Editorial Notes.

Silver has fallen to the lowest point recorded in history and according to market reports as published among the news items the silver in an American dollar is only worth 42 cents.

Serious reports come from various parts of Alaska in reference to the slight probability of parties being able to reach the Klondike reaching near there before winter sets in. Some are wisely disposing of their outfit and returning to Seattle, Wash., or Victoria, B. C., where they will remain until spring and then make a fresh start.

Affairs are reported in no bad a shape that they could not be worse. Two thousand people are at Dyea, Alaska, camping along the rocky shore with but practically few horses or pack animals to enable them to get over the Cliffcut pass to the lakes, and what will become of those without proper food and wearing apparel to stand the rigors of an Arctic winter is not difficult to imagine.

The New York World correspondent, writing from Skagway, Alaska, says—A line of supplies four miles long is strung over the trail and the beach is crowded with merchandise. The crowd here numbers about 700.

The trail is not yet open beyond White Pass, but it soon will be. The miners must cut it or remain where they are.

Two hundred volunteers were called for today to go to work on the trail. Nearly every one responded.

Notions have been posted that 25 cents per pound for pack animals is being charged each passenger landing on the beach or wharf, and 200 per 100 pounds is demanded for packing supplies over the trail by wagon and pack train.

About 500 horses and several wagons are now here, small fortunes will be made with the wagons.

Many miners object to paying the landing fee on an open, free beach of a free ocean, and if the miners attempt to enforce it there may be trouble.

It is difficult to see how the horses are going to be fed, so hay and grain are scarce.

They will make food for dogs and Indian packers if the miners are going to enforce it there may be trouble.

Those who contemplate a visit to the Klondike regions had better rest content where they are until next spring, when there will be much better prospect of reaching the diggings safely without a danger of being frozen or starved to death. By that time the facilities for getting there will be greatly improved and much less danger of starvation.

Supernaturalism and Dismissals.

The work of removing office holders appointed by the former Government and appointing thereto newly Grits is being proceeded with. In some cases it appears to be thought advisable to supersede rather than dismiss, thus largely increasing the cost to the country. In Moncton, Mr. T. V. Cook, general superintendent of the C. R., has been superseded with an allowance of $600 per year. Mr. C. R. Palmer has been appointed to the office at a salary of $1600. There is no claim that Mr. Cook has outlived his usefulness as he has always been a competent and efficient officer.

Report says that W. C. Milner, Esq., Collector of Customs at Sackville, has had a hungry Grit appointed over his shoulders to the office without any notice of his dismissal being given him. An investigation made by one of the headmen appointed to find some evidence of offensive political partisanship failed in Mr. Milner's case, but the office was warranted for a supporter of the Government, and so the United States principal of "to the victors belong the spoils" an efficient officer has been removed to make a place for a political partisan.

The Sackville Post gives the following statement of Mr. Milner:—

"W. C. Milner when seen yesterday by a Post representative said he had not received any intimation from the department as to his dismissal. He stated the reports took him very much by surprise, as he had accepted in good faith the investigation made by Commissioner McAlpine, and considered when Mr. McAlpine had declared on many occasions that the charges of offensive partisanship had not been sustained, and that he had reported so to the government would not override his report; otherwise he would not have appeared in Commissioner McAlpine's court. He knew there had been loud protests against any investigation by those who expected to profit by any dismissal they could force; they wanted offices and investigations, but he believed the government was honest in its declarations and would protect the right of those working under the civil service act. He said he believed he was the first civil servant belonging to Westmorland that had been dismissed since Confederation.

"He was gratified by the fact that not one of the business men of Sackville having business relations with the customs, on either side of politics, had made any complaints, or had shown themselves other than satisfied with his administration of the office."

The Moncton Transcript says to be dissatisfied with some of the appointments made in July from the following list of names respecting this and other appointments.

"The Amherst Press has nothing worse to say of Mr. Amherst's appointments than the collector of customs at Sackville that his claim to the office lies in the fact that he has always been an unremitting Grit. Judging from some of the appointments made during the last year the recognition of this claim would seem to be somewhat of a novelty."

Presbytery of Miramichi.

At Harcourt and within the Presbyterian Church there on the 9th day of August 1897, which time and place the Presbytery met and was constituted.

Rev. Joseph McColly was called to the chair. The ministers present with him were Rev. T. G. Johnston, Dr. McKay, Rev. Wm. Aitken, Rev. J. D. Murray, and Rev. J. K. McClure and Mr. Alex. Munnell, elder.

