Here and There.

His 1901 Fraser and daughter, of St. John's, Nfld., were guests last week at Mrs. Wm. Fleming's, Hazen Street. Mrs. Fraser was formerly Miss Cowan, of St. John.—The Globe.

The police are watching for the man of rather short set proportions who has been seen prowling around Maximo Street in the "wee wee" hours. He is not an unknown character, and is supposed to be the central figure in a recent larceny.

MARRIED.

At St. Patrick's, Deane's, on the 8th inst., by the Rev. Father Pippy, Henry V. Simms to Annie P. Carew, both of this city.

Cabman Badly Injured

Last night cabman A. Symonds, of the Central stand, drove his Victoria down Barter's Hill with four persons in it, and as he turned to go into Central Street the horse slipped and fell, when with the heavy weight of the driver and freight on board, and that of the fit out the whole thing was dragged over the hill which was covered with ice, and brought up at the bottom of the thoroughfare. The driver kept his seat, and when the cab arrived at the foot of the hill it collided with a telephone pole, striking with great force, the shafts were broken and the fit out very much damaged, and the horse went clear of the carriage. Symonds was pitched from the box and struck the hard ground on his head, became unconscious and lay for a few minutes with blood flowing freely from an ugly cut in the head. Constables Martin and Squib who were near hastened to his aid and conveyed him into Dawe's restaurant near. The police rendered "first aid," and soon Drs. Tait and Campbell were at the man's side and had to put seven stitches in the wound. When Symonds was properly looked after he was conveyed to his home on Barnes Road.

Match Postponed.

The wrestling match between Oppelt and Olsen that was to have taken place next Monday night, has been postponed until the 23rd. Mr. Oppelt while overhauled contracted a severe cold and is now confined to his room.
Dr. Mitchell is in attendance. The lovers of the noble art of wrestling are greatly disappointed that the match is postponed.

St. Bon's at Home.

The Ladies of St. Bon's Association held a successful "At Home" in the British Hall last night. The hall was beautifully decorated, and presented a gay appearance. The U. C. C. Band furnished the music. Games of bridge were indulged in by those who did not care to dance. Teas were served and the festivities kept up till 2 in the morning.

Young Hero Drowned.

Myles Marriott Lost His Life in Chocolate Lake While Trying to Save His Brother Yesterday.

One of the saddest drowning accidents that has occurred for years was that of yesterday afternoon when Myles Marriott, of Melville Island Road, lost his life while trying to save his brother, Ainsley, aged 12 years, from drowning.

The two lads, who had attended Sunday School at the head of the Arm during the afternoon, were on their way home when the accident occured. They, in company with two younger children, decided to take a short cut to their homes by going across Chocolate Lake. The two smaller children got along all right, but the ice was not sufficiently strong to bear the larger boys. When about twenty feet from the shore Ainsley broke through, and his brother, Myles, in going to his assistance, also went through the ice. The two younger children stood on the ice frightened to move one way or the other.

Marshall Rogers, Muriel Rogers and Dudley Martin, three young guineas at Birchdale, with Archie Johnson, a bell boy at Birchdale, were out walking and were the first to arrive on the scene. Seeing the danger of the two children on the ice, they shouted to them to crawl, which they did, thus reaching the shore in safety.
The party then ran to nearby homes for assistance. At Arnavue a rope was secured and unsuccessful attempts were made to throw it to the struggling boys. Martin, who is but 13 years old, then tied the rope about himself and waded out into the lake to his neck, but he could not reach the boys and was pulled back to the shore.

A shed was broken open and a boat launched. Johnson made an effort to reach the boys by the boat, but when he got half way out could proceed no further. A man who arrived about that time then went with Johnson.
When they reached Myles Marriott, who was the nearest to the shore, the little fellow told the rescuers to save his brother, first, as he thought that he could keep afloat a while longer.
They went out after Ainsley and reached him as he lost consciousness.
By the time Ainsley was taken into the boat, and the boat started to the shore, Myles had lost his grip on the ice and disappeared.

Ainsley was taken to the residence of James Dillman, where he received medical attention, and was later removed to his home.

"BENNETT'S BAND" MAKES GOOD IN MONTREAL

A Fine Programme of Music Rendered Before the Newfoundland Society at Alexandra Hall, on Tuesday Evening, January 3rd.—The Audience Heard "The Banks of Newfoundland" for the First Time in the Metropolis of Canada.—Thoughts Wandered Back to Home and Fatherland When the Hall Rang With the Strains of John Bennett's Cornet.
—"He's Still the Same Old Jack," say his Admirers.

(Special to Evening Telegram.)

