

It is not considered likely that Mr. Mowat will bring on the Local Elections before the expiration of the term for which the members were elected.

In Goderich the vote of a man who had been dead several months was sworn to and polled in the Tory interest. Some of Sir John's followers stick at nothing.

Sir A. T. Galt has, it appears, decided to make another trial of the High Commissioner, the Government having met his views with regard to salary to some extent.

It is a significant fact that in Cumberland, where Sir Charles Tupper was returned by acclamation, his Liberal opponent, Mr. Pipes, has been returned at the head of the poll as member of the Local Legislature.

The Scottish American referring to the strikes in the United States, remarks that the heavy taxation on the necessities of life, and consequent difficulties experienced of making both ends meet, have doubtless tended much to raise a feeling of discontent.

Hon. Mr. Chapleau has resigned as Minister of Railways for Quebec, but retains the Premiership. Hon. Mr. Lynch has become Commissioner of Railways. It is anticipated that further changes will be made when Mr. Chapleau returns from Europe.

In the South Riding of Huron, where Mr. John McMillan, the Reform candidate, was elected by over 600 majority, it is understood a place will be found for Sir Richard Cartwright; it having been arranged when Mr. McMillan was nominated that in the event of either Mackenzie or Cartwright being defeated, he should resign.

It is said that Mr. Courcel, who was elected one of the members for Montreal by acclamation, secured the withdrawal of the Opposition candidate by a money payment. Whether this is a corrupt act within the meaning of the Election Act, or not it is morally wrong, and Mr. Courcel can truthfully be said to have bought his way into Parliament.

Mr. Ryan, late member for Montreal, has been appointed Collector of Customs at that port. That this appointment is simply the reward of political service and nothing more, the timing of it confesses. It is nothing more nor less than a continuance of the bad system of promoting servicable politicians over the heads of faithful and competent servants.

The revenue returns of the Dominion for eleven months of the fiscal year just ended show an increase over the total receipts for the previous fiscal year, and the complete returns for 1892 will probably show a total of $93,000,000. On the other hand, the expenditure has assumed alarming proportions, having been as great for the first eleven months of 1892 as for the previous fiscal year.

CONVOY WORLD.—There is the cackle about J. B. Plumb going up to North Wellington, captivizing all hearts, and pretty nearly captivizing the Riding too. Yes, yes. But they forget the taking away of Maryboro', with a small Conservative majority, (30,) to help Dr. Orton in the Centre Riding, and the yanking in, in its place, from Perth, of the Conservative township of Wallace, which gave the sweet singer a majority of 118, and so saved him from being beaten by nearly 200!

The recent in the vote of the North Wentworth election, demanded by Mr. McKee, the Conservative candidate, was completed on Friday, his Honor Judge Sinclair delivering a lengthy written judgment, giving reasons for the disposal of each of the 44 ballots under discussion. Mr. Bain's majority, given by the returning officer as 2, was by the judge, declared to be three, a gain of one vote. This makes Mr. Bain's majority 3. The official declaration will now stand: Bain, 1,295; McKee, 1,292.

DURING the recent election in South Waterloo, according to the Galt Reformer, an officious and zealous Tory deputy in Ayr so far forgot himself and the law which should have governed his duties, that he left his polling booth and went to vote in another ward, being absent about an hour. He was repeatedly warned by the scrutineer for Livingstone that this was a direct contravention of the law and rendered him liable to a fine of $200. But the impartial, faithful officer paid no attention to the protest.

SPEAKING of the election in Centre Wellington the Fergus News-Record says:—"The first striking feature is the largeness of the vote polled, it being greatly in excess of that at any previous election. And in East Garafraxa especially, an unusual degree of life and activity must have been inspired at the very last moment. No. 3 Pilkington was also worked to advantage by our Conservative friends, and made a response that is highly creditable to those who were entrusted with the field of that particular portion of the division of battle. The Metz and No. 5 divisions of West Garafraxa also did so exceedingly well for Dr. Orton as to be fairly entitled to special mention. Several other localities, as for instance Goldstone and Alma in Peel, likewise bear evidence of generous 'management', but not to such a conspicuous extent as the sections named."

AFFAIRS IN IRELAND.

The Repression Bill Passed.

THE CONDUCT OF THE OBSTRUCTIVES.

Suspension of O'Donnell.

LONDON, July 1.—The House of Commons continued in session on clause 17 of the Repression Bill throughout the night. At 7:30 this morning Sir William Harcourt said time equivalent to two working days had been consumed in the discussion of a clause of secondary importance, and it would be for the House and country to say whether means must not be adopted to end this state of things.

Mr. Parnell said the Home Rule members would appeal to their countrymen at home and abroad. He contended that no opposition could be more reasonably conducted against such an atrocious measure. At 9:30 Mr. Parnell, chairman, said there had been deliberately planned an obstruction to the business of the House, and named Biggar, Callan, Commis, Dillon, Healy, Leamy, McCarthy, Marum, Magee, T. P. O'Donnell, O'Donnell, Parnell, Power, Redmond, Sexton, and Sullivan.

Mr. Childers moved the suspension of the members named, who were suspended by a vote of 126 to 37, amid loud cheers from all parts of the House, including the Irish members.

The Parnellites pressed innumerable amendments in parliamentary shape and with pertinacious ingenuity. Finally Sir Stafford Northcote openly went to Mr. Gladstone's support. For several hours a succession of disorderly scenes took place during the reply of Irish members to the attacks from the Opposition benches.

The chairman named Byrne, Corbett, Magee, Leamy, A. O'Connor, O'Kelly O'Sullivan, and Shiel, and their suspension was moved by Mr. Gladstone.

On the chairman putting the motion for suspension, the named members walked out of the House, and the motion was agreed to without a division; but when the Speaker, according to rule, appeared to receive the report of the proceedings, a division was called for and the suspension confirmed by 128 to 7.

