GERMAN ELECTION RETURNS AS- SURE SUPPORT OF DAWES' REPORT.

BERLIN, May 5.
Parliamentary coalition comprising socialists, clerical, democratic, and the people's parties which will command a sufficient majority to put the provisions of the Dawes' report into effect has been assured by the general elections held throughout Germany to-day. This is the conclusion reached late to-night at Government headquarters after a competent appraisal of the returns already received. While the nationalists and communists show decisive gains it is not considered their increases will constitute a menace to the policies to which the four coalition parties are pledged. The Ultra-reactionaries led by General Ludendorf failed to develop expected strength. The count of ballots is proceeding extremely slowly owing to the lateness of incoming returns, and complications arising through the presence of twenty-three party tickets on the official ballot. Only 150 out of the 2000 precincts in greater Berlin had reported at midnight.

N. S. AND P. E. I. INCOME TAX RETURNS.

The income tax this year from N.
S. and P. E. I. will yield about half a million dollars, practically the same as last year according to information given out to-night by Major Edwards Inspector of taxation for the two provinces.

THE PROGRAMME OF CLYDES- DALE WILD MEN.

GLASGOW May 5.
The feature of the largest May Day celebration ever held in Glasgow which was postponed until to-day was a speech by J. M. Macdonald, Glasgow Labour member of the House of Commons who exhorted the crowd to eschew the word "Tranquillity" and blaze "Discontent" on their banners; he added "as long as we have such conditions, don't be peaceful, even for the sake of the labor government.
Politics is not a game now but a very definite and bitter class war which cannot be fought with kid glove methods."

bably within a few months the post-

SPANISH TROOPS DISPOSE OF MOORS ASSAILANTS.

MADRID, May 5.
An official statement issued yesterday, dealing with the military operations in Morocco, shows that the Moors are still attacking the Spanish cavalry in Morocco. The statement says that the troops which left Que-dani to fight the enemy were suddenly attacked near Sidi Messaud by tribesmen. A combined attack by Spanish troops and reinforcements was launched and the enemy was routed with heavy casualties, leaving 31 dead and many wounded on the field. Among the dead were three tribal chieftains.
The Spanish force lost two men and fourteen wounded.

PORTUGUESE FLIERS ON WAY TO CHINA.

KARACHI, May 5.
Portuguese aviators, Brito Paes and Sacramento Bieres, who are making a flight to China, arrived here yesterday from the Indo-Persian frontier.
They were somewhat exhausted, having encountered strong headwinds and dust storms, which greatly hindered their flight.

CHINA COAL TO FIND A MARKET IN CANADA.

OTTAWA, May 5.

General, who arrived here Sunday, announced that he is intending to take up the question of establishing a market in Canada for Chinese coal. There is sufficient surplus coal in his country he says, to supply Canada for the ernment granting a fifteen per cent.

HUDSON MOTOR.
Big Production—Why Profits Declined.
(Boston News Bureau, April 26th.) Boston—The Hudson Motor Car Co. report for the quarter ended Feb. 29 last is illustrative of the general play of forces in the motor industry as a whole, viz., rapidly expanding production and declining margin of profit. Output in that period was over 30,000 cars, against 18,773 cars a year ago, a gain of 70% while net profits were $1,301,363, against $1,689,268, a decline of 23%. Profit per car dropped from $89 to $43.
Of course it is to be borne in mind that the introduction of the new Essex model involved some extraordinary costs, which practically wiped out the dividend net. At the same time the relatively larger proportion of total output represented by Essex production this year would greatly pull down the per car profit.

outstanding after the 10% stock dividend paid April 15 Hudson Motor

Woman Sourdough Goes Back Home

VANCOUVER, B.C., April 21.—(Canadian Press)—Miss Kate Ryan, who looks thirty and confesses to over fifty, a real character member of the band of adventurers who made this Klondike famous, is now in Vancouver en route to the north, after her first visit to the east in eighteen years.

In the early days of the Far North boom, when the lure of gold attracted men from the far corners of the earth, it was Miss Ryan who was the big sister to them all. She nursed them when they were sick, lectured them when necessary; darned their socks and sewed their buttons on.
The Far North is the only place to live, she believes, and she is going back to spend the remainder of her days.

Miss Ryan has the distinction of being the only woman who was ever attached to the old Northwest Mounted Police. During the boom when travel was heavy across the Alaska-Yukon border, she was stationed at Whitehorse, Y.T., in charge of the women who were constantly passing back and forth, and a part of her duties was to search them for smuggled gold-dust.

She now makes her home at Stewart, B.C., the thriving mining camp at the head of Portland Canal, where she owns mining property. Her first business venture was a junk store in a tent. By dint of thrift and hard work she now owns a modern building and other property. In addition to looking after her business affairs, she finds time to act as nurse in emergencies, and when Stewart was without a medical man her skill in case of accident or sickness was a godsend to the camp.

For a quarter of a century Miss Ryan has been a picturesque and romantic figure in the written and unwritten history of the Far North, and literally laughed her way through the many hardships, discomforts and privations.

Treasure Hunters Disappointed

VANCOUVER, B.C. (C.P.)—Reports received here indicate that the treasure hunt of the little steamer Gunner which sailed from here last winter for Cocos Island in search of chests of gold supposed to have been hidden in that vicinity by revolutionaries many years ago, has been unsuccessful.

The expedition carried all necessary working implements, including a metal detector, an invention of a Vancouver man. Arriving at Cocos the first few days was spent in taking supplies ashore. The great waves of the Pacific boomed across the reefs and rain fell in a deluge.

Armed with maps and the "treasure-finder" the men worked chertu-lly and long, sand and debris flew in drum and daylight, though the rain continued to pour and the winds to moan.

The "detector" was truthful in pointing to metal, great masses of which were uncovered. But it was the debris of some previous treasure hunting expedition—iron shovels, tin cans, wheelbarrows, pick-axes and so forth. Of gold, silver or gems, there was no sign. Nevertheless the search was pressed doggedly at other points until supplies ran low, forcing the fortune-hunters to sail for Vancouver.
They will reach here late in May.

Panama Canal Dredge DEEPENS CHANNEL OF GOLDEN GATE.

SAN FRANCISCO—(A.P.)—Night and day, calm or storm, the giant United States dredge Culebra carries on its task of deepening the channel outside the Golden Gate to make a pathway a ship of any size may enter or leave at any time.

The work will require eighteen months. The channel through the Golden Gate will be made 8,000 feet long, 2,000 feet wide and 42 feet deep at low tide. To accomplish this 2-000,000 cubic feet of sand must be moved, a hundredth part as much as was moved to dig the Panama Canal.
All this sand must be sucked up from the ocean bed, through the giant lungs of the Culebra, placed on scows, taken out to sea and dumped.

The Culebra was built to assist in digging the Panama Canal and was brought around Cape Horn from the Atlantic to work on the Pacific side.
When the canal was completed, the Culebra was the first ship through.