The first business was the proposed re-organizing of stations in Kent County. Commissioners had been appointed by the several sections as follows:

- 1. Harcourt—James Brown, Thomas Ingram and Andrew Dunn.
2. Mill Branch—Jas. Irving, Joseph Little, John Dunn and David Carstairs.
3. Bass River—Robert Murphy, Jos. Miller and Duncan Campbell.
4. Nicholas River—Alex. Munnell, Murray and Doherty.

S. Kingston and Richibouctou—James Lawson, John P. Bell and Thomas C. Girvan.

These commissioners were all present except Messrs. Doherty and Lawson. They jointly addressed the Presbytery, reporting the views of the several sections in reference to the proposed plan of re-organization. After prolonged conference and deliberation the following motion proposed by Rev. J. D. Murray and seconded by Rev. J. K. McClure was adopted unanimously:

That having heard the commissioners, and carefully considered the representations they have made, the Presbytery allow the several congregations to remain as they now are, that is, Kingston and Richibouctou; Bass River and West Branch; and the understanding that no supplementary grant be given them, and Harcourt and Mill Branch with such supplement as may from time to time be obtained.

Rev. Wm. Aitken submitted a petition from Kingston and Richibouctou praying for moderation in a call. Mr. Aitken was appointed moderator in a call at Kingston on Tuesday, the 31st August, at 11 a. m.

Rev. J. K. McClure was appointed interim Moderator of the session at Bass River, Ac.

A report of committee appointed to visit Black River was submitted by Rev. J. K. McClure. He reports little prospect of labor in the contributions of late years. The report was received and the thanks of the Presbytery tendered to the committee.

Mr. McColly left the chair, which was taken by Mr. McClure and submitted the report of committee appointed to visit Tabernacle. An increase in local support was reported, and the committee thanked for their efforts.

A letter from Rev. W. Hannon was read, intimating that he had attended to the duty of declaring Black River and Nicholas River congregations vacant.

Rev. Joseph McColly submitted his resignation of the pastoral charge of St. Andrew's church, Chatham, and asked that the usual steps be taken to terminate the pastoral relation. The Presbytery regarded this step with very great regret, ordering the resignation to be laid upon the table till next meeting, and instructed Rev. Wm. Aitken to exchange with Mr. McColly, on the second Sabbath of September, and ask the congregation of St. Andrew's church to appear for the next meeting, which is already appointed to be held in St. Andrew's Hall, Chatham, on the last Tuesday of September, at ten o'clock (standard time).

A very touching expression of sympathy with Dr. McKay was adopted in the following terms:—The members of this Presbytery of Miramichi, since last meeting, have learned of the great loss and bereavement, which has come to our brother, the Rev. Dr. McKay, in the removal of his beloved wife by the hand of death. We take this opportunity, therefore, to express to him our sincere sympathy and condolence. Having been spared together so long and so happily, and having become all the more tenderly attached to one another by the prolonged illness of Mrs. McKay, when the shock of bereavement came, though not unexpected, it was none the less severe to her loving and devoted husband and family. For the many excellent qualities of heart and mind possessed by the deceased, and the lovely life she lived, and the Christian example she set to her family and friends, and for the comfort of hope in her departure enjoyed by the blessed ones, we return thanks to God.

We pray that our brother and his family may be sustained and comforted in this time of their trial and sorrow, and enabled so to live that when the light of heaven shall be opened upon the relief of his soul, he may be able to testify to the power of the Father's house on high.

When this resolution was read by Mr. Johnston and touching support by all the brethren, Dr. McKay was too much moved to make an extended reply. He simply thanked his brethren for their kindly sympathy and asked to be excused. Presbytery then adjourned to meet as provided for above, and the meeting was closed with the Benediction.

Appointments.

The vacancies in the post offices of Chatham and Newcastle have at last been filled by the appointment of Mr. W. Wilson in Chatham and Mr. W. P. Harriman in Newcastle. Mr. Harriman was sworn in on Monday, and was placed in charge of the post office on Tuesday, by W. C. Wattaker, Esq., Assistant Post Office Inspector, who arrived from St. John yesterday afternoon.

The people of this town have not suffered from the delay in filling the office of Postmaster because very efficient officers from St. John have attended to the duties since the removal of the former postmaster.

Mr. A. W. Reid, of St. John was the first officer sent here and since about the middle of December last the acting Postmaster has been Mr. A. E. Wilson, and both these gentlemen's courteous and obliging services have been appreciated by the people. Miss Beattie Robertson has been acting as assistant Postmaster for more than a year, and shares with them the good will of the inhabitants.

