"Good afternoon, Mrs Runaround, I am so glad to see you, walk right in and spend the afternoon with me. I was thinking of you to-day, and coming events cast their shadows before. How's baby and hubby, all well? I'm so glad to hear it. I was out shopping yesterday and I heard that they were unwell. Do you go shopping any Mrs Runaround? I do so like to go shopping and price goods. I suppose that the clerks get vexed with me, but I flatter them a little Speaking of shopping, have you and make it all right. ever seen B. G. Bishop's new store, No. 999, Main St., Wolfville ? I was in his place yesterday. He has just opened the most beautiful lot of Tea Sets, Vases, Fancy Goods, Crockery and Glass I ever saw-and so cheap; and such pretty Lamps, it is worth your while to see them. And a beautiful stock of Tinware! He sells a large Wash Boiler for $1.25, and a nice Coal Scuttle for 35 cents. His Tinware is dirt cheap, just think of a one-gallon Oil Can for 30 cents! I never heard the beat of it, and such an endless variety! My hubby says that he gets the best satisfaction in Paints and Hardware from Mr Bishop as he is bound to sell cheap and keep good stock only. Yes, we will go in and see his store. Ob, must you be going? Well, call again and bring baby with you. Good bye. Oh, yes, I shall go and see you soon. Good-bye, and come again. Oh my, yes, I guess I will. Good-bye! Good-bye!"
