REGISTERED MAIL PACKETS MISSING

Fifteen Lost or Stolen While in Transit From London To New York.

London, March -2 .- Replying to a question in the House of Commons yesterday regarding the disappearance of fifteen registered mail packets in transit by steamer Celtic, which arrived in New York on January 22, Postmaster-General Buxton said that, after a careful investigation there was every reason to believe that only letters had been forwarded from this country by the steamer Celtic on that occasion. It is understood that the contents of the packets were very valuable, and it is not known whether they have been stolen or lost. Regarding the matter the postmaster-general said: "I have already made urgent representation on this subject
