THE CITY.

THE death occurred yesterday at his home on Pioneer street of James Pettigrew, aged 61, a native of Ayr, Scotland, for eight years resident in British Columbia. Five sons and a sorrowing widow form the bereaved family circle.

From THE DAILY COLONIET, February 20.

H. L. GULLINE left for the East last night on business connected with the Gulline Pneumatic Collar Co., for which Hewits Bostock and he hold the entire Canadian patent rights. As soon as the rubber bags arrive the first thousand horse collars will be turned out by F. A want attended general meeting of the Victoria Liberal Conservative association, held last night at the Adelphia hall, discursed freely the question of holding a accurating convention to select candidates they had bestowed upon him, and to assure them of his hearty support and assistance in every possible way. Mr. Baker's remarks were loudly applicated and afterwards routine business was disposed of and the association got down to the serious work of the conning. It was decided to hold a nomines in gonvention not later than the 19th of March to select the Conservative candidates and in the meantime to prepare for the campaign work by the appointment of ward full discussion of the question of representation of the outlying districts at the nominating convention, the importance of which was maximously supplied to select and payments made.
