THE MEETING OF THE WATERS.

(The rivers Avon and Avoca, in the County of Wicklow.)
There is not in the wide world a valley so sweet
As that vale in whose bosom the bright waters meet;
Oh! the last rays of feeling and life must depart
Ere the bloom of that valley shall fade from my heart.

Yet it was not that Nature had shed
O'er the scene her soft magic of stream-let or hill
Oh! no—it was something more exquisite still.

'Twas that friends, the beloved of my bosom, were near.
Who made every dear scene of enchantment more dear,
And who felt how the best charms of Nature improve
When we see them reflected from looks that we love and adore.

Sweet vale of Avoca! how calm could I rest
In thy bosom of shade, with the friends I love best.
Where the storms that we feel in this cold world should cease,
And our hearts, like thy waters, be mingled in peace.

—Thomas Moore.

AT A SOLEMN MUSIC.

Blest pair of Sirens, pledges of Heaven's Joy,
Sphere-born harmonious sisters, Voice and Verse,
Wed your divine sounds, and mixed power employ,
Dead things with inbreathed sense able to pierce,
And to our high-raised fantasy present
That undisturbed song of pure content.

Aye sung before the sapphire-colored throne
To Him that sits thereon,
With saintly sound, and solemn jubilee,
Where the bright seraphim in burning row
Their loud uplifted angel-trumpets blow,
And the cherubim host in thousand quires
Touch their immortal harps of golden wires,
With those just spirits that wear victorious palms,
Hymns devout and holy psalms
Singing everlastingly
That we on earth with undiscordant voice

May rightly answer that melodious noise:
As once we did, till disproportioned sin
Jarred against nature's chime, and with harsh din
Broke the fair music that all creatures made
To their great Lord, whose love their motion swayed
In perfect diapason, whilst they stood
In first obedience, and their state of good.
Oh, may we soon again renew that And keep in tune with Heaven, till God ere long
To his celestial consort us unite,
To love with Him, and sing in endlessness of light.

—John Milton.

IL PENSEROSO.

(The confiding lines.)
There in closed covert by some brook,
Where no profane eye may look,
Hid me from day's garish eye
While the bee with homely thigh,
That at her flowery work doth sing,
And the waters murmuring,
With such consort as they keep,
Entice the drowsy cloister's sleep;
And let some strange mysterious dream
Wave at his wings in airy stream
Of lively portraiture displayed,
Softly on my eyelids laid.
And as I wake, sweet music breathe
Above, about, or underneath,
Sent by some spirit to mortals good,
Or the unseemly genius of the wood,
But let my due feet never fail
To walk the studious cloister's pale,
And love the high embowed roof,
With antique pillars massy proof,
And storied windows richly dight,
Casting a dim religious light,
There let the pealing organ blow,
To the full-voiced choir below,
In service high, and anthems clear,
As may with sweetness, through mine ear,
Dissolve me into ecstasies,
And bring all Heaven before my eyes,
And may at last my weary age
Find out the peaceful hermitage,
The hairy gown and mossy cell,
Where I may sit and rightly spell
Of every herb that slips the dew;
Till old experience do attain
To something like prophetic strain.
These pleasures, melancholy give,
And I with these will choose to live.

—John Milton.

TEACH ME TO COMMAND.

God give me strength—or teach me to command

The strength that sleeps within me,
In my soul
Wake thou its subtle forces, that my hand
May do its work—My steps attain their goal.
Let Thy sweet love pervade my hopeful life;
Let faith and wisdom to my heart be shown;
Give Thou thy sanction to my earthly strife,
Make me, myself, my saviour—me alone.
Teach me this truth—that Thou art all in all—
That in Thy boundless soul am I confined.
That from Thy vast presence I may call
Whatever I seek for body, soul or mind.
Let every thought uphold my struggling heart;
As from some dream each golden deed has grown
As every failure does success impart—
So from the past, let me erect the throne.

SHE WALKS IN BEAUTY.

She walks in beauty, like the night
Of cloudless climes and starry skies;
And all that's best of dark and bright
Meets in her aspect and her eyes:
Thus mellow'd to that tender light
Which heaven to gaudy day denies.
One shade the more, one ray the less,
Had half impair'd the nameless grace
Which waves about her ev'ry tress,
Or softly lightens o'er her face;
Where thoughts serenely sweet express
How pure, how dear, their dwelling place.

And on that cheek, and o'er that brow,
So soft, so calm, yet eloquent,
The smiles that win the tints that glow,
But tell of days in goodness spent,
A mind at peace with all below,
A heart whose love is innocent!

—Byron.

THE WHITE PEACE.

