"No More Dumping of Little Asias Into Canada, "Says Walter McRaye; "100 Per Cent. Canadians Wanted"

Spendthrift Buying in U.S.A. into the United States half a billion dollars worth. Cause of Present Idleness in THE UNEDUCATED VOTER. This Dominion, Mr. McRaye cannot and will not become a Ca-

Mr. Walter McRaye threw a challenge to the members of the Women's Canadian Club yesterday afternoon, when we are going to save our country and in a vivid address on Canadian citizenship he said "we have come to the time they are not interested in politics, which when we must decide whether we are is just playing into the hands of the going to have a Canadian people or just a string of people living in Canada with their eyes fixed on some other

Mr. McRaye, himself a 100 per cent. Canadian and an orator of repute not have to go far in some cases." throughout the continent, denounced in uncertain terms the "silly dictum" which Canadian-born children are parents; "do you know that on our Canadian birth certificates there is a narginal note which says that the word holding debates and hearing lead Canadian must not be used as that indicates citizenship and not race origin. Ie asked "how are we going to Canalize the foreigners when we are not Canadianized ourselves?"

nservative-Liberal or whether some our U. F. O. friends have wandered but I tell you if we are ever to be-ADVERTISED CANADA.

"The war advertised Canada as nothng else on earth could have done," the rld over and particularly in Germany.

a hot time for Fritzie.' They boasted of the iron breed of

'I am not forgetting that one must tion of free trade or protection, but a do not preach the nationalism of Mr. question of economics and patriotism. Bourassa and his kind, who think any one of the 57 varieties of it will be a are made in Canada. Let me show that the one reason for Canadian ess to-day is the willingness of idleness to-day is the willingness of Canadians to purchase luxuries the never learn our language, and whose change across the counter. "I hear Canadians to purchase luxuries the living aim is only to return to their father- there's a whole crowd coming down ild well do without from the United past year, do you wonder that our shoe Americans boasted of. into our rich agricultural country we slopped over instead, and there fruit, including 198,000 barrels of apples, menace. with the apples rotting on our own trees ishing industry in the Maritime Provof fish into Canada during the past year. You pay a high price for coal, of which 78,000,000 tons were imted last year, and yet in the Sydney strict of Cape Breton alone there are coal, which we could have if the freight rates were so arranged. Altogether, we have imported a billion and Canada in one year, and we have sold akes women far more subject to nstipation than men.

Indoor Life

The liver becomes sluggish and torpid, the bowels constipated and the system poisoned by impurities.

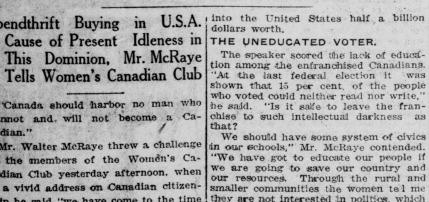

If you would get away from the myriads of ills which result from constipation, it is only neces-sary to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

The benefits from their use are as lasting as they are prompt and John Barry, 18 St. Street, Quebec, Que.,

"This is to certify that I was troubled all kinds of medicines without relief. At last my husband suggested that I try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I did so, and must say that they have given me more relief than all the medicine I have taken during the last fifteen years. I may also add that I have used Dr. Chase's Ointment for piles with excellent results."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25c a box, all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

our resources. Through the rural and men who so gallantly withheld the franhise from them because they were not intelligent enough to use it. man in Canada should be just as intelligent as the men on the politics of the day, and God knows they would "Do you know why the Farmer movement has gained such a following?" the speaker asked. "Because they sed in the nationality of their sent out speakers on the tariff and the hall; because their boys and girls are the tariff. I will guarantee that the boys and girls of London are not debating on the tariff question; they are more likely at the movies."

Mr. McRaye urged a greater study Canadianized ourselves?"

