

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try GrandMother's old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair which has faded, streaked or grayed. Years ago the only way to get this mixture to make it at home, which is a most troublesome, awkward, by making any drug store for "Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, for about 60 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it, and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

WOULD RETIRE THEM AT FIFTY OR SIXTY YEARS

TAWA, Feb. 25.—For the past days a rumor has been travelling through the civic service that the Service Commission is working a plan, which, when completed will provide that all women over the age of sixty in the service shall automatically be retired.

Moreover, it is stated that the plan proposes that for the future all civil servants shall automatically be retired when they reach this age.

SIX MILLION JEWS ARE FACING DEATH

Starvation and Disease Cause Indescribable Suffering in Eastern Europe.

The hardships of this winter will mean death to thousands of Jews in Poland, unless outside aid intervenes at once according to Lieutenant Shelton Wright of the American Red Cross Commission to Poland, recently returned to the United States after months of relief work in eastern Europe.

He painted a vivid picture of this half-starved people, clad in rags, who are now creeping back toward their devastated homes after months of pitiful wandering, and dying of starvation and typhus along the roads, as they go.

Outside starvation, numerous diseases, attributed to malnutrition and typhus have killed men and women and children like flies," he said. "I remember a family trying to live under an over-turned wagon by the roadside. The mother was dead under a tree a few yards away—she had been dead for days. The father was stretched upon the ground dying of typhus. He died that day. Under the wagon were two little children, both under five, sick with typhus. An older child sat stupidly beside them—a girl driven out of her mind."

Many of the people are driven to making "bread" out of leaves and bark, and "soup" out of grass and water, Lieutenant Wright reported. There was unspeakable joy among them when the American ships, loaded with relief supplies purchased with the funds raised by the American Jewish Relief Committee and other American Jewish agencies, and American and Canadian Red Cross supplies were unloaded at Danzig and other ports.

In spite of the fact that the American Jewish Relief Committee is spending almost $2,000,000 a month now on their relief work in Poland, and that the Red Cross is doing its work on so vast a scale, hundreds of thousands of Jews and Poles will die during the winter unless more aid comes.

"Every box-car full of refugees returning to their homes has in it those who die along the way, and those who have contracted typhus," Lieutenant Wright said. "The people try to avoid disease by keeping clean, but it is impossible to do so, under existing conditions. Even our nurses and doctors fall ill of typhus, a disease caused by filth and lice."

The Red Cross and the American Jewish Relief agencies are doing their utmost to keep both the Jews and the Gentiles in these stricken lands alive. Six million Jews in eastern Europe face death unless immediate shipments of food, clothing, and bedding from Canada and the United States reach them before the cold weather sets in.

An appeal for funds is to be made in Ontario and a generous response from this district is confidently expected.

MOBS OF CHILDREN CRAVING FOR BREAD

Gaze Into Bakeshop Windows for Hours at a Time, Hoping for Something to Eat.

"The saddest thing in all Eastern Europe at the present moment—worse than all the other instances of starvation and even of death and disease on every hand—are the mobs of one sees outside of the few bakeries that are able to keep going in Warsaw," Sholom Asch, the famous Yiddish playwright and poet reported to the American Jewish Relief Committee upon his return from Eastern Europe, where he went as a commissioner of the Joint Distribution Committee of American Funds for Jewish Sufferers from the War.

"In the bakeries windows are few loaves of bread, and sometimes cakes, that are sold at a simply prohibitive price," he explained, "and even if these were as cheap as in Canada and the United States, their taste would still be unknown to the hungry Jewish children, who live on the cup of soup a day they get from American Jewish relief agencies. But the youngsters tantalize themselves with the sight of food, when they cannot get the taste of it."

"They press up to the window, and at first merely stare respectfully at the bread, an uncanny little crew of gaunt small folks with old faces and suffering unchildish eyes. Perhaps it is raining, or the wind blowing coldly through the tatters that they wear, that little barefoot army, but they huddle together for warmth, and do not stir. The sight of the bread has fascinated them, it is so rarely seen."

DESTITUTION IN EUROPE TERRIBLE

Long Processions of Starving, Ill-Clad Children Seen Daily on the Streets.

Long processions of little Jewish children in Eastern Europe, bearing their tin cups in their hands, daily walk from their villages to the nearest town in which there is a Jewish relief station, according to relief workers in these stricken lands, sometimes journeying five or six miles in order to get the cup of soup with a piece of hardtack, or the mass of milk which is often their sole food of the day.

