The Land Demand

Probably no surer indieation of faith impending improvement in our colonin impending improvement in our colonial condition could be manifested than the inartasing eagerbesk with which gricultural lands are being sought for. agricultaral lands are being sought for.
Time was when advertisements of farms pr sale altracted litule attention: As ovidence of the change whieh has recently taken place in this reapect, might be mentioned that, in response to an advertisement which appeared in the for sale, five applications were made berore aight, Nor is it alone for improred farms that an increasing demand is observable. The Increasing applicat import astill graater demaod for Crowñ Lands; and it affords as ne littlo pleasure to be able to say, in this connection, that inereas ing facilities are being extended to thos
