THE TORONTO WORLD.

TUESDAY MORNING, OCT. 14, 1884.

A STAKEHOLDER IS SAFE.

Judge Osler Hands Down an Important Written Judgment.

Judge Osler handed down yesterday morning at Osgoode hall a written judgment in the case of the Queen against Dillon, in which he made an order on Saturday for the prisoner's discharge. The judgment says: "I am of opinion that the conviction discloses no offence and that the defendant is entitled to be discharged. He is charged with having become the custodian of money staked by two persons upon a bet between themselves on the result of a boat race. The act of 40 Vic., chap. 31, 'An act for the suppression of betting and pool-selling' forbids under a very heavy penalty, the keeping (1) of premises, and (2) of any device or apparatus for the purpose of recording or registering any bet or wager, or selling any pool; (3) becoming the custodian of money staked or recording in any bet or wager, or selling any pool upon the result of any race, etc. Betting is not forbidden by the act. Its whole scope and object is to restrain the abuse of betting which exists where betting-shops or places for registering bets or selling pools are kept, on which money may be staked in advance or otherwise by all comers, or other forms of gambling upon the result of a race facilitated. Then comes the proviso in sec. 3, which enacts that the act "shall not extend" inter alia to bets between individuals. But as the act has not forbidden such bets the only meaning this can have is that, so far as a bet is concerned, neither the prohibitions nor the sanction of sec. 2 apply to it. I cannot agree that the proviso relates only to the individuals who bet, while it fastens the penalties upon the holder of their stakes. It is the bet which is excluded from the operation of the act, and as the act has not forbidden a bet, there can be nothing where a bet between individuals is accompanied by a deposit, to which that part of the proviso could have any application, unless everything relating to such a bet, including the stakeholder where there is one, is beyond the scope of the act. The fact that sec. 2 also expressly enacts that the act shall not extend 'to any person' by reason of his being custodian of money staked to be paid to the winner of a lawful race cannot, as it seems to me, limit the construction which the subsequent part of the section, for the reasons I have already given, requires. In short, I read the section as a declaration that the act does not apply to stakeholders in any of the three cases mentioned in it, none of which are in the meaning of the act."

The Bon Marche is jam full of New Goods and opening daily.

The Late Sir Robert Torrens.

The board of directors of the Canada Land Law Amendment association has passed the following resolution: "Resolved, That the board of directors of the Canada Land Law Amendment association has heard with sorrow the announcement of the death of Sir Robert Torrens, one of the greatest law reformers of the age, and hereby desires to record the obligations of the association for the valuable advice and substantial assistance given by him in aiding the work the association has undertaken in securing the adoption of the Torrens system of land transfer in Canada, and for the kind attention shown to the president of the association on his recent visit to England, and for the interest then manifested by him in the work of the association. The directors also desire to convey to Lady Torrens their heartfelt sympathy with her in her bereavement."

Suit Against a Vessel Owner.

The first case called at the maratime court, Judge Boyd presiding, yesterday was Chisholm v. Bible. Geo. Bible is the owner of the schooner North Star, and Mrs. Chisholm is the widow and administratrix of the late Captain G. B. Chisholm. In 1883 Captain Chisholm was engaged as master of the North Star, and at the end of the season, as he had not received enough money from the owner to pay the hands off, he borrowed sufficient from his wife to meet the demand. He remained on the vessel until Feb. 22, when he died without receiving any money, and his widow now sues for $691 wages and disbursements. The defendant admits the claim for disbursements, but only agrees to two months wages instead of five and a half months as claimed. His honor reserved judgment.

Don't buy your Fall Dry Goods, Millinery and Mantles till you run through the Bon Marche.

The Varsity Girls.

Much curiosity is evinced in regard to the plucky young ladies now attending lectures at University college. They are courageous in setting an example to their more timid sisters. That these need not be timid doubtless the pioneers will soon prove. They are courageous in the large amount of work they are undertaking; one of them attempting honors in three departments in the third year. The librarian's private room has been given up to them, and a matron has been provided to attend them and other conveniences are being provided by the Ontario government, under whose special guardianship they are placed.