It lies not on the sunlit hill
Nor on the sunlit plain:
Nor ever on any running stream
Nor on the unclouded main—
But sometimes through the Soul of Man
Slow moving o'er his pain,
The moonlight of a perfect peace,
Floods heart and brain.

—Fiona McLeod

AN EQUATORIAL CALM.

(From "The Ancient Mariner.")
The fair breeze blew, the white foam flew,
The furrow follow'd free;
We were the first that ever burst
Into that silent sea.

Down dropt the breeze, the sails dropt down,
'Twas sad as sad could be;
And we did speak only to break
The silence of the sea!

All in a hot and copper sky,
The bloody sun, at noon,
Right up above the mast did stand,
No bigger than the moon.

Day after day, day after day,
We stuck, nor breath nor motion;
As idle as a painted ship
Upon a painted ocean.

Water, water, everywhere,
And all the boards did shrink;
Water, water, everywhere,
Nor any drop to drink.

The very deep did rot—O Christ!
That ever this should be!
Yea slimy things did crawl with legs
Upon the slimy sea.

—Coleridge.

At the Cookstown Road Church next

Sunday evening Elder M. N. Campbell
President of the Eastern Canadian Union Conference of S. D. Adventists will occupy the pulpit. The subject of his remarks will be: "Way I Observe the Seventh Day Sabbath." During the week that has passed Elder Campbell has conducted a number of services with this church, and his strong logical presentation of facts, coupled with his illustration, have won for him a number of friends among his hearers. Elder Campbell will leave Newfoundland during the coming week, returning to his home in Ontario, visiting en route the Maritime Provinces and Prince Edward Island in the interests of the denomination he represents.

At the City Hall.

The weekly session of the Municipal Council was held yesterday afternoon. Deputy Mayor Martin presiding.

J. Noseworthy's request to erect a fence on Fenwick Road, and J. Dempsey's complaint of a dilapidated fence was referred to the Engineer.

Bandmaster Peet, on behalf of City Band, offered services for future Band concerts.

Solicitor Morris reported that the Council had the power to extend and relocate Leinster Road. Council for Ryan asked that the matter be deferred.

An application was received from Mr. G. W. B. Ave offering land in Finn's Lane, Cudding Street and Barter's Hill to be arbitrated on and purchased by the Council. Application filed.

According to a report from the Solicitor the Council has the right to lay sewerage through any private property without an arbitration being held first.

A bill for $115, received from Furlong and Corcoran on behalf of R. Breaker & Co., for repairs to sanitary car, was referred to Solicitor.

Last evening a row occurred at the corner of Water and Queen's Streets. A gang of toughs attacked three blue-jackets of H. M. S. Sirius without provocation. It turned out that the men of war were pugilists. They made a mess of their cowardly opponents who ran away.

Caledonian Games

AT CALGARY, ALBERTA.

CALGARY, ALBERTA, Aug. 1.—The Caledonian games which will be held at Calgary on Thursday, August 9th, promise to be the largest event of the kind ever held in the West. The programme contains all the events usually connected with a Scottish gathering and the value of prizes offered amounts to over one thousand dollars in addition to several handsome silver challenge cups, gold and silver medals. The pipe band for the championship of Alberta Canada has attracted over a dozen entries and the championship individual piping contest has also been heavily entered into as it carries with it the beautiful silver cup presented by the Calgary Gaelic Society.

Competitors from the United States, British Columbia and as far east as Nova Scotia have sent in their entries and many of the chiefs of Scottish clans on the other side of the line have notified their intention of being present. All the members of the Calgary Scottish societies will attend in their national costume and a special gold medal has been struck for the best dressed Highlander attending the games.

Special roped and fairs have been granted by the C. P. R. from all points in the western division and thousands are expected to take advantage of this concession. A record attendance is expected and elaborate arrangements have been made for the policing of the grounds. The Legion of Frontiersmen and Scouts have offered their services for this purpose and in addition a large force of city police will be on duty.

The five-a-side football tournament has proven the most attractive event so far and no less than thirty teams will battle for the honours. A proof of the popularity of the soccer game in Alberta is that entries have been received from cities all over the province. All the athletic events will be strictly amateur, run under the auspices of the A. A. U. of C. Alberta branch, and the judges, timekeepers and starters will be men of the highest repute.

The Scottish societies will form up in procession and parade through the city. The pipe band will march to the grounds shortly after noon and several of the most prominent Scots of the West will give short addresses before the games commence. It will be unique in the history of the country and many happy re-unions are sure to take place.

The aim of the promoters is to create a greater interest in sports and that through time a regular chain of such events will be annually celebrated throughout the West.