"I am talking to you as a Canadian to Canadian, Mr. McRaye said in beginning his address. "I don't care wether you are Liberal-Conservative or Conservative Liberal or whether some sagas of the early days, the epics of the war forecast, it is time we began to develop a Canadian conscience as well."

ADVERTISED CANADA.

Sagas of the early days, the epics of the splendid history of the fathers of Confederation, "statesmen all, engaged in the framing of that great charter," all these, the speaker

Canadian public schools.

The status of the Canadian writer speaker continued. "We are known the Canada also came in for a share of criticism. "We have lost four millions of our The Germans have a whole-souled re- population to the United States since gard for Canadians, remembering that | Confederation," Mr. McRaye stated, here the Canadians were there was and we got a million and a half in re turn: that, to quote Canon Scott is the only kind of reciprocity we can have the North, but they forgot that we had with the U. S. A. Eighty-five per cent. a North on this continent, and that of our raw pulp goes into the United Canada was most of it, until they met States, and we buy it back in its fin-the Canadians at a place that Tommy ished state. It goes over there to furins called 'Wipers.' What Canada nish the Hearst yellow papers that come and the Canadians achieved in the world war was not a matter of chance, the Canadians were merely running to DEAD TO CANADIANISM

"We are dead to Canadianism from the politics to a Canadian Club," Mr. our feet up," Mr. McRaye declared. Raye went on, "but I tell you that bresent issue is no longer a questionalism, and when I say nationalism, I ing of Asia, the formation of little Greeces, and Palestines, a people who learn our language, and whose tates, an army of foolish persons, rich that Mr. Meighen's Government is gogrough high wages and war profits, ing to bring down a scheme of selective indulged in an orgie of extrava- immigration, for you cannot stop immibuying across the American bor- gration into Canada any more than you We have imported $8,000,000 worth can stop the | y of judgment. But we American boots into Canada in the don't want a melting pot, such as the actories are running part time only. came they found it wouldn't melt, but mported $32,000,000 worth of discovered a scum that became a

"Don't worry about the empire," Mr. is not worth while to pick McRaye summed up. "It has weathered The bottom has fallen out of our many a worse storm than the Iris question, and has been the better and stronger for it. The time has come for Canadians to worry about Canada

HOME SIDE OF CHILD WELFARE TO THE FORE

Association Will Ask Volunteer Help

The other side of child welfare, the ome side, is to be very fully discussed at the semi-annual meeting of the Lon don Child Welfare Association, called for next Monday afternoon at the Y. M.

zens generally in an aspect of the work that is neither the immediate care of children nor the relief of financial necessity, the executive of the association is asking all interested to attend this that is being more and more forced on the attention of the city workers. "It is the families that need help, and that of a different kind from an occasional basket of groceries or order of coal," Miss Bertha Smith, head nurs of the welfare staff, complained to The Free Press yesterday. "We can, and we are, looking after the babies, and public health nursing has made won-derful strides in this city, but, as one mother said to us, 'It is all very well to order meat for the children, but where is the meat coming from?' It is to help in these home straits that we are asking the citizens to meet with us next week.

KEEP HOMES GOING. "We want to keep the homes to gether." Miss Smith said, "and there is a better way of doing it than spasmodic or even organized relief after the crash comes. I am going to suggest that when cases of need are brought to our notice through our clinics or our visiting, that we be enabled to turn one family over to one particular club or organization help during the bad times. I do mean wholly charity, but rather feet again, a loan, if need be, for the pervision till things are righted again. I Serve Club has taken one family; class 27, of Dundas Center Church, an-

A second type of service which the laity can perform is volunteer assistweekly in the four wards of the city. been extended to the Army and Navy Miss Smith pointed out that there is Veterans, the G.W.V.A., the 142nd that does not require the attention school girl graduates to help us, as they ed to the children of the city schools. The Royal Canadian Regiment will participate in the event and the G.W. could give all the assistance needful to the nurse in charge, and throughout. ould obviate the necessity of taking away our trained nurses from the pub-lic health work, beside the scheme would afford an excellent demonstra-Introduction of lieut-gove ion in mother craft for the girls them-

DRAWING LESSONS FOR OUR KIDDIES

There are funny faces you can make out of just one letter, like Mr. Gee Whizz or there is old Man Alphabet which it takes many letters to make. Can you tell just how many different kind of letters that it took to make Old Man Alphabet?

