attitude assumed by the steam fitters. The carpenters are asking for an increase in wages, and the iron workers are seeking new conditions. Conciliation was exercised on both sides in the new agreement signed by the union and the Master Steam Fitters' Association. The men will receive slightly higher wages, but will submit to their employers' rules without change.

TWO YOUNG LIVES LOST.

Asleep in Bed When Exploding Lamp Fired the House.

Nelson, B. C., Jan. 22.—Fire in the residence of Henri Bourgeois at 815 last evening resulted in the death and burning of Bourgeois' two little boys, aged 15 and 4 months. The mother had stepped out across the road for a moment, leaving the children asleep in bed. Ten minutes later Alfred Julien, a boy boarding in the house, and asleep, was awakened by the flames and managed to escape and give the alarm. Mrs. Bourgeois rushed back to the house too late to save her children. The fire originated from the explosion of a kerosene lamp. The Bourgeois family came here from St. Celestin, Que., last July.

T
H
I
S
O
R
I
G
I
N
A L
D
O
C
U
M
E
N
T
I
S
I
N
V
E
R
Y
P
O
O
R
C
O
N
D
I
T
I
O
N