I bought a horse with a supposedly incurable rash on his neck. Cured him with $1.00 worth of MINARD'S LINIMENT and paid him for $85. Profit on Liniment, $84.00.

Concert For C.L.B.

Last night's concert given at the Rossby Theatre by members of H.M.S. Sirius, in aid of the C.L.B. Armon, proved a great success. There was a packed house, many being unable to gain admittance, and the performers showed up well. The sketches, comic songs, dances and selections given by the band of the ship won frequent rounds of applause. At the close, Lieut.-Col. Rendell, of the C.L.B., thanked Mr. Rossby, the ship's concert party and also the orchestra people.

THREE ARRESTS.

Three arrests for drunkenness were made by the police last evening.

Granulation of the Eyelids

Is cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment—Scores of Eyes for the Great Suffering. Most people know Dr. Chase's Ointment as a cure for eczema and itching piles. Nor is this to be wondered at when you think of the remarkable record made in this class of cures.

But there are scores of other uses for this ointment, which are only discovered when it is kept constantly at hand.

Mrs. Mary Ann Coddling, of Toronto, formerly of Bowmanville, Ont., writes: "I have used Dr. Chase's Ointment for years and found it invaluable in treating skin irritations and all sorts of sores and wounds. In fact, we could not be without it in the house. It is a most excellent treatment for granulated eyelids, from which I suffered without finding anything to help me."

Wherever there is itching of the skin or a sore that refuses to heal you can use Dr. Chase's Ointment with full assurance that it will prove entirely satisfactory. 50 cents a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

Hr. Grace Notes.

The S. S. Invermore arrived here last evening en route to Labrador. Owing to her boilers leaking she was detained here, and left this morning for St. John's.

Mr. George Gordon, of the General Post Office, St. John's, and Miss Ethel Ash, of Harbour Grace, are to be married on Thursday next at St. Paul's Church. The couple will leave by the afternoon train for Placentia where the honeymoon will be spent.

Miss Winnie Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rogers, is at St. John's visiting friends. Her brother Arthur who was over to the races returned by last night's train.

The old story of "a man about" is again revived this year, and females are afraid to venture out after dark. This report is unfounded, and it would be well if the police could trace them to the originators and have them punished. Yes, of course there is "a man about" and many manly men around Harbour Grace, but it is no doubt false that any individual is about, as rumour says, trying to get into houses in lonely portions of the town late at night. What trash and nonsense!

The clanging (or trying to clang) of that firebell I referred to some time ago, made people think there was something in the air at 12 o'clock last night, although it was a very feeble effort to ring in an alarm. However, after a time, other citizens were awakened and hastened to the scene. It was discovered that a house belonging to Mr. Christopher Dooley, of St. John's, was on fire. Carpenters were employed on the building for some time, but it was not until the fire was extinguished that the cause was discovered. The house was completely destroyed, but we are pleased to hear that Mr. Pike has been partly covered by insurance. Constable Dooley, who was on night duty, detected the smell of smoke half a mile away, and going as fast as possible in the direction from which the wind was blowing, he soon discovered the blaze and rendered valuable aid to keep the fire from spreading.

Men are at work today repairing the fire bell. We hope to see longer bell ropes put there now, so as no carpenter will be necessary to make that bell sound the next alarm of fire which we hope will not be for some years. Had the suggestion of our correspondent some weeks ago been acted on in putting longer ropes on the bell, the firemen would have been able to reach the scene of the fire quicker than they did.

THE LONDON WEEKLY TIMES—without regard for charges, created the information heretofore possessed by the few. In addition to supplying the books free, each person who writes at once will also receive a character delineation of from 400 to 500 words as prepared by Prof. Knowles.

If you wish a copy of Prof. Knowles' book and a character Delineation, simply copy the following verse in your own handwriting:

"I want power of mind,
Force and strength in my look,
Please read my character
And send me your book."

Also send your full name and address (state whether Mr., Mrs., or Miss), write plainly, and address your letter to:

National Institute of Sciences, Dept. 952-A, No. 358, Westcote Bridge Road, London, S.E. England. If you wish you may enclose 10 cents (stamps of your own country) to pay postage, etc. Postage on letters to England 2 cents.

THE LONDON MAIL—"Professor Knowles' System embraces a great deal of erudition in a form which can be readily grasped by all who have the ability to read and understand simple prose. No better help towards success in life could be desired."

"MODERN SOCIETY"—"No modern investigator along psychological lines has received so large an amount of praise as that accorded to Professor Elmer E. Knowles for his marvellous System of Personal Influence and Healing. Here at last is a man who is at once a great scholar, a born teacher and a practical helper—for the instruction papers reveal a nature which is sympathetic and of good fellowship for an ambitious, yet misguided, population."
