want a Change!

A few short weeks ago that young girl was the personification of health, vigor and beauty. The blush upon her cheeks rivaled that of the rose; her step was light and buoyant, her every movement was a revelation of perfect physical health. Yet now she is pallid and haggard, and her superabundant vitality has given place to a strange dullness and

A BROOKLYN SCANDAL

A Preity Girl and a Wall-street Business Man Implicated.

New York, May II.—The Brooklyn police were notified Monday that a young woman was dying of a criminal operation in the brown stone house 371 Bridge-street, that city. After considerable difficulty the vietim's name was learned to be Miss Frankie Bell. aged about 20, who occupied a room at that place, and was a general favorite on account of her ladylike deportment. She was induced to make a statement, and the result was the issuance of warrants for the arrest of three persons, Mary John, a midwife, her assistant, a woman, and a well-knows society man, said to be a member of Amaranth Dramatic Association and of Dr. Talmage's church, who is engaged in business, in Wall-street. He could not be found last, night, but is expected to be arrested this morning. Miss Bell is very pretty. She has not made an ante-mortem statement, as she may recover.