The Newfoundland Society recently organized in Montreal is rapidly increasing. At present over one hundred members have joined the Society. At the last meeting held at Alexandra Hall, St. Catherine Street over thirty new members were added to the roll, besides a large number of application blanks were distributed among the members in order to have the membership still further increased at the next meeting.

After the meeting "Bennett's Band" played a fine programme which delighted the large audience.

The opening number, Terra Nova's Greeting, "The Banks of Newfoundland" was played in capital style and as the sound rang out in clear and beautiful tones from Prof. Bennett's cornet, many of the old people present shed tears, for they had heard their native country's National Anthem for the first time in their adopted land. Their thoughts wandered back to the scenes of home and fatherland which they had left many years ago. "Absence made their hearts grow fonder" of dear Old Terra Nova. When John Bennett played the "Irish Airs" and made his cornet "whip it out," he made the audience grow wild with enthusiasm, and by special request the band played "St. Patrick's Day." Rev. Father Holland, C. S. S. R., of St. Anne's Church, playing the accompaniment on the organ. Father Holland's father was a Newfoundlander, and played with the late Prof. David Bennett fifty years ago. "The Mocking Bird" was particularly good, Master Jack Bennett giving a faithful imitation of the "songster" on the mouthpiece of his instrument. The Waltz and the Royal March with cornet and euphonium solos played by the Professor and his son, Tom, as well as the Canadian and British, airs evoked loud applause.

Dr. Roddick, Honorary President,

Nerves at High Tension

Slight extra strain means collapse—Restoration obtained by using DR.
A.W. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

The successful men and women are often of the high-strung nervous type —keen and active—but with too little reserve force.

A little extra worry and anxiety and snap goes the nervous system. Weeks and months are often required before energy and vigor are regained.

Rest helps, so does fresh air and exercise, but the blood must also be made rich and red by use of Dr. A. W.
Chase's Nerve Food.

Mr. Wm. Branto, Victoria St., Strath-roy, Ont., writes:—My nervous system seemed all unstrung. I could not sleep, had no appetite, my digestion was poor and I had jerking of the limbs.
Dr. Chase's Nerve Food helped me and I continued until I had taken twenty four boxes. This treatment has made a radical change in my condition, building up the system and strengthening the nerves. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, all dealers or Edman-son, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Lieut.-Col. Renouf, President; Dr. B.
C. Peters, Vice-President; Messrs. W.
C. Gaden and E. W. Mudge, Governors of the Society, were presented with beautiful illuminated programmes, the work of a Newfound-lander. They were greatly admired by all those who saw them, pronounced works of art, and will form a pleasing souvenir of the first important event of the newly-formed Society.

At the end of the entertainment a hearty vote of thanks was accorded Prof. Bennett for the excellent programme rendered. Lieut.-Col. Renouf thanked the performers and recalled the days when he studied the violin in the studio of Prof. Bennett's father. He was sorry that he had not followed it up, for if he had he would be playing in the orchestra that evening. Prof. Bennett thanked the members for their kindness.

After the reception Prof. Bennett renewed acquaintances with many old friends.

As the crowd filed out of the hall, many were heard to say:—"Why, he's the same old Jack as of former days, and there's lots of music in his cornet yet."

And now John Bennett's many friends would like to know how he's doing. Well, as his manager since his arrival here, I am pleased to tell them that he's here to stay, and has very bright prospects. All his children are in good positions, and I have booked the following engagements for the orchestra:—the Franciscan Social, the Lecture of the Total Abstinence Union of Canada at the Monument National, the largest theatre hall in the city. All the Bennett family will play that evening, and will be assisted by two clarinet players and a cornet player, the full orchestra comprising twelve pieces.
His Grace Archbishop Bruchesi, the clergy of the city, His Worship the Mayor, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Premier of Canada, Sir Lomer Gouin, Premier of Quebec, Sir Thomas O'Shaughnessy, President C. P. R., Hon. Charles Murphy, Secretary of State, and several other high dignitaries have been invited.

On Friday evening, February 17th, the Bennett family will give a public concert in the Belmont School Hall, and will be assisted by some of the leading talent of the city. As organizer of the concert its success is already assured.

"Bennett's Silver Cornet Band" of twenty-two pieces, will lead the procession in the St. Patrick's Day parade, and in the evening the Bennett family orchestra will play at the concert of the Hibernians, No. 8 Division.
Prof. Bennett is to be presented with a set of instruments for his band.

Let those who gloat over John Bennett's leaving the Colony, as well as those who are responsible for it, take this as a consolation, that he's going to succeed, and succeed well in this city, and in a short time will be better off financially than he ever was even in his best days at St. John's, for he has strong backing and he must and will prosper. In the meantime, Prof. Bennett, through his manager, wishes to be kindly remembered to all his old friends, and also wishes them the compliments of the season.
