WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 16. A resume of the findings of the Belgian commission of inquiry, appointed by the King of the Belgians to inves tigate the alleged outrages commit ted by German troops, by the Belgian legation here, was made public today after the report had been presented to follows:

"German cavalry opposing the village of Linsmeau were attacked by ome Belgian troops and two y the Belgian soldiers during the fight. None of the civilians had taken part in the fight. Nevertheless, the village was invaded at dusk on Aug. 10 by strong force of Germans.

Skulls Fractured by Rifles. "In spite of the formal assurance given by the burgomaster that none fight, two farms and six outlying houses were destroyed by gunfire and reduced to ashes. No recently charged firearms were found. Nevertheless, the invaders divided the male peasants into three groups. Those in one group were bound and eleven of them placed in a ditch, where they were afterwards found dead, their skulls fractured by the butts of rifles. "During the night of Aug. 10 German cavalry entered Velm in great numbers. The inhabitants were asleep. Without provocation the Germans fired on Mr. De Glimmes' house and broke it open. They destroyed most of his property. They carried off Mme. De Glimmes half-naked to a place two miles away.
