BASEBALL BRIEFS

It appears to be the consensus opinion among baseball writers that Jack O'Connor's team will finish last, or very close to it, in the American League race, unless radical measures to strengthen the club are resorted to.

Josh Devore is exhibiting such dazzling speed in the outer garden for the Giants that it looks as if he would be a fixture on the team. With Sey-mour laid up with an injured knee, Becker is given a chance to show his worth. Mathewson is the same Mat

We Defy all Competition. Best Bargains Go First

This is not a mere statement of unsupported facts. In the face of this terrific onslaught of splendid values we are offering throughout the entire establishment, we confidently say that competition cannot beat our prices. We must get out of the premises and we don't intend to move a dollar's worth of this stock. We meant this to be a real sacrifice sale and we want you to realize, which you can only do by coming here, and seeing for yourself, just what a little money will buy for you in this our final closing out sale.

People, we again beg to call your attention to the fact that this is a positive quit business sale, and that A. A. Baker & Co., successors to Bradley & Tuck, intend to sell everything, regardless of whatever loss they may incur. All we ask is an inspection of the goods and when you see the gigantic reductions we know you will buy.
