Aggie Ballantyne. St. Marys Saturday's Big Vote. There was a large vote cast Saturday in the great Trip to Europe contest. All day yesterday a staff of clerks was kept busy counting the ballots. The result is published above. The voting made few changes in the relative standing of the numerous subject. candidates, but the majority of them materially improved the figures to by Rev. Canen Hague, Rev. J. Gibson their credit. Many candidates did not enter the Tobin and others. contest as early as others, but the standing today shows that every one has an opportunity. The lady who stands lowest in the list may still overtake the highest by personal effort and by enlisting her friends.

The publication of the standing has stimulated interest in the competition, before the recent bylaw was passed, It is the theme of discussion everycar, on the street, in the factories. ried.

Everywhere the contest appeals to N. B.-Newspapers inserting this adver- the public imagination. The demand for ballots sometimes no was reading the Advertiser, but who the hospital trust had undergone re-were saving their coupons as he was, ing got out for the remodelling of the Conditions of the Voting.

Perhaps some of The Advertiser for some time. eaders do not yet fully understand the conditions as to voting. A subscriber who is in arrears for one month or one year, or any period of time, is entitled to the specified number of votes upon paying the arrears. Or a subscriber may pay as far in stand that she may poll votes outside her own district, and anywhere in Canada or the United States. All inquiries addressed to The Advertiser will be answered immediate-

City Council Voted to Hand Oven Money Provided for By

The council last night agreed to ask special legislation to empower them to grant the $5,000 debentures voted by the people for a consumption hospital, to the London Health Association for the purpose of erecting a sanatorium, A large deputation, headed by Hon. Adam Beck, appeared before the council, and addressed that body on the scheme, and after the arguments were heard, the council decided to make the grant. Hon. Adam Beck outlined at considerable length the plans of the sanatorium, and pointed out that $6,500 had been subscribed for the purpose.

The Evidence All in and Jury Retires to Consider Verdict. evidence in the action for libel brought by the ex-mayor of Regina against Hon, Walter Scott, Premier of Saskatchewan. Mr. Scott charged Mr. Laird, who was an Opposition candidate, with using his office for his own gain. Mr. Laird was on the stand most of today, and specifically denied the statements of Contractor Dobson that the contractor had given the mayor the express purpose of assisting in the elections and was so used.

THE HARRISTON WRECK

Harriston, Feb. 1.—The jury inquiring into the death of the trainmen killed in the collision here last week Royal returned a verdict tonight, finding the crew of the northbound freight guilty of negligence and censure the Grand Trunk for permitting an inexperienced engineer to be in charge of the