Those tin-cup processions emphasize, as nothing else could do, the terrible destitution of the Jews in Eastern Europe at present. The children in them are barefoot, almost without exception. Reports received by the Canadian Jewish War Relief Committee say that both boys and girls are wrapped in burlap, or dressed in clothing made from the sacks in which the relief supplies have come, or in the rags which they have worn during the five years of the war, their gaunt little bodies showing through the tatters. They do not walk as children usually do, without effort or restraint, but drag themselves along wearily, and hopelessly, like fired little ghosts condemned to move in hungry processions throughout eternity.

Arrived at the relief station, the children are so tired and so weak that they sit down upon the pavement to await their turn in line. On the faces of every one of them there is an expression of unchildlike anxiety. It has to do with the only really vital question in the world to them—whether or not their soup and milk will hold out, until their turn comes. Every day some of them have to be turned away without food, since their numbers are so great that the funds at present on hand are not always sufficient to care for them all.

MILLION CHILDREN ARE CLAD IN RAGS

Their Wasted Bodies Show Thru Tatters, Result of Starvation and Misery.

The art of making two flowers bloom where only one bloomed before isn't half so hard as that of making two garments exist where only one existed before; yet even this can be accomplished, according to reports recently received by the Canadian Jewish War Relief Committee from relief workers abroad.

Cloth of any kind, either cotton or wool, is particularly valuable to obtain in Eastern Europe, except at prohibitive prices. A round million little Jewish children in these unhappy lands are clad in the rags that they have worn all through the war, their wasted little bodies showing through great tatters. Some of these children are still sleeping on the streets, since there are at present neither orphanages nor funds for all.

Miss Harriet B. Lowenstein, of New York, sent to Europe as a commissioner of the Joint Distribution Committee of American Funds for Jewish War Sufferers, was able to purchase more than a carload of pajamas from the salvage department of the American army in France. These were sent to Eastern Europe, and in the workrooms opened there were made over into clothing for children.

Each pair of pajamas made at least two Russian blouse suits for little boys it was reported. The larger pieces left over in the cutting were used for the cloths that the children of Eastern Europe bind around their feet in lieu of shoes.

MILLION PAIRS OF SHOES ARE NEEDED

Destitute Jewish Children of Eastern Europe Use Rags to Protect Feet From the Cold.

A million pairs of shoes are needed by the destitute Jewish children of Eastern Europe to-day, according to reports received by the Canadian Jewish Relief Committee from relief workers abroad.

At least that many of the helpless and hungry Jewish youngsters of Eastern Europe are absolutely without footwear of any kind, their relief agents say. Thousands of others have rags sewn around their feet in lieu of shoes.

Several carloads of shoes that formerly belonged to Allied soldiers in France were purchased there by the Joint Distribution Committee of Funds for Jewish Sufferers from the War, for the Jewish women of Eastern Europe. But it was impossible to buy the shoes in sizes that could be worn by the children, and all others sold in Europe are at a prohibitive price. So a million youngsters are barefoot during the hard winter of Eastern Europe.

There is a great lack of every conceivable kind of clothing, as well as shoes. In Serbia, a common child's costume just now consists of two sacks, with holes cut through for the head and feet. In Poland, four sacks and sugar sacks sent with supplies to the destitute Jews by Jewish relief agencies are all being made over into clothing, and even small salt sacks are pieced together, and used for this purpose.

What God hath Wrought

IN 1865 there stood alone on Mile End Waste, London, a young man fired by the Spirit of God to make war on sin.

MILE End Waste was then one of the toughest places in London. Policemen patrolled it rarely, and then only in pairs.

HIS audience more than jered—they were downright abusive—but the young man persisted, and generally attracted a few souls to his standard.

THE man is now dead—but today his example is zealously fostered by thousands of Officers and Soldiers of the Salvation Army in sixty-six countries throughout the world, speaking forty different languages.

SAYS HE BROKE WITH BOLO

Former Premier of France Says He Thought Bolo Innocent.

PARIS, Feb. 25.—The examination of former Premier Joseph Caillaux, on trial before the Senate, sitting as a high court, on the charge of having had treasonable dealings with the Germans, and conspiring to bring about a dishonorable peace was resumed today. The questions dealt with the relations of H. Caillaux with Bolo Pasha, executed at Vincennes in April, 1918, after being convicted of treason, and Pierre Lenoir, executed in October, 1919, on being found guilty of having held intelligence with the enemy.

