Guelph Evening Mercury

The Governor General. Public sentiment, as expressed in the press and by the petitions now so extensively circulated, would appear to be having its legitimate and proper effect upon the action of the Governor General.

A gentleman from Quebec, who was in Toronto a few days since, states that only by the timely interference of some of Sir John's friends he was prevented from drowning himself while in a frenzied state brought on by an inordinate use of the intoxicating cup.

Japanese Newspaper. We have received two newspapers published in the city of Yokohama, Japan, and will try to give our readers some idea of their appearance.

Exciting Hunt After Bushrangers. A numerous gang of disreputable characters have "squatted"—so to speak—in the vicinity of Hamilton, near Lane's Bush, who made night hideous with their Bacchanal songs and revelries, and whose camp was the resort of young men who are members of respectable families.

Petitions to the Governor not to prorogue Parliament are freely circulated in Toronto, and embrace the names of many prominent Conservatives, who avow that should an opposite course be adopted, they will accept it as an evidence of guilt and withdraw all support from Sir John.

"We have heard that the dog which killed the girl at Tokio, was a strange looking animal, and extraordinary to relate did not utter a moan when killed by the police. At Tau-shimo a man died in consequence of having received a bite from a cat. The cat in question has been proved to be over two hundred years old.

More Pacific Correspondence. The Montreal Herald of Monday publishes two letters from James Bealy, Jr., one to Mr. C. M. Smith, of Chicago, and the other to Mr. McMullen, dated in January and February 1873, prior to the meeting of Parliament at which the charter was granted.

Our bill and arrangements must, therefore, be made this session to be safe. Under all the circumstances, I am in that position to advise a united effort in co-operation with the Government, to carry this thing successfully. To do this money will be necessary, and a considerable sum. I, therefore, write to say that I ought to be supplied with $50,000 at once, and another $50,000 when the session opens, and I think that will do it.

I have had about three months' correspondence, both by letter and personal interviews, of the first importance to the Government, and all this with the ultimate object, on my part, of settling the Pacific. I have had more direct reference to the elections, and I always understood you to be no object in reference to our common object, and acting upon that view and the direct instructions I received, I made the "proposition" request you refer to.
