—Printers' Ink, the well-known journal for advertisers, says: "When you want to know about any business house outside of the large cities, write to the local newspaper. If the firm is of any account you will find its advertisement in the home paper. A man to be popular abroad must be respected at home. And a man who does not advertise his business among his neighbors ought not to receive much attention anywhere."

The London Medical Association held its regular monthly meeting in the Medical Collage on Monday night. A large number of the members were present and Dr. Moorehouse, the president, occupied the chair. Dr. McCallum read a very able and scientific paper on "Physiological Albuminuria," giving causes, symptons and treatment. An interesting discussion followed, in which several of the members took part. Dr. Graham then read a very elaborate paper, on the etiology, pathology and symptomatology, etc., of typhoid fever, which was discussed to a considerable length by a number of the members. Doctors Woodruff, Roome and English were appointed to read papers at the next meeting, to be held on the second Monday in April.

Maconic Grand Lodge.

There is a prospect of having the annual meeting of the Masonic Grand Lodge held either in Hamilton or London in July next, instead of at Toronto, and the executive officers have the question under consideration. This action is rendered necessary on account of the meeting in Toronto of the Teachers' Convention. Every hall, hotel and boarding-house in that city has been secured for Grand Lodge week, and no accommodation for members could be procured. If London is fixed on, the brethren here will be prepared to give the distinguished visitors a right royal welcome.
