STURNEY WANTS ANOTHER MATCH WITH JOE WEST

Says He Is Willing To Put Up $50 or $100 Against "E. H. S." Coin in Contest on Nos. 4 and 5.

I was defeated by Joe West on neutral alleys Wednesday night, but have never rolled any games to amount to a great deal on neutral alleys. However, I am quite positive I can give West a great run on the alleys I am used to, providing he gives me 100 pins handicap. I will give Mr. West one week's notice to get in shape providing he gives me 100 pins on Nos. 4 and 5 alleys. Last Wednesday night was my first match for a purse, and it was on strange alleys, and there-fore Joe West ought to be able to beat me as he has rolled all over the country on strange alleys and always rolled well, but if he will give me another match on . 4 and 5 alleys I will take up the H. S." challenge for $50 or $100. Thanking you for your space, yours, BEN STURNEY.

The second quarter was marked by clever tackling on both sides and good kicking. A. Cope's right knee was put out, and he was obliged to retire, his place being taken by H. Hooper. Manson, Hamilton's centre-half, got a kick in the stomach, but after a short rest was able to continue. Norman, quarterback, was also hurt. Each team added one point to their score, and the result at half-time was: Hamilton 3, St. Lambert 2. bert 2.

In the third quarter the spectators became too eager and crowded onto the field. The Tiger centre-half did some fine kicking. Smart tackling on both sides was the feature of this quarter. Tigers were playing a better game than St. Lambert. Gausden was put off for one minute. Hamilton got one point, and at three-quarter time the count stood 4 to 2 in favor of Hamilton. o 2 in favor of Hamilton. In the last quarter St. Lambert made trenuous efforts to overcome the twopoint lead, but were able to secure only a rouge, and The Tigers are Canadian Junior champions, the final score reading
