His Worship Mayor McKenzie, being out of town, presiding Councillor Maxwell took the chair. The following Councillors were present: Warren, Young and Charlton.

The clerk read the minutes of the last regular monthly meeting. The Clerk read a letter from Arthur Roberts, Secy.-Treasurer Union of N. S. Municipalities, asking the Council to appoint delegates to attend the annual meeting of the Union, to be held this year at Liverpool on the 28th, 29th and 30th instants, whereupon it was moved by Councillor Charlton and passed that His Worship the Mayor and the Town Clerk be and they are hereby appointed delegates and that presiding Councillor Maxwell be appointed a substitute in case either of the others cannot attend.

Councillor Warren stated to the Council that he had been authorized by Walter W. Chipman, M. P., of Montreal, who had recently paid a visit to his native town to state that he would pay the expense of putting in two concrete culverts on the right of way leading from Granville street to the Riverside Cemetery, which he had recently decided to the Company, and that he would bear the expense of grading the said right of way, providing, when estimates were obtained, it was not too great, if the Council would furnish the crushed stone to finish the job, so as to make it a suitable approach to the beautiful cemetery grounds upon which the Company were spending large sums of money.

Whereupon it was moved by Councillor Charlton, seconded by Councillor Young that Mr. Chipman's offer be accepted and that as soon as the culverts are built and the road graded, that sufficient stone be supplied from the crusher to complete the job.

AWARDED A MEDAL

For An Act of Heroism and Devotion to Duty.

A few months ago we reported that Lieut. H. D. Anderson, son of our popular Chief of Police, had been rewarded for bravery, which we said was characteristic of the family. Yesterday we were shown a handsome medal awarded the lieutenant's brother, Sgt. G. F. Anderson. The latter is too modest to inform his friends how he won it, but from a comrade we learn that Sgt. Anderson's eyebrows had been shot off, that he was being carried off the battlefield, when he regained consciousness. He immediately returned to the firing line and successfully carried out his original ideas in every detail before waiting for special treatment.

We herewith reproduce the letter which accompanied the medal:

To Mrs. G. Anderson,
Bridgetown, Annapolis Co. N. S.

DEAR MADAM: The enclosed Military Medal, awarded by His Majesty the King to No. 6775, A-Sgt. G. F. Anderson, is, at the request of this Non-commissioned Officer, forwarded to you. Be good enough to acknowledge receipt of same at your early convenience.

It is regretted that definite information has not been received as to the act of gallantry performed meriting this award, but you may rest assured that it was some great act of heroism and devotion to duty.

In forwarding this Decoration, I have to convey to you the congratulations of the General Officer Commanding and Staff of Military Headquarters, this district.

Your truly,
E. D. BUCKNALL, Major,
A. D. A. G., M. L. Dist. No. 6.

THE DEATH ROLL

Several Aged and Prominent Citizens Have Passed Away

WILLIAM ROGER RAY
Mr. Ray, generally known as Roger Ray, was born in Digby, in 1839, and passed away on Friday, the 2nd inst., at his home in Upper Granville, to which he removed in early manhood. When he was about sixteen years of age he connected himself with the Methodist church, under the ministry of the Rev. Michael Pickles, having given good evidence of his purpose to live a Christian life. For a long time he was a willing worker in the Sabbath school, and for more than thirty years was the leader in the service of song, during the public worship of the Sabbath. He was always ready to show kindness to the sick and the needy, and his door was always open to the preacher of the Gospel.

For some time he has given evidence of failing strength, but the end came quite gently and unexpectedly.

He has left a mourning widow, three daughters, three sons, nine grandchildren and two great grandchildren; also one sister and six brothers. Of the children, two daughters are at home; the others are in the United States and Alberta.

The funeral services were held at the home on the afternoon of Sabbath, the 4th inst., and were conducted by the Rev. W. J. W. Swetnam, assisted by the Rev. Cranwick Jost, D. D. The large number of neighbors and acquaintances, who were present, gave evidence of the esteem in which he was held by the community, in which he had so long resided.

GRAND LODGE OF ODDFELLOWS OF THE MARITIME PROVINCES AND NEWFOUNDLAND MEETS IN KENTVILLE

The occasion of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F. visit in Kentville, August 13th, 14th, 15th, will be an event of the greatest interest.

Kentville will have a splendid opportunity to make even better its well known reputation for hospitality.