M. Caillaux explained that he thought Bolo Pasha, innocent until certain telegrams from the U.S. were published. Then, he testified, he broke off all relations with Bolo.

Great Britain Took Initiative in the Sending Ships to Golden Horn

PARIS, Feb. 25.—Great Britain took the initiative in sending a fleet to Constantinople, says a London despatch to the Petit Parisien, quoting Premier Millerand, who is said to have added there were other allied warships in the Golden Horn.

PILFERING ON RAILWAYS

In view of the considerable losses incurred through pilfering and careless handling of goods in transit, losses which amount in a year to close on three million dollars, the Canadian Railways have recently been conducting an active campaign against such robberies, not only in their own interests but also to protect the merchants and shippers who naturally suffer great inconvenience even though the losses may be made good. The loss of portions of a shipment frequently renders the balance of a shipment useless or depreciates its value, and affects the business of the merchant. As a result of this campaign, the C.P.R. for instance, have recently brought into court and secured convictions against several offenders. Thus at Ottawa, Ambrose Milks, a teamster of a transport Co. was sentenced to twelve months' imprisonment for breaking into a freight car and stealing a case of gin, while at McAdam Junction three men were condemned to five years penitentiary, two years penitentiary and four years reformatory, respectively, for a series of thefts from freight cars involving many consignments of considerable value.

The subject of pilfering on railways has been taken up in England by the National Union of Railwaymen, which has recently circularized its branches, pointing out the moral obligation that devolves upon them to check the practice and help to remove the stigma which threatens their prestige. The branches have responded very favourably to this appeal, with beneficial results.

IVENS IS FOUND GUILTY

WINNIPEG, Feb. 25.—William Ivens, one of the seven accused strike leaders, was found guilty by the full court of King's Bench on a charge of contempt of court and was bound over to keep the peace for three months on $2,000 security yesterday. Chief Justice Mathers in handing down the decision said that the accused had been bound over to keep the peace so as not to hamper the defence in the trial of the strike leaders on charges of seditious conspiracy.

Farm and Country Life in Canada

FARMING is a basic industry in Canada. From the first days of its publication, The Globe has always strongly advocated the development of scientific agriculture.

When the breeding of pure-bred stock in Canada was first deemed necessary, The Globe, by example and precept, showed what could be done.

The late George Brown was a leader in experiment. At Bow Park Farm, near Brantford, he bred from imported cattle so as to place pure-bred stock at the disposal of his neighbors.

From those days to the present, the furthering of the interests of the Farm and Country Life of Canada has been an important feature of The Globe.

The Weekly Farm Department has always been a source of inspiration to the farmers to improve their knowledge of agriculture.

The Globe believes that one of the best ways of teaching a man is to show him what his neighbor is doing. This is the policy The Globe adopts in its Farm Department. Two members of The Globe staff devote their whole time to the collection of material for this Department and in so doing spend several days each week in the country. They visit good farms all over Ontario and attend Fairs and Conventions. They report all developments in rural life as reflected in these gatherings as well as in the personal experience of successful farmers. Through its "Farm and Country Life" Section, The Globe has identified itself with every movement calculated to improve the conditions under which farmers and their families do their daily work.

This is the service thousands of Farmers in Ontario and elsewhere receive and appreciate, and one of the reasons why many thousands of them read The Globe.

But that is not all. Even competition, and the continued fluctuation of prices make it necessary for the farmer and his family to keep in touch with current produce and other commodity prices even from day to day.

The Globe has a well-merited reputation for accuracy, because in nothing is it more dependable than in its market reports. All prices quoted in The Globe are verified by the highest authorities SIX TIMES EVERY WEEK.

But besides all this, The Globe is a Great Family Newspaper. It is as much a necessity and convenience in the Farm Home as anywhere else. The coming of the daily paper to the Farm Home ranks in importance with the rural mail delivery, the telephone, electricity and the good road.

It broadens the outlook of those who live on the farm. It keeps them informed on current events the world over. Not only does The Globe do this, but it serves the agriculturists of Canada in a peculiar and appropriate way.

The service The Globe has already rendered three generations of Farm Life is a guarantee of what it will do in the days to come.

This is why The Globe should have a place in every Farm Home in Ontario.
