BERRIES PLENTIFUL
ON LOCAL MARKET

Sold Today at from 13 to 15 Cents Per Box—Other Quotations.

The most noticeable feature of the market today was a drop in the price of berries. The price today did not go below 13 cents per box, and several loads sold for only 11 to 12 cents. The market was plentiful for the past couple of weeks, although there have been off days when a scarcity was marked. It is very probable that the price will drop again and further, and an advance in quality and color will be needed to hold the price at 13 and 14 cents per box.

Dressed poultry, butter and eggs are quiet, but prices do not show any falling tendency. Harey berries are plentiful and are selling freely at 13 to 15 cents per box.

Other market prices show no change.