THE BLACK SHEEP

By Ruby M. Ayres

was wrong. Laxton had paid no atten- his hat and pass on; at any rate, there tion at all to his threats and bullying. him to do so and because he quite calculated his chances to a nicety. Barton Manor drew up its blinds on a Thursday morning; Norah, walking along the road to the village, with Friday at her heels, saw that the windows were wide open and the carriage expected. A little flush dyed her cheeks, her heartbeats quickened. Was Laxton coming back? She onged to know. She went into the village post office in the hope of hearing something from Anderton, the local And Anderton did not fail her. There gates fastened back, as if arrivals were

"We're to have great doings at the manor," he said, as he counted Norah's

"Oh!" said Norah She was half should betray her eagerness. "You mean All the village had heard that the with his London friends: it had been had left Lumsden. "Twenty-five expected, so I hear," Anderton told her. "And a chef coming, too, and a staff of servants. Wonlife on nothing a year." Norah said nothing. She disliked Anderton thoroughly.

"It's a rare change for Lumsden, that it is," he went on. "Old Mr. Snowden would turn in his grave if he could "Well, it was dull enough when Mr. Snowden lived at Barton Manor," Norah said sharply. "Personally, I hink a little excitement will do us all good." She walked out of the shop without answering his mildly amazed

Good morning.' So Laxton was coming back. spirits went up like rockets; the burden of depression she had carried during the past week seemed to have fallen

She wondered what Laurie Fenton was doing.

Laurie had not been over since that afternoon, and Norah very shrewdly guessed that her visit then had only been prompted by a desire to hear something more of the master of Barton Manor. She wondered if Laxton would make any attempt to see her. It seemed hardly likely. Perhaps they would just

PROGRAM FOR VISIT OF LT.-GOV. IS ARRANGED

Military Aspect to Be Given to Unveiling of Children's Hospital Corner

Announcement of the program ar ranged for the visit of the lieutenantgovernor and Mrs. Cockshutt on Friday next. November 4, is of interest to citizens generally, who are urged to attend the uneviling ceremony at the children's

His honor's party will arrive in the city shortly before noon, it is expected, and will be met by a deputation, including the mayor, Gen. Panet, Lieut .-Col. Gartshore, the president of the Men's Canadian Club, representatives of the Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E., and the children's hospital committee, the temporary need, work supplied where City Council, the Chamber of Commerce it is needed, and a sort of general suand others. The G.W.V.A. band will and others. The G.W.V.A. band will be in attendance.

Lieut.-Col. Cockshutt and his staff will be the guests of the Men's Canadian Club at luncheon, while Mrs. ther offers as a result of Monday's Cockshutt will be entertained by the Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E., at the

For the afternoon ceremony at the children's hospital invitations have the Grand Army United Veterans, to sent units if possible to the ceremony. "If we could get some of the high and an invitation has also been extend-V.A. band will be in attendance would be no more little intimate talks or rides through the sunny country in the gray torpedo car. It seemed such a long cry back to that afternoon—such a long cry back to that night in the garden when Laxton had asked her to forgive him. forgive, she told herself, with a little forlorn feeling. She wished that she had said so-wished that she had not stood there so tongue-tied, and afraid. no doubt he had believed that she really was afraid of her father and Rodney, and quite willing to give him up at their bidding.

> National Anthem, G.W.V.A. band. Introduction of lieut-governor, Mrs. Arthur Smith, convener of children's hospital committe.

