Christmas Photographs.

Santa Claus never starts out on his Christmas Eve round of the world's chimney pots without a supply of photographic portraits. The reason is not far to seek. Few gifts are so welcome, for no gifts come from nearer the heart. And a nice thing about photographs is that they are not associated with pecuniary value. But you cannot take the day before Xmas to have your photograph taken and expect it to be in the pack of Santa Claus that evening. Photographers are only human, even when they rank in the genius class, and just before Xmas is their crowding time of the year. If you are going to have your photograph taken, DO IT NOW, they will be ready for New Year.

Studio open every night. Don't leave your selection of Xmas Cards and Calendars too late, our stock is moving out rapidly.
