—It was long ago discovered that a sufficient supply of iron in the blood was one of the indications of good health, and vice versa, to obtain raw iron would be to obtain raw health.

Commissioners' Court.

(Before Justice Cahill.)
The celebrated Tiltle ditch case came to an end on 31st December, when Justice Cahill delivered judgment in favor of the plaintiff, Silas Estabrooks, for $5 and costs. The suit, it will be remembered, was brought against two servants of the Commissioners of Sewers, viz: Gilbert Wheaton and Johnston Paterson, who commenced opening a ditch on plaintiff's land. They justified their act as being done under order of the Commissioners.
This brought up the question as to the regularity of the proceedings of the Commissioners and their jurisdiction. It appeared in evidence that the Commissioners met the properly convened at a certain district and they agreed that the Commissions should open the ditch in question. Under the direction of the Board, one of the Commissioners undertook the work. The evidence showed that the requisition which the order purported to have been made was not put in writing until after the work commenced, and that the work done extended beyond the terms of the requisition. A great deal of interest has been manifested in listening to the proceedings. It was in trial, and the judgment will likely be appealed from.

—Clifford Maxwell vs. A. & W.
Ogden, an action of account, was taken on the 4th, involving nearly $500 of disputed money. It will be taken up on Monday next. Mr.
Kinneer for plaintiff; Mr. Powell for defendant.

—The Sackville Temperance League is about recommending proceedings against violators of the law.

—On 26th ult., Justice Cahill fined Anson Outhouse for maliciously shooting a dog belonging to Dr.
Moore. The Justice awarded $20 to the Doctor for damage done him and $100 for the dog, and $1 and costs $12, or three months in jail.
