THE LOIDON ADVERTISER, MOAY, JULY 4 THE MOMENTOUS QUESTION.

Dr. Tahage's Sermon From the Text,
"Whit Shall I Do With Jesus?"

Will Christ Do With Us?"

LONDOR Eng., July 3.—Among the sermons reached by Dr. Talmage, the one selected is publication this week is from the text, Matthew xxvii., 22: "What shall I do with Jesus I" Pilate was an unprincipled politician. He had sympathies, convictions of right, and desire to be hones, but all these were submerged by a wish to be nopular, and to please the people. Two distinguished prisoners were in the grasp of government, and the piposition was made to free one of them. There stands Christ, the Savior of them there stands Christ, the Savior of the world. At the demand of the people the renegade is set free, but Jesus is held. As the hard-visaged and crule-yed Barabbas goes among his sympathizers, receiving their coarse congratulations, Pilate turns to his other distinguished prisoner—mild, meek, inoffensive, loving, self-sacrificing—and he is contounded as to what course he had better take, so he impanels the mob as a jury to decide, saying to Jesus?"

them. "What shall I do, then, with Jesus?"

You can, in the first place, let him stand without a word of recognition; but I do not think your sense of common courtesy will allow that.

Another thing that you can do with him, you can thust him back from your heart, and tell him to stand aside. If an offensive person comes and persists in standing close up to you, and you have in various ways given him to understand that you do not want his presence or his society, then you nak the reason of his impertinence and hid him away. Well that is what we can do with Jesus. He has stood close by us a great while—10, 20, 30, 40 years. He has stood close by you three times a day, breaking bread for your household, all night watching by your pillow. He has been in the sursery among your children, he has been in the store among your goods, he has been in the store among your goods, he has been in the store among your goods, he has been in the store among your goods, he has been in the store among your goods, he has been in the store among your goods, will not go you can take him by the throat and tell him you do not want his breath on your cheek, that you do not want his breath on your cheek, that you do not want his eye as you behavior. You can hid him away and so the man want his him away and so the store a more than your cheek, that you do not want his way a sour behavior. You can hid him away. or if he will not go in the would at a ean stamp your loot, as you would at a dog, and cry, "Begone!" Yet I know he will not treat Jesus that way.