She had nearly reached home when, away in the distance, she heard the low sound of a motor horn, and for an instant her pulses raced. Then she laughed to herself. After all, it was heard the sound of a horn or the whir it would be Laxton— And then she believe clothesline, from which the heard it again, louder this time, and bride-to-be was invited to take her she had only just moved to the roadside when round the bend swept the gray torpedo car, and she just caught a glimpse of Laxton's face as he raced by. There was a woman beside him, and behind followed two more cars—large touring cars which seemed to be filled with people.

They had passed and were out of sight in an instant, and Norah stood ooking after them forlornly. He had got his own friends There was a little lump in her throat.

"You're a fool, a perfect fool, my lear," she apostrophized herself con-

But for the rest of the day she could settle to nothing. She was afraid to go down the village and yet she longed She told herself that she would rather die than let Laxton think she wanted to see him, and yet every time here was a step in the lane or a voice in the garden her heart leaped to the certainty that it must be he. It was Friday who finally settled the question. When she took him down the lane leading from the ouse for his evening walk he turned off toward the village, and obstinately refused to reconsider his desire and When Norah called to him, he looked ound, wagged his tail and trotted on he was going to Lumsden. whether she liked it or not, and finally she gave in and followed. She almost ran past the gates of Baron Manor; her cheeks felt hot. If Laxton saw her she felt that she ould died of shame. It seemed to her incerity that he must know how much she wished to see him again. She breathed freely once more when she was well past the house. (To Be Continued) Unveling of the corner stone, Lieut. Address, Lieut.-Col. Cockshutt. Prayer, Col. the Rev. Wm. Beattie Hymn, "O God, Our Help in Ages

o the lieutenant-governor, by Mrs. F. Greenaway, secretary children's hos-Sealing of corner stone, Lieut.-Col. Harry Cockshutt.

Past."

In the Women's Clubs

ASKIN STREET L. A.

Thirty-five new members were rethe Ladies' Aid of Askin Street Methodist Church, at which Mrs. Frederick Schofield and Miss Frances Cullis provided a pleasing musical program. Arrangements were completed for a pazaar to be held early in December.

FEDERATION PARTY.

The Y. W. C. A. Federation of Industrial Clubs put off the dignity of Halloween party that set the old walls members came in costume, and many and wierd were the designs displayed, while all the old-time Halloween games write all the old-time Halloween games were enjoyed, ghosts were invoked and witches and goblins took part in the evening's festivities.

On Sunday afternoon, October 30, the home hour at Lenmore, 187 King street, will be recommenced under the direction of the Y. W. C. A. Federation of Clubs and the "Y" religious education committee. Afternoon tea, music, and an hour's chat around the fire were found last year to be most welcome to many strangers in the ctly, and all girls are invited to join in the Sunday hour. On Sunday, November 5, a committee from the King Street Presbyterian Church will be in charge.

Mrs. Newton, Waterloo street, is guest with friends in Ingersoll.

Mrs. C. K. Eberhard, Princess avenue. has returned from an enjoyable visit Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. with friends in Toronto.

and Captain Holloway, Wolseley Bar-Mrs. B. Hanson, Rogers Park, Chicago, Ill., has been the guest of the Misses Milne, 198 Cromwell street, for Mrs. Bligh, of Picton, N. S., is guest with her daughter, Mrs. W. M. B. Boyd, who entertained informally at the tea hour in her honor.

the past week

Mrs. W. H. Chittick, jr., of 501 Hamilton road, left this week to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. R Burns (formerly Miss Cora Chittick), at Airdrie, Alberta. Mrs. M. J. Corniskey and Miss Anna

Mrs. Robert Tagg, chief of Edinburgh Castle Camp, 109, Daughters of Scotland, was the guest of honor recently at a delightful social event arranged by the Lady Hague Camp, No. 50, of returned from Venice, California, where she has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Miller Phelps. Before returning Mrs. Martyn visited also in San Francisco and Los Angeles. Mrs. John Bowen, of West Monkton, was appointed one of the seven coun-cilors of the diocesan executive of the Catholic Women's League, at the convention held here this week. Through omitted from the list first published.

