Unfavorable Weather Operates Against the Italian War News

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Persistent rains that appeared to be rendering much corn unfit for food lifted the corn market today, although some temporary weakness resulted from the German invasion of the north Italian plains. In the end prices were firm, the to the higher with December at $1.18 % and May at $1.13 % to $1.13 %. Oats gained the to the finish in provisions varied from 5c declines to a rise of 15c.

At first, corn traders did not seem disposed to attack any market signs to the vicissitudes of the Italian armles. Wet weather delays to the move ment of the new crep formed the initial dominating influence and brought about a moderate advance of values. Later, however, the fact that the Italian retreat had bearishly af-fected the New York stock market led to some increase of selling pressure on

In Sympathy With Liquidation in New York, Prices Decline

Toronto, Oct. 29.—Sessing on a scale larger than the Toronto exchange has been familiar with of late, broke out today in sympathy with the renewal of heavy liquidation on New York, and losses ranged from fractions to several points extended throughout the list. Pressure was markedly in evidence in Brazilian, Mackay and the steel stocks, while C.P.R., which broke in New York, while C.P.R., which broke in New York, was traded in locally to the extent of three snares only at 143. The closing bid of C.P.R., however, was only 188%. with 140 asked.

Brazilian, both in activity and ex-

In steel group, Dominion Steel and Steel of Canada proved readily vulsteel of canada proved readily vil-nerable. The former opened weak at 54½ and dropped to 52½; a loss of 2½ points from Saturday. The closing bid was only 51½. Steel of Canada was hammered flown to 49½ after opening at 51. MacKay was unloaded in quite heavy volume closing at 74½, the lowest point, a net loss of 1% points. The list of losses included also General Electric 1 point; Maple Leaf 1% points. Toronto Railway was heavy at 60. The war loans sold at prices un-changed from those of Saturday, Deal-ings in bonds were fairly active.

VIOLENT REACTION

Wiped Out New York, Oct. 29.—The better feel-ing created in stock market circles last Saturday by the successful flota-tion of the second Liberty loan was almost entirely swept aside today by the discouraging advices from Italy. At least, these were cited as the principal reason for the violent reaction which ranged from 3 to 5 points in potential issues.

which ranged from 3 to 5 points in potential issues.

Low records for periods covering 2 to 15 years were established by high-grade and minor rails, industrials and inactive specialties, also local utilities, notably the tractions.