After the expulsion of the second group of Irish members all the chances up to the 30th were adopted without a division. Clause 30, which is the last of the bill, and provides that the Act shall continue in force until the expiration of three years next after the passing thereof, was adopted by 69 to 6.

The House adjourned at 8 p.m., having, with the exception of an interval of two hours, been in session continuously for 93 hours. When Sir Stafford Northcote went over to support the Government yesterday he made a long speech, reciting the trouble England had been compelled to undergo at the instance of a few rebellious and ambitious Irishmen, and referring to the insignificance of the Irish question in comparison with certain other questions that were being pressed upon England for immediate action, said the time had at last come for England to cease to be a debating and resort to decisive action. The division was called for and the suspension confirmed by 128 to 7.

Official statistics show that there are 1,580 Americans or Irish-Americans in Dublin without visible occupation. Mr. Dawson, M. P., has been re-elected Lord Mayor of Dublin.

The Tribune's London special says the circumstances of the Blake murder convince the Government that it is only one incident of the rapidly spreading organization, whose programme is murder for the sake of embittering Anglo-Irish relations. The proceedings in the House all the week point in the same direction. Parnell is no longer willing or able to induce his followers to prolong the truce. The final collapse of his negotiations with the Ministry was signalled by the announcement of a continuous sitting. The Irish members during the whole night deliberately resorted to every means of obstruction, including systematic obstruction. The language used was incredible in indecency and ferocity. This ended as they expected and desired, in their expulsion, to which the House reluctantly assented after a patient endurance of reiterated insults, in which the so-called moderate Irish members rivalled Healey in their violence. Mr. McCarthy tried to win round the brave of the Treasury Bench. He fully identified himself with the worst section of the Irish party. Dr. Playfair's conduct goes far to redeem his previous indecision. Before naming his obstructionists, he expressly declared that he took into account their conduct during the last three days. The whole Liberal party, a dozen guerrillas excepted, heartily sustain the Government in its present determination. Those knowing Ireland best agree in declaring that the conditions are far graver than the public yet suspect. The prolongation of this struggle over the Crimes Bill is pregnant with terrible dangers. Kavanagh's scheme for Irish land corporation has aroused the most violent hostility of the Parnellites; they regard it as the first efficient and skilful effort at landlord combination. Farms held by evicted tenants, which no individual tenant dare take, will be worked by the corporation, on a scale defying terrorism. This promises to checkmate by legal methods the illegal conspiracy of intimidation, which the League still steadily practices.

The Methodist congregation in Fergus has had plenty of changes of Ministers lately. The Rev. Mr. Waddell only remained one year, and new at the end of his first year the Rev. Mr. Bryers has gone to Acton. The Rev. Mr. Swann, the new pastor, was stationed here some 30 years ago; and his son, who is also a Minister, is this year stationed in Pilkington.

FANS.—We are doing the trade in fans this year at Day's bookstore, because our stock is the largest and our prices far the lowest. Day gives big value every time.

The Royal game of Archery at Day's bookstore. A choice new stock of bows and arrows and croquet, opened to-day at Day's bookstore.

GRAND CLEARING SALE.—The Lion has just received piles of new goods bought at a sacrifice, and together with the great reduction in the price of the stock on hand, will commence one of the greatest clearing sales ever held in Guelph.

GRAND MILINERY OPENING.—This season's stock of Millinery is much larger and more attractive than usual: comprising a splendid stock of French pattern bonnets and hats, in all the latest styles; feathers, flowers, silks, satins, ornaments, &c., &c. The show rooms are under the management of Miss Roche, whose long experience and good taste has contributed so much to the success of this establishment.

GRAND Exhibition of crockery, china, tea sets, glassware, cutlery, plated ware, toys, &c. I will on Saturday place for the inspection of the citizens of Guelph, the largest assortment of the above goods of my own importation that has ever been offered by the trade here. My already large crockery department will be increased to double its present size during the week. Please call and examine goods. John A. Cameron, importer, next door to Messrs. Hoag & Sons.

North Wellington Election.

Mr. Plumb, the defeated candidate for North Wellington, has demanded a recount of the ballots, which was begun to-day by Judge Drew at his house in Elora. We understand that Mr. Christopher Robinson and Mr. Jacobs are counsel for Mr. Plumb, and Mr. Thomas Hodgins and Mr. D. Guthrie for Mr. McMullen. The recount will probably occupy two days, as there were thirty-nine polling places. The result will be waited for with great anxiety not only by the electors in North Wellington, but by the people generally. We have little fear but that it will turn out favourably for Mr. McMullen, who fought a hard battle, and won a gallant victory over his opponent.

M. HILTON WILLIAMS, M. D.

Over 20,000 cases successfully treated during the last 15 years. From Rev. R. P. Austin, A. M., B. D., Principal Alma Mater College, St. Thomas, Ont.: "I have been a patient of the Ontario Pulmonary Institute for several years, and have been cured of my consumption. My strength has increased, my cough has ceased, and I feel as well as ever. I feel very much benefited by your treatment. You are at perfect liberty to use these state-ments as you see fit." Very sincerely yours, R. P. AUSTIN, Principal Alma Mater College, St. Thomas, Ont.

The above letter was written after Prof. Austin had used the remedies but one month. It is possible, by all means visit the office personally for a consultation and examination. Large quantities of medicine are sold at the Institute, write for "List of Questions" and "Medical Advice." Address: ONTARIO PULMONARY INSTITUTE, 135 Church Street, Toronto, Ontario.

It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effective, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use thin hair is thickened, and baldness often though not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brassy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The Vigor cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; and, by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair The Vigor is incomparable. It is colorless, contains no other oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.