On Saturday evening last Mrs. F. H. when a number of ladies from Lucan Methodist Church called at her home, 7 Bellevue avenue, London, and presented her with a beautiful suit case, imbrella, and an address of kindliest good wishes, signed on behalf of the Ladies' Bible Class of which until recently she has been a member.

members of the London Hunt and the guests being a few near relative and friends of the family. Mr. and Mrs. club on Thursday afternoon next, for the election of officers and the transaction of other business. It is expected that arrangements will be made at this sor, where the groom is a prosperous meeting for the closing of the season young business man. with some interesting social event, during which the trophies of the year will be presented to their winners.

In honor of Miss Gladys Pulling, a bride-elect of the month, Mrs. Glen W. choice. Each gift was accompanied by a clever jingle which caused great fun in the reading. Supper was later serve from a table charmingly arranged with yellow mums and white satin ribbons.

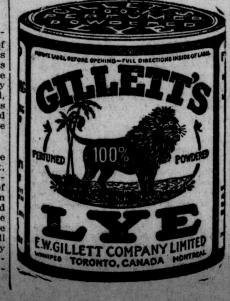

Mrs. Cameron Wilson was the hostess yesterday afternoon of a charming tea arranged in honor of Miss Doris Yarker. Mrs. John Wilson poured tea at the pretty table with its great central jar of yellow mums, Miss Layton, Miss Mona Wilson and Miss Babbie Chisholm assisting. The guests included Miss Yarker, Mrs. Jack Pope, Mrs. C. K. Edward, Miss Mary Meredith. Miss Eula White, Mrs. Charles Glass. Miss Margaret Glass, Miss Isabel Pem berton (Toronto), Miss Grace Black-burn, Miss Susan Blackburn, Mrs Arnold Dillon, Mrs. B. N. Sylvester. Mrs. E. K. Eaton and the Misses Barbara and Gussie Wilson.

A pretty social event was the miscellaneous shower given this week by Mrs. A. Wolf, at her home in Maple street, in honor of Miss Mary Mac Burney, whose marriage to Mr. Morris John Wolf takes place next month. The supper table was lovely with its streamers of rose color stretching from the chandelier and its dainty miniature bride and groom surrounded by the prettiest toy bridal party imaginable Mrs. Wright and Mrs. F. L. Smith assisted Mrs. Wolf in looking after the guests, who, during the evening, pre-sented the bride-to-be with many lovely gifts. Autumn flowers and glowing fires made the pretty rooms nost attractive.

The house of Miss Letta Clement, 3 Beaconsfield avenue, was the scene of a happy gathering of girls on Wednes-day evening, when Miss Ida Holliday, a bride-to-be of early November, was the guest of honor. The early part of the evening was spent in games and music. Later a dainty supper was served in the dining-room, where the decorations were carried out in pink and white. A lovely bouquet of pink rosebuds and asparagus fern centering the table, surrounded with a shower of recipes, caught with white baby ribbons which led to the end of the table and were tied with a large white bouquet where the guest of honor sat. Much fun was created by the reading of the verses which accompanied each recipe. The evening ended with the good wishes of all the guests for the popular bride

HALE ST. C.G.I.T.

The Canadian Girls in Training, of the Hale Street Methodist Church, held a most enjoyable masquerade party at the home of their leader, Mrs. Bruce Tremaine, King street, this week. scene was a pretty one. Artistic Halloween decorations formed a fitting background for the girls' gayly colored quaintness and originality.

Weddings

An event of much interest to many A SLATE OF SIX. London friends took place this week in Grand Ledge, Mich., at the home of is to receive the nominations sent in Mayor, D. D., and Mrs. Shane, when by any of the women's societies in aftheir niece, Miss Vera Yeates, M. A., came the bride of Mr. J. C. Mitchell, eldest son of Commissioner F. G. and ers. Mitchell, of this city. The cerenony was performed in the First Presbyterian Church, Lansing, after which Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell left for their new home in Los Angeles, California.

