MUSICAL—The people of Gibson are very much pleased with the singing given in the Methodist church under the leadership of Mr. Perkins. Last Sunday evening the quartette, "God is a Spirit," was beautifully rendered by Miss Perkins, W. Adams, Jas. McAdam, and T. M. Grevell; and on the previous Sunday, the anthem, "Rest in the Lord," was well sung, the solo being taken by Mrs. Perkins.

MR. C. G. HILDRETH, Secretary of the Holy Manufacturing Co., of Lockport, N. Y., has been in town for a few days, in the interest of the above company. Although the Holy system of water works is used in many cities of the United States, it has been but recently that Canadian cities have awakened to the fact of this system being equal to any and superior to most systems in every respect. Mr. Hildreth feels confident that, as a start has been made, the introduction of this system in many cities of the Dominion will rapidly take place.

THE LATE W. H. FRIEL—William H. Friel, one of our most widely known citizens, died on Saturday, a little after noon. The deceased was about 48 years of age. He was the son of the late James Friel. Mr. W. H. Friel was for many years Deputy Sheriff of York County. His health failed him some time ago. He has been practically confined to his house ever since last January, only having been out twice since that time.

AN EXPLANATION WANTED—The Moncton Times says that "Hon. Mr. Hanington is in town to day." Now as the O. T. A. is supposed to be in force in Moncton we can understand how any thirty soul might feel to dry there; but this will hardly apply to our obnoxious premier who, with all his faults, is a square temperance man. We hope the Times will tell us when and where Mr. H. got wet. A little drying won't hurt him.

THE OLD PLAYHOUSE, referred to in Mr. Creed's interesting paper, used to stand just on the upper side of Mr. Bliss's residence. The building was erected by Mr. Ackerman for a store, hotel and public hall, and was at one time used as a barracks. It was subsequently pulled down and the cottage on Sanbury Street, next the engine house, in part erected from the materials. The cottage in question now belongs to Mr. Ackerman's grandson, H. M. Stevens of Somerville, C. C.

RATHER THIN—An unsigned letter, addressed on the envelope to the Herald, but on the inside to the "capital," dated at New York and bearing the New York postmark, was received at this office on Saturday. The letter is clearly the production of a person accustomed to writing, but has been copied by some one in a cramped hand, and the words are misspelled. The style of composition betrays the authorship. It is an appeal to the public against certain witnesses in the Lee case. We shall not publish it.

A SENSATION—A story comes from Woodstock to the effect that a railroad employe there, suspecting his wife's improper relations with a fellow employe, informed the partner of his joys and sorrows that he was going west for a few days. Instead of so doing, he hid himself in a room commanding a view by a stove-pipe hole of his wife's bedroom. After waiting two days and a night without anything to eat, he discovered his wife and the suspected party, who is a married man, in flagrant delicto. Calling a witness, he exposed the guilty pair.

PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION OF PROF. FOSTER—The preliminary examination of Prof. Foster M. P. for Kings, which has been conducted before G. B. Seelye Esq., was concluded Tuesday evening. As commissioners, Messrs. C. W. Weldon, G. Gilbert and J. R. Armstrong appeared for the petitioners, and Messrs. F. C. Barker, W. H. Tuck and A. C. Fairweather for Mr. Foster. The case occupied two days and it is difficult to tell how much longer it would have taken, had Prof. Foster's counsel cross-examined him. The expenses to which the Professor was placed during the campaign amounted to $161.30.

MARRIAGE—Another of those pleasant events which we record almost daily and always with pleasure, took place in St. Andrew's Church, St. John, early on Tuesday morning, when Mr. Albert Edgcombe, of this city, was married to Miss Minnie Logan, daughter of Mr. William Logan, of St. John. The groom was assisted by Mr. Fred Edgcombe, brother, and the bride by her sister, Miss Annie Logan. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Love. The attendance of friends of the young couple was very large. Mr. and Mrs. Edgcombe, after receiving the congratulations of their friends, were driven to the St. John & Maine depot, where they took passage on the morning express for the United States.

PREVIEW—The Roman Catholics of Ononecto held a picnic at Ononecto Island Tuesday. The Fredericton Brass Band, was present.

The Methodist Sunday School picnic will be held at Mr. Stephen Glazier's, on a day shortly to be announced. A capital programme will be prepared.

The picnic of a number of the colored folks of this city was held Tuesday, the picnicers going down in a special car, about ten miles. The day passed off pleasantly, but as the Scotts were not strictly enclosed, a number of the party became a little too glib, and a lively discussion took place on nearing the station which ended in blows. During the excitement, one of the women fainted, and had to be taken home in a cab. Had it not been for this disturbance, the affair would have passed off pleasantly throughout.

DIED IN THE LOCKUP—Yesterday afternoon Daniel Donoho, a truckman, was driving along near the officers square, he was noticed to suddenly fall to the ground. He was placed in the square and while there took a fit from which he soon recovered. The police arrested him for being drunk and lodged him in the lockup. At 11.30 there did not appear to be anything wrong with deceased, but at 1.30 a. m., when the lockup was again visited, he was found dead. A coroner's jury was summoned and after viewing his remains ordered the body to be sent home. It is supposed he was poisoned.

THE FAIR WEST—We have before us a copy of the Port McLeod Gazette published away out West. It is not quite half as big as the Herald, and published every alternate week at $3.00 per year. We note the arrival of Major Dowling and 112 men. The Major who is our ex-elderman, is said to be "looking hale and hearty after his trip to Canada." The number before us is dated July 20th. Its latest foreign dates are up to June 30, just a month old. We observe in an advertisement of a Rockie, that "the tables are laid out in the latest Western style (Eastern style being played out)." It is a liberal collection of plants, etc., and has been added to those for starting early tomatoes, etc. Several years ago John A. Morrison put up a greenhouse for raising flowers, etc. for his gardens, engaged J. Bebbington as gardener (at that time in the employ of Hovey & Co., Boston), who extended his pleasure grounds, and made it one of the finest displays in the Province. Then came a Ray, Esq., after the death of Judge Wilnot, and bought the late Judge's place with the fine collection of plants, etc., and has been adding to those for starting early tomatoes, etc. Several years ago John A.