A Bold Till-Tapper.

A clerk in Jaffray & Ryan's grocery store, 236 Yonge street, noticed a man sneak behind the counter last night and put the contents of the till in his pocket. He grabbed him and handed him over to Policeman Whiteside, who took him to to No. 2 station, where he gave his name as Wm. McCauley, aged 19. The money he had taken, some $13, was found in his pocket.

The Century for November.

General Beauregard, in his article on the battle of Bull Run in the November Century, gives the reasons why the confederate victory at Bull Run was not followed up by an attack on Washington. He also discusses his personal relations with Mr. Davis, and criticizes, with much plainness of speech, the subsequent conduct of the war on the confederate side.

The Catholic League Revived.

A meeting of catholics to discuss the treatment of their co-religionists in the matter of political patronage was held in the Rossin house about a week ago. Senator John O'Donohoe was among those present. The majority were conservatives, but they were not satisfied with the conservative leaders.

The Bon Marche will show this morning 289 pieces Blue Serge for 20 cents per yard.

The Cow Boys at the Woodbine.

Dr. Carver's wild west show arrived in the city yesterday. The personnel of the company is quite novel and interesting. They will open their engagement at the Woodbine this afternoon.

AT WYCLIFFE COLLEGE.

The First Public Meeting of the Alumni Association.

The annual commemoration of the Wycliffe college alumni association took place yesterday afternoon. The hall was filled with the well-wishers of the evangelical movement and also with a few of its critics. Rev. Weston Jones took the chair and smoothly conducted the meeting through its various stages. "Sermon, speeches, music" the convocation card showed were to fill the bill of fare.

Evening prayer with a sermon by Rev. Bernard Bryan, incumbent of Bradford, opened the proceedings. The sermon was charmingly rythmical and struck the key-note of the following papers—evangelicism. The first paper upon the list was by Rev. W. J. Armitage, St. James' church, Orillia. Subject: Cranmer, archbishop and martyr. The writer agreed for the thoroughly evangelical character of the compilers of our liturgy. The second paper was that by Geo. E. Lloyd of Wycliffe college. He treated of John Wycliffe. Rev. Dyson Hague, M.A., of St. James' cathedral, followed with a carefully considered paper upon the influence of Archbishop Laud upon the church of his day. Refreshments were at this point handed round, and the proceedings were formally concluded.

In the evening the graduates and undergraduates met together for intercourse of a more social character. The session of Wycliffe college for 1884-5 is formally opened next Monday afternoon.

STEVENSON LODGE.

A Successful Anniversary Masonic Meeting Held Last Night.

The fifteenth anniversary meeting of Stevenson lodge No. 248, A. F. & A. M., held last night, was one of the most brilliant masonic events of the season. An address on the rise, progress and history of the grand lodge of Canada was delivered by M. W. Bro. D. Spry, I.P.G.M. This was followed by an address from Bro. J. K. Kerr, P.G.M. Bro. J. Ross Robertson, P.G.S.W., spoke on the rise, progress and history of masonry in Toronto. "Masonic Reminiscences" was the title of a short address by Bro. D. McLellan, P.G.S.W. Bro. J. G. Burns, I.P.D.D.G.M., spoke on the rise and progress of Stevenson lodge. N. G. Bigelow discussed "Religion and Freemasonry," and W. J. Hambly "Masonic Literature." The last address was by W. Bro. Paton, present master Stevenson lodge, and took the shape of an allegoric history of the lodge.

Among those present were R. W. Bros. Kivas Tully, J. G. Burns, W. Bros. D. H. Watt, J. Ritchie, John A. Cowan, J. K. Knitton, S. M. Davis, Geo. Lauder, C. W. Postlethwaite, Robt Dunn and the masters and past masters of all the city lodges.

For Genuine Value go to the Bon Marche.

A Successful Cottage Meeting.