A pretty wedding was solemnized or T. J. Neely, when their youngest daughter, Edna Victoria, was united in mar-Mrs. McKee, of Halifax, is a guest riage to Mr. John McIntyre Mills, with her niece, Mrs. K. M. Holloway of Mr. and Mrs. John Mills, of this city. After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Mr. Reed in the pres-ence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom, a dainty wedding luncheon was served, about 20 guests being present.

The bride wore a gown of orgette, over satin, and lovely bridal veil of tulle, with orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of roses. Mr. and Mrs. Mills left on the after noon train for a brief visit to Eastern cities, the bride traveling in a pretty fur coat, the gift of the groom.

Simpson-Watson.

A pretty wedding took place at Maple Glen, the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Watson, on October 12, when their Howe, of Ingersoll, who attended the youngest daughter, Violet Eva, became convention of the Catholic Woman's the bride of Hugh Simpson, second son League in this city, were guests with of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Simpson, of Enniskillen, Rev. Mr. La Mont officiating. Miss Mabel Simpson, sister of the groom, played the wedding march and the bride was given in marriage by her father, and was gowned in white crepe de chine, with pearl embroidery and yeil of tulle banded with orange blossoms. After a wedding reception Mrs. Ed. Martyn, Hayman Court, has left for Toronto, Niagara Falls and eturned from Venice, California, where points east, the bride traveling in a navy tricotine suit, with small feather hat and a handsome fur scarf, the gift of the groom. They will reside on the groom's farm, concession 12, Ennis-killen.

Reaume-Benoit.

A quiet ceremony was performed in St. Francis Church, Tilbury, on Monday evening, when Miss Eva Benoit, second daughter of Henry Benoit and the late Mrs. Benoit, of Tilbury, became the bride of Norman Reaume, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reaume, of Windwas very pleasantly surprised sor. Rev. Monsignor Parent, P. P., officiated. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Rhea Benoit, of Detroit, sister of the bride, and Mr. Ray Dugald, of Windsor. The bride was charmingly gowned in blue duvetyn, trimmed with astrachan fur, and hat to match, while her bridesmaid was smartly frocked in brown. A dainty wedding breakfast and reception followed the ceremony and friends of the family. Mr. and Mrs. Reaume left on the morning train for honeymoon. They will reside in Wind-

Citizenship Committee Has Choice of Many Names If Present Nominees

Decline So far no announcement of definite andidature for the school board has been made by the citizenship committee of the Local Council of Women, and it is expected that a second meetng of this organization will be called the course of the next week to consider further names. Although no details have been given out by the committee it is understood that the six persons suggested omination at a recent meeting of the mmittee have been approached, but with one exception have declined ballot from a large list of sugges

It is quite easy to choose your Per-sonal Greeting Card from the assort-ment on display at

AITTOM HYTT

440 CLARENCE STREET. One of the objects of supreme importance in life is "HOW TO MAKE A LIVING."

London Business Institute trains young people for remunerative business positions.

How Fat Actress Was Made Slim

Many stage people now depend entire upon Marmola Prescription Tablets ly upon Marmola Prescription Tablets for reducing and controlling fat. One clever actress tells that she reduced steadily and easily by using this new form of the famous Marmola Prescription, and now, by taking Marmola Tablets several times a year, keeps her weight just right. All good druggists as sell Marmola Prescription Tablets at one dollar for a case, or if you prefer you can secure them direct from the Marmola Co., 4612 Woodward avenue. Detroit, Mich. If you have not tried them do so. They are harmless and effective.—Advt.