The highest officers of the order will be present and a very large number of delegates will be in attendance.

One of the pleasing treats in store for the visiting sisters will be the exemplification of the Rebekah Degree by the Bridgetown Lodge, and for the brothers, the exemplification of the Third Degree, I. O. O. F., by the Degree Team from Bear River. These will be put on in a splendid manner as these teams do remarkably fine work.

The Grand Master of Ontario, and the Grand Sire, who is head of the I. O. O. F. order on the North American Continent are expected to be present.

Arrangements are being made to have Wednesday's express in two sections, one leaving Digby in time to reach Kentville about 10 a. m., which will prove very convenient for Oddfellows and their friends all along the line.

MARRIED IN ANAPOLIS.

A pleasant event took place at St. Luke's rectory, Annapolis, last Wednesday afternoon, July 31st, at 5.30, when Rev. T. C. Mellor united in marriage Mr. James Spurr, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Spurr, of Hazel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Rice, all of Carleton's Corner. The bride, who was prettily dressed in white, was unattended. After the ceremony, the bridal party was conveyed to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Goldsmith, returning to Bridgetown via Thursday's express, being serenaded at the home of the groom the same evening. Mr. and Mrs. Spurr, who have the best wishes of a host of friends, are residing at Carleton's Corner.

MARRIED IN ALBERTA.

At Knox Church, Lethbridge, Alta., on Wednesday afternoon, July 19th, Mr. Free MacCoy, of Chinc. Alta., formerly of Des Moines, Iowa, and Miss Myra Alexa Messenger, B. A., of Taber, Rev. W. F. Burns officiating. After the marriage, Mr. and Mrs. MacCoy left for a trip East, where they will visit the bride's former home in Kingston, Nova Scotia.

THREATENED WITH PUNISHMENT.

An exchange says: A firm in Truro advertised last week urging people to buy a barrel of flour and a sack of sugar. When the advertisement came to the notice of the Canada Food Board the firm received a telegram forbidding them to sell either flour or sugar for ten days and intimating that any further advertising of the sort referred to would lead to the cancellation of their license.

MRS. CHARLES BURTON

The death took place early Thursday morning, of Mary, widow of Mr. Charles Burton, of Halifax, but many years ago a resident of Yarmouth. Mrs. Burton went to Yarmouth about three months ago to make her home for awhile with her daughter, Mrs. E. H. Porter, her health at that time being in a very indifferent state. Despite the change her condition continued to fail until about four weeks ago, when it became extremely serious. It was then soon apparent by those attending her that there was little hope of recovery.

She was a most estimable lady and is very kindly remembered by her numerous acquaintances. She was 67 years of age and is survived by two sons: Victor, of Vancouver, B. C.; John, of Moose Jaw, Sask., and besides Mrs. Porter, four other daughters: Mrs. George Randall, of Boston; Miss Lydia, of Los Angeles; Mrs. Walter Zwickler, of Halifax; Miss Winnifred, of Boston, but who came to Yarmouth a week ago to be with her mother. The remains, accompanied by Mrs. Porter and Miss Winnifred, were sent to Halifax via Friday's express.

JACOB ROBBINS

On July 24th, there passed away at Rossway, Digby Neck, at the ripe age of 88 years and 11 months, Jacob Robbins. All his faculties remained to him to the last, and the same is true of his strong characteristic good humor. He was one of the few remaining strong supporters of All Saints Church, Rossway, of which for many years, he had been a warden, and in the churchyard of which, beside his wife, his body was laid to rest on Saturday, by Rev. E. H. Ball, in the presence of a large number of sympathizers and mourners. Mr. Robbins leaves six sons, of whom one is serving in the Canadian hospitals in France, as doctor of medicine (his practice has been at New Glasgow); three are in the United States; and two live at Rossway.

PTE. JAMES GLODE

The death occurred at the Indian Reserve, Paradise, Sunday morning, of Pte. James Glode, aged 33 years. He had been serving in the militia, was a good soldier and a general favorite with all who knew him. The remains were brought to Bridgetown Monday and interred in the R. C. cemetery.

CARL BARR

Carl Barr, the 6-year-old son of Sergt. John Barr, now overseas, and Mrs. Barr, of Weymouth, died at the Yarmouth Hospital at 6 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. He was a bright little boy and readily made himself a favorite with all. The remains were forwarded to Weymouth by the D. A. R. Thursday morning.
