Fall Wall Papers

We are putting on a sale of the rest of the Glover's Stock of wall papers, going to clean them all up this fall at about 1-3 of their value. Nearly all the patterns have a wide 18 inch border matching. Very few narrow borders left, and the designs are suitable for halls, living rooms, dining rooms and kitchens. If there are any papers in these which will suit your rooms, you can get a real bargain.

New Wall Papers

We were able to pick up a few new patterns for the fall business. These along with our regular stock enables us to show you over 200 patterns.

"If you are going to paper this fall see Caughell's samples."

N.B.—Bring exact size of your rooms. Remnants are not returnable.

SPRINGFIELD

Mrs. W. B. Purdy, who has been visiting in the village for the past few days has gone to Orillia to spend the winter with her daughter.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will hold a Chicken Pie Supper at the home of Miss B. Stokes, on Friday evening, October 10th. Proceeds to go for church expenses.

Mrs. George Grant is home again after a lengthy visit with her mother, in Essex.

Mr. H. Hodgkins, of Aylmer was renewing old acquaintances in the village on Monday.

Mrs. Wm. Burk, of Minneapolis, was the guest of her uncle, Mr. J. B. Lucas last week.

Mr. Wallace Boughner has joined the automobilists and purchased a "Lizzie".

Mr. J. B. Lucas has just celebrated another anniversary of his birthday. Mr. Lucas, is Springfield's grand old man. He is remarkably smart and active for a man of his age. We hope he will see many more.

Quite a number took in Belmont Fair on Tuesday.

A very enjoyable evening was spent by the members of Springfield Lodge A. F. & A. M. on Monday last. It being the annual visit of the D. D. G.M.

Our village was in total darkness on Sunday evening last, on account of a break somewhere in the hydro. Church services were held under great difficulties, and much annoyance was felt by the citizens in general.

The Palace repair garage is now in full swing. Your work solicited. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Our local big game hunters are once more getting ready for the one and only real holiday of the year. "The season opens five days later this year."

Here's hoping that they get the game they say they shot. The proof of the pudding is the eating thereof. So go to it boys and bring home the bacon.

T. M. Moore is certainly a busy man these days. The big doors swing open to the winner, Merritt. So it is up to whoever gets the most votes. Malcolm McVicar is certainly making his heels crack also. Go to it and see who is best man.

We are very sorry to hear that we are about to lose our furniture store. We have not been able to get particulars as yet, but sincerely hope that the report is untrue.