How You Can Make Hairs Quickly Disappear (Helps to Beauty)

Even a stubborn growth of hair will quickly vanish from the face, neck of arms after a single treatment with delatone. To remove hair from arms neck or face make a stiff paste with little powered delatone and water, ap-ply to hairy surface and after about two minutes rub off, wash the skin and it will be left free from hai or blemish. To avoid disappointment be quite certain you get real delaton and mix fresh.—Advt.

further satisfactory selection from the balance of this list, as well as from

As the office of citizenship committee filiation with the Labor Council, it is believed that a final slate of six will $2,200 and costs by a jury at the W be presented by the committee, representing the nominations of the women

The committee will not, it is thought, consider nominations for any civic office other than the Board of Education. In addition to the mass meetings of direction until too late.

didates for the coming federal el tion, the committee hopes to arrange one general meeting after the cive nomination day, at which candidate for any municipal office will have opportunity of presenting their casthe women of the city.

ST. CATHARINES. Oct. 27_H The trolley carried no headlight Jo

Ryan Millinery Stores

Saturday and Monday

ABOUT 500 Kiddies' Hats

Worth $1.50 to $2.50 at,

Ladies' Hats Worth $2.00 to $4.00 at,

ABOUT 450

The Children's and Misses' Hats

Are travelers' samples and surplus stocks from a large New York manufacturer of popular-priced Hats.

They offer a large variety of styles and colors, mostly ribbon band and streamer trimmed. Regular values $1.50 to $2.50, special price Monday selling only 89c

The Ladies Hats

Are surplus stock of popularly-priced Hats from five different makers and they comprise a large range of becoming styles from the Draped Turban for matrons' wear, to the Pert, Saucy Tassel-Trimmed Hats for "Miss Sixteen."

These Hats are worth in the regular way $2.00 to $4.00 each, but for Saturday and Monday's selling we offer them at the $1.19 very low price of LONDON ADDRESS: 260 DUNDAS STREET.

Jeas Vary Like Wines

THE Lowlands of India and Ceylon produce the heaviest crops— the Uplands the finest qualities.

CEYLON AND INDIA BLACK TEA

is Upland tea with all of its natural fragrance and flavor unimpaired. and gentle hillside sunshine, beneath moisture laden breezes, the tea slowly attains its growth and fullness of flavor—that delectable individuality that makes this Blend a repture of joy to CHASE & SANBORN, Montreal, Que.

Magical Effect of New Face Peeler

To maintain a clear, soft, youthful complexion, there's nothing so simple to use and yet so effective as ordinary mercolized wax, which you can get at any drug store. Just apply the wax at night as you would cold cream; in the morning wash it off with warm water. If you've never tried it you can't imagine the magical effect of this harmless home treatment. Mercolized wax causes the worn-out scarf skin to come off in minute particles, a little at a time, and soon you have entirely shed the offensive cuticle. The fresh young underskin now in evidence is so healthy and girlish looking, so free from any appearance of artificiality, you wonder why you had not heard of this marvelous complexion renewing secret long ago.

To get rid of your wrinkles here's a formula that is wonderfully effective: One ounce powdered saxolite, dissolved in one-half pint witch hazel. Bathe the face in this and you will be simply astonished at the results, even after the first trial.—Advt.

HORLICK'S Malted Milk for the Home

A nourishing food-drink for All Ages. Anywhere at anytime. Delicious, sustaining. No cooking.

Very Itchy and Burned Troubled Six Weeks.

"Our daughter's face came out in a rash that we were told was eczema.

Her cheeks not sore and she rubbed causing loss of sleep. The breaking out was very itchy and burned so that I had to tiegloves on her hands to keep her from scratching.

her from scratching "This trouble lasted about si

"This trouble lasted about six weeks before I used Cuticura. I used one large box of Cuticura Ointment with two cakes of Cuticura Soap when she was healed." (Signed)Mrs. H. Stares, Blenheim Rd., Galt, Ont. Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum are ideal for daily toilet uses.

Soap 25c, Ointment 25 and 50c. Sold throughout the Dominion. Canadian Deput