Beautiful, Charleston Lake undoubtdly is; but to many its chief charm has always been the excellent fishing it afforded, and the lessening of this charm may well be viewed with regret by all interested in the lake. It is time something was done. Steps should at once be taken to form tect and otherwise aid in restoring the fishing. It is claimed by one who knows that the absence of a fishway at the outlet accounts in large measure for the rapid depletion of the fish that has taken place in recent years. of the first duties of the association would be securing the construction of this pass for the fish, which are now able to leave the lake but not to return Some person interested in the lake should take the initiative in this matter

Messrs. Robert Wright & Co. of Brockville's Greatest Store" give partial evidence of their belief in the virtue of early closing in the following

We believe the public are sincerely n sympathy with any movement to give the clerks, who are shut up in the stores these sultry days, shorter hours. The afternoon is especially trying and for our part we are determined to shorten them up. Commencing Thursday, July 9th, we will close sharp at 5.30 p. m. on each day except Wed nesday and Saturday. On Wednesday we close sharp at 12.30, and Saturday we close sharp at 10 p. m. We are satisfied that you will help along the movement to make life easier for the "shut-ins," and will do your shopping by 5 p. m. Tell your friends we close at 5.30.
