HURON SIGNAL.

FRIDAY, JAN. 6TH, 1888.

THE MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

The municipal elections in Goderich have turned out pretty much as we imagined the result would be. Eleven of the old councillors went to the poll and four—Messrs Jordan, J. Acheson, jr., Bingham and Lee—have been unseated in the contest.

When it is remembered that a full opposition ticket was run only in St. Andrew's ward, it will be seen that had an organized effort been made, few, if any, of the old councillors would have succeeded in obtaining seats again at the board.

We must admit we regret that councillor Jordan failed of re-election on this occasion. He was one of the few good members of the board of 1887, and his absence from the council of 1888 will be felt.

Rev Hamilton Wyllie is spending a few days in town, and is the guest of G. Cox.

J. W. Pearson, of the Harbor Mill, is at present visiting relatives in Brampton and Toronto.

Jas. G. Rushton, of Slater's mill, Brantford, was in town Monday last, visiting old friends.

Mr V. Knechtel, wife and family Seaforth were the guests of Mr. A. J. Mauger, at New Year.

Miss Sara Hyllop has gone to spend a few weeks with her sister, Mrs L. T. McDonald, Listowel.

Mr Cassaday, of Auburn, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs McGillicuddy during the past two weeks.

Miss Susie Campbell commenced her duties as teacher of the junior division of the Saltford school Monday.

Percy L. Walton, of London, returned to that city Tuesday last after a week and a half's visit to his parents, West-st.

Charles and George Munro, of London, visited their parents at New Year. They left for London by the afternoon train.

Mrs and Mrs W. J. Holmes, of Stratford, and Mr and Mrs Arhibaldi, of Edmondville, spent New Year's with Mr S. Megaw.

Tom Graham, of Cleveland, O., formerly an employee of the Goderich P. O., spent New Year's with the old folks at home.

Dr McDonagh will be in Goderich for consultation on Saturday, the 7th of January, and afterwards on the first Saturday of every month.

Misses A. Sharman, J. Dickson, M. Runk and M. Allen left town on Monday for the various schools to which they have recently been engaged.

Knox church Band of Hope will meet on Saturday, Jan. 7th, at 3 o'clock. All the members are requested to be present, and others wishing to join.

James Brown, recently of Galt is now in charge of the engine at the station. From what we have heard of him we expect him to make a good resident.