A largely attended meeting was held in the little cottage building at York and Richmond streets last night. The meeting was for the special purpose of bringing together all the christian workers of every denomination in the city. After some excellent singing by a large, well trained choir, an able and eloquent address was given by Rev. Wm. Parsons. In his address he said that much good was being done by a passing word of christian advice, and many people owed their conversion to a few kindly words from a christian worker.

Hon. S. H. Blake also gave some of his experience as a mission worker, and said that he hoped every christian would devote himself to the work during the coming winter. H. C. Dickson, who has so ably managed the mission, said that nearly all the York street walkers had been brought in at various times, and that a policeman on that beat had said that there was no work to do on Friday nights since the mission started. He also said that the police were raising a subscription for the benefit of the mission.

The meeting closed with prayer by Mr. Blake.

Arrest of a Suspected Young Burglar.

A series of burglaries have lately been committed at Niagara Falls and the police of that town have been considerably discomfited in tracking the burglars. It has been suspected that a quantity of the stolen goods have found their way to this city. Last night Detective Reburn arrested in York street George Greenfield, aged 18, who says he belongs to Cobourg. In his possession was found a quantity of silk handkerchiefs and gloves, which are suspected as being part of the proceeds of one of the Niagara Falls burglaries. Greenfield said he was on his way home from Buffalo. He will be arraigned in the police court this morning.

The Coming Candidate.

Aldermanic candidates are already cropping up. M. Barrett, the potato merchant of Colborne street, is the first to announce himself. He will run in either St. Lawrence or St. Matthew's ward.

To-day the Bon Marche will show 5 cases Ladies' Bags and Purses bought in New York at 50 cents on the dollar.

Tempus Fuget.

—Time and tide, we are told, wait for no man, therefore make the best of it by dividing your time to advantage. This you cannot do without a correct time-keeper, which you can get at Doherty's, 205 Queen street west, or you can have your watch cleaned, repaired and timed skilfully and cheaply. "All work warranted." 136

The Commission Closed.

Mr. Caswell and Mr. Blake addressed the commission at length yesterday. Mr. Caswell spoke on behalf of Kirkland. The commission was then closed. It will be some days before the commissioners will make a report.

Economy.

—The secret of economy lies in the buying of upholstering, such as parlor or drawing-room suites, in the purchaser going to an establishment where they make it a specialty of manufacturing first-class goods. T. F. Cummings, 349 Yonge street, has the reputation of being an experienced workman, who thoroughly understands his business. You can rest fully assured of getting what you want, and at reasonable figures.

—I will give a horse and harness if I cannot sell all kinds of harness cheaper than any other shop in the city. It won't cost much to come in and see. Do not mind what other dealers tell you. Will warrant work hand made. Large stock to pick from. Come quick. Sign of the White Horse, 55 Jarvis street.—Advt

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—The prime meridian conference to-day adopted the meridian of Greenwich. The representatives France and Brazil did not vote.

A DRUMMER BOUNCED.

A Case of Interest to Commercial Travellers.

From the Montreal Star.

In the recorder's court yesterday a young commercial traveler named Hector Painchaud appeared in answer to a charge of assault preferred by Mr. Moisan, merchant, 1586 Notre Dame street. The case was of interest, as showing that a commercial traveler may be forcibly ejected if too importunate to the merchant. It was proved that Painchaud had been in the habit of going to plaintiff's store to solicit orders, and was told not to come as he had nothing plaintiff wanted. Defendant's manner also did not please him. Defendant persisted in calling, and on Oct. 4 came with samples and undid them in the store, plaintiff protesting that he did not want the goods, had no time to look at the samples, and wished defendant to leave the store. Defendant did not do so at once, and plaintiff jumped over the counter, opened the door and placing his hand on the back of defendant's neck pushed him out on the sidewalk. As they were going out defendant struck plaintiff three blows on the mouth, cutting his lip. The recorder fined Painchaud $10 and costs, saying that Mr. Moisan did only what was his legal right to do in ejecting him when he refused to go otherwise.

The Brockton Toughs.