Mr. Harriman is well known in town and many old friends are glad to see him appointed to the important office, one which all think he is well qualified to fill. We join with many others in congratulating him on his appointment.

Base Ball.

The Red, White and Blue of Newcastle, Capt. Quinn, suffered their first defeat of the season at the hands of Capt. Jack Pallen's team of Chatham, on Wednesday last. The game did not get on very well, but the game was exceedingly close.

Newcastle's defeat resulted from their inability to bunt hits and on the costly errors of Maloney and Morley in the field. In pitching Landon had a shade the better of it, but had Capt. Quinn showed better judgment in putting "Toi Murphy" in the box a few innings earlier the score might have been different.

The batting of Ferguson, Quinn and Dalton, and beautiful running catches by "Trips" and Quinn were the features of Newcastle's play.

For Chatham, Cassidy excelled at the bat, sending the ball over the bank for several home runs. Pallen's pitching and the catching of Hayes were the features of their work. The teams lined up and fought in the following order:—

Newcastle: Quinn, 1st B. Quan, 1st B. Russell, S. S. Stutcher, 1st B. Pullen, P. C. F. Dikens, C. F. Murphy, 2nd B. and P. McKewen, I. F. Maloney, S. S. Ahern, R. F. Morley, R. F. Hayes, C. Dalton, T. F. McCabe, C. F.

Score by N. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9. Innings: C. 0 1 2 3 2 1 3 1—14.

Klondike Schemes.

NEW YORK, August 10.—The Klondike gold excitement has affected several of the leading merchants in Sixth avenue, and they have decided to send a party of experienced gold miners to look over the ground. The leader among these merchants is Samuel Adams of the firm of Adams & Co. Associated with him is A. J. Cunniff and other well known business men. Mr. Adams spent many years in Leadville, Col., where he owned and managed some of the best mines in the States, among them being the property of the Adams Mining Co., which paid out over $600,000 in dividends. When the value of silver depreciated to such an extent that it was no longer profitable to mine it, Mr. Adams, with many other persons engaged in mining, abandoned Leadville. Among his employees who remained were the late Capt. Robert W. Pitman, who served as a domestic in the household of Mr. Pitman of the water works department, City Hall, for many years, and was treated as one of the family. For several years he resided at the Adams station, and four weeks ago went to the convent of the Providence, St. Catherine street, for a rest and to receive medical treatment. She was suffering from a nervous ailment. The physician ascertained that she needed a change of scene, she decided to visit her family at Bonaventure island. Mr. Pitman saw her off on the train from the Bonaventure station, and secured in this field to fall among the rocks. He was carrying a bag of tools, and a hammer and a pickaxe. Drowned at Tide Head.

STRANGE WOMEN FOUND IN SALMON NETS.

This morning about ten o'clock Mr. Alexander Dunn, of Chatham, found the body of a woman in his salmon net.

Dr. Venner was telegraphed for and soon appeared on the scene. The body was covered above and was unrecognizable. The remains proved to be the body of a woman about 40 years of age, medium height, dark brown hair, black dress, black cloth cap trimmed with two rows of bonnet and white necktie. The body was found to contain a Catholic Mass (English) with fly-leaf torn out, a baggage check Montreal to Campbell, a pair of silk gloves and some biscuits. Deceased apparently had no money. Nobody could identify the body and it is supposed she is a stranger in these parts. Some of the residents of Tide Head claim to have seen a woman answering this description walking up the road yesterday afternoon and Mrs. Alex. Leffroy says she saw her go down to the river twice and the second time she sent to find what she wanted but she was not seen again.

This was a short distance above where the body was found. These movements would almost indicate a case of suicide more especially on account of the fly leaf of the book being torn out only a couple of letters of the name showing. A square tin trunk in the baggage room here bears the same number as that found in the pocket but contents have not yet been examined.

(Later.)

On examination of the trunk letters were found addressed to Miss Jane Hennessy which name corresponds to the name of a name found in the prayer book.—Editorial Note.

The Montreal Star contains the following particulars concerning Miss Jane Hennessy, a young woman who was drowned at Tide Head, five miles above Campbellton, N. B., as reported in Saturday's News.

"Miss Jane Hennessy, who left Montreal on Thursday week for her home at Kingston, was seen by Mr. J. Lawrence, served as a domestic in the household of Mr. Pitman of the water works department, City Hall, for many years, and was treated as one of the family. For several years he resided at the Adams station, and four weeks ago went to the convent of the Providence, St. Catherine street, for a rest and to receive medical treatment.