Wm. Cooney, Joseph Rooke, Thomas McDermott and Wm. Stead were brought before J. M. Wingfield, J.P., yesterday, charged with having stolen a horse and buggy and $7 from Wm. J. Convey on Friday, Oct. 3. Convey positively identified Cooney and Rooke as the men he had been drinking with on the Friday night, and Mrs. Ray and Mrs. Tucker also swore that the prisoners were in the company of Convey on the night the robbery was committed. As there was no evidence against McDermott he was discharged and the others were remanded until Monday next, Stead being allowed out on his own recognizance of $500.

A Disabled Court of Appeal.

When the court of appeal met for the purpose of giving judgments yesterday morning it was found that there were only three judges present, and it takes four to make a court for the hearing of superior court appeals. Chief Justice Hagarty stated that his brother Burton was absent through illness, that he had lost about a week of the time which had elapsed since the court adjourned through the same cause, and that the courts was therefore not prepared to give judgments. By to morrow (Wednesday) they hoped to dispose of some of the cases standing for decision, and on Monday next he thought they would clear off all judgments and leave a clean sheet.

The Late Mr. Law.

Mr. Littlejohn, advocate of Edinburg, is in town making inquiries into the death of the late Mr. Law, the clerk in the Toronto office of the bank of British North America who suicided near Chicago. He had a conference with Mr. Grindlay, the manager, yesterday, and also interviewed a number of persons who knew of the young man's history. Mr. Littlejohn is the trustee of the estate of the late Mr. Law's father, and says he is determined to probe the matter to the bottom. Mrs. Law, the young man's mother, is lying very ill in Scotland.

A Remarkable Recovery.

—A council of doctors declared Mrs. Adelaide O'Brien of 372 Exchange street, Buffalo, incurable. Her liver was badly disordered, she vomited green mucous, could retain no food, skin yellow and full of humors. She was rapidly sinking, but Burdock Blood Bitters cured her. 2-4-6

Dineen and Pharaoh's Daughter.

"On Egypt's banks contiguous to the Nile,
King Pharaoh's daughter went to bath in regal style,
And as she dropped her skirts to wet her royal skin,
She spied the basket that had little Moses in."
Then turning to her maids she said: "I ween,
Go buy a hat for him—get from Dineen."
But lastly she cried in accents wild,
"Goodness gracious, girls; which of yes owns the child."
Dineen, the hatter, has the latest styles,
And certainly has never basked in eastern smiles.
Go buy a hat from him, you know the place;
At corner King and Yonge you see his happy face.—Advt.

OFF TO INDIA.

A Pleasing Farewell to Rev. W. A. Wilson and Wife at St. James' Square.

The smiling face of Hon. Mr. Mowat was prominent among those who occupied seats on the platform at St. James' Square presbyterian church last night. The church was well filled, it being the farewell meeting to Rev. W. A. Wilson and wife, who are going to India as missionaries for the Canadian presbyterian church. Rev. Prof. McLaren occupied the chair, and Rev. Principal Grant, of Queen's college, Rev. Principal King, of Manitoba college, Rev. Dr. Wardrope, Rev. H. M. Parsons, Rev. Dr. Reid, Rev. Principal Caven, Hon. O. Mowat and Rev. Mr. Wilson occupied seats on the platform.

Rev. Dr. Wardrope spoke of the importance of foreign missions and of their influence on the church, and indirectly on home missions. He pointed out that although home missions were the great work of the Canadian church, one way of promoting home missions was through foreign missions.

Rev. Principal Caven spoke mainly of the needs of the Northwest, and the importance of following settlers there with the gospel.

Rev. Mr. Wilson spoke at some length on the work he was devoting his life to, and hoped that his labors might be productive of good result. After the meeting had closed he stood near the platform, and the crowd closed in around him, all anxious to speak a word of encouragement.

Only a Farmer's Daughter.

After the very heavy business of last week at the Grand the attendance last night took a drop. C. R. Gardiner's company gave a splendid reading of this interesting domestic drama, and the audience were at times moved to loud applause. The play is well known in this city. The play will run to-night and to-morrow night, with matinee to-morrow afternoon.